

Brownson Church Installs Officers

Women's Auxiliary Names New Slate To Act For The Coming Year

At what was considered one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the whole year, in the home of Mrs. Warren A. Smith on Indiana avenue Monday evening, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church met and made annual reports.

The following women were installed as the new officers for the Church year beginning April first; President, Mrs. Warren A. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. Dan McNeill; secretary, Mrs. George Moger; treasurer, Mrs. George Nevins; historian, Mrs. Hayes Britt. The new Secretaries of Causes are: Foreign Missions, Mrs. D. E. Bailey; Home Missions, Mrs. W. C. Hilderman; Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, Mrs. Roy Newton; Religious Education, Mrs. Howard Butler; Synodical and Presbyterial Home Missions, Mrs. Cliff Cameron; Spiritual Life, Mrs. Arthur McNeill; Literature, Mrs. W. E. Blue;

MAGICIAN ENTERTAINS BOY SCOUT TROOP NO. 3

Dr. William J. McLaughlin of Bridgeport, Conn., former president of the Connecticut State Dental Association, and the man who introduced dental hygiene in the public schools of Bridgeport, is a guest at the Carolina Hotel in Pinehurst.

Dr. McLaughlin is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Dental School, where he was a classmate of Dr. G. G. Herr of Southern Pines. His chief recreation, aside from golf, is magic, and he is a member of the American Society of Magicians.

Dr. McLaughlin entertained Boy Scout Troop No. 3 last night at the Troop Hut at St. Anthony's Church with an hour's display of feats of magic and illusion that left the boys mystified and enthralled.

Christian Social Service, Mrs. Dan S. Ray; Pastor's Aid, Mrs. Howard McNeill; Social Activities, Mrs. John Morrison; White Cross Work, Mrs. Don Jensen.

Mrs. Arthur McNeill, the retiring president, presided at this meeting and the Rev. E. L. Barber conducted the installation service.

Theatre

In Pinehurst

"Grand Illusion," named the finest picture of the year produced in any country, and featuring Eric von Stroheim, Jean Gabin, Pierre Fresnay and Dita Parlo, will be shown tomorrow evening, Saturday, (one performance only) at the Carolina Theatre, Pinehurst. All proceeds will go to the Moore County Maternal Welfare Committee, which is bringing this amazing picture here.

Word comes from New York that "Mikado" will positively not be shown anywhere this season at road show prices and that it will follow "Pygmalion" into the Astor Theatre, New York, for an extended run.

And it is with much gratification to Manager Picquet that he is able to announce the world premiere of this lavish all-technicolor production at the Pinehurst Theatre Sunday night, March 26th at 8:30 and Monday, March 27th at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m.

"Mikado" is produced with the world famous D'Oyly-Carte Gilbert and Sullivan Opera Co., which presents a series of Gilbert and Sullivan operas every year on Broadway, with the one exception of our own Kenny Baker, who went to London to appear in this screen production in the role of "Nankipoo."

"Mikado" is the first operetta to be produced in its entirety on the screen, but if the American cinema goers prove that they are ready for it, more such splendid productions will follow.

The Sandhills has been chosen as a "try-out" because it is believed we are the kind of folks who can and will appreciate the "better things in screen entertainment, which is a real tribute to our community.

The capabilities of two of Hollywood's first-rate stars and an ace director are pooled for one of the most auspicious entertainments of the season, "Love Affair," the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Wednesday, March 29th at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m.

Co-starred in this exciting romantic drama are Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer, who have made stellar marks individually and now are seen together for the first time. The luminaries, together with an excellent supporting cast, are put through their paces by Leo McCarey, remembered for his splendid direction of "The Awful Truth," the Academy award winner. The picture is a cunningly wrought item of unquestionably pleasing entertainment, a film in the varnished manner, but shot through with plain situations, tempered with popular music, a production most powerful in individual sequences and in numerous bits of sparkling acting.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Hound of the Baskervilles," one of literature's most shocking, spine-chilling mystery stories and the greatest of all Sherlock Holmes' astounding adventures, has at last been transcribed to the screen and is the attraction at Pinehurst, Friday, March 31st, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. Tall, spare, hawk-like Basil Rathbone, in the perfect fitting role of the great detective, is co-featured with Richard Greene and Wendy Barrie. Nigel Bruce plays the famous Dr. Watson, the great detective's constant complaint, Boswell, and amazed observer. Also included in the cast are Lionell Atwell, John Carradine, Byrri Mercer and Ralph Forbes.

In Southern Pines

Southern Pines will again present three return engagements of proven merit. "Wife, Husband and Friend," with Warner Baxter, Loretta Young, Binnie Barnes and Cesar Romero, one of the wittiest comedies of the season, comes on Monday and Tuesday.

On Wednesday and Thursday, March 29, 30, with a Thursday matinee, the Broadway success "Pygmalion" with Leslie Howard and Wendy Hiller with delight everyone, and on Friday and Saturday, March 31st and April 1st, that stirring aviation picture, "Tailspin," featuring Alice Faye, Constant Bennett, John Davis, and Charles Farrell will thrill all patrons.

SHEPARD-DIGGS NUPTIALS

Word was received here yesterday of the marriage in Bennettsville, S. C., on Sunday, March 19th, of Elizabeth Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Shepard of Rockingham, and James W. Diggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Diggs of Cheraw.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Diggs were employed at the Pinebluff Sanatorium, and Mrs. Diggs is remaining there for the present. Mr. Diggs is now with Western Auto Supply Company, at Cheraw.

CHURCHES

Services at the Church of Wide Fellowship Sunday, March 26, will be as follows: 11:00 a. m., Morning Worship; sermon theme, "This Fashion? Never!"; 8:00 p. m., special Evening Union Worship.

"Reality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science Church, East New Hampshire avenue Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Sunday School meets at the same time at the church. The Reading Room, which is located in the church, is open Wednesday afternoons from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

Rev. Claude H. Pritchard, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., educational secretary of the Committee of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church, will spend the week-end with the Rev. E. L. Barber, and on next Sunday morning at 11:00, will address the congregation of the Brownson Memorial Church, at the Carolina Theatre.

While here, Dr. Pritchard will take moving pictures of the Bible School and congregation of the Brownson Memorial Church and the church building in the process of erection on May street and Indiana avenue, and the Sandhills community, particularly of Southern Pines.

"Three Visions," will be the subject of the Rev. J. Fred Stimson's sermon this Sunday morning at the Baptist Church in Southern Pines, at 11:00 o'clock. Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. and B. Y. P. U. at 7:00 o'clock. Prayer meeting next Thursday at 7:30 p. m.
