Scout Street Show To End Celebration Week

Saturday Program in Southern Pines Part of National Birthday Observance

With the Street Show scheduled to take place in Southern Pines tomorrow, Saturday morning, the Boy Scouts of Moore county will end their county-wide celebration of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the movement in the nation.

During the past week each Troop in the county has had some special troop ceremony to honor the National Scout birthday and they all participated in the county Court of Awards in Aberdeen on Friday last. Each troop has been invited to participate in a contest by placing displays in store windows in its own community. There are six such displays, Carthage, Hemp, Pinehurst, Vass and two in Southern Pines. The displays are all worth seeing and it will be difficult for the judges to select the three outstanding windows.

The Street Show will begin promptly at 11:00 o'clock in the morning with the raising of the flag, followed by "tin-can-cookery." The Scouts will then eat the products they prepare. Scouting events will then take place at 1:00 p. m. followed by fun events at 2:30. Honors will be awarded at 3:30 and the flag will be lowered at 4:00 p. m., closing what is anticipated to be the greatest Scout event ever to be held in Moore county.

HUNDREDS HORSES ENTERED IN SHOW HERE NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Ralph K. Trix of the committee announced yesterday. The music for the occasion will be furnished by the Dunes Club orchestra. Those planning to lunch at the club should make reservations at the clubhouse before 1:00 p. m. on Wednesday.

Among prominent horse owners whose colors will be seen here are Mrs. Fay Ingalls of Hot Springs, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Carleton H. Palmer of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCashion of Westport, Conn.; Mrs. George W. Johnson of Englewood, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph K. Trix of Lake Placid, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilmshurst of Laurinburg and Rumson, N. J.; Col. and Mrs. Wyche of Fort Bragg; William J. Stratton of Princeton, N. J.; William A. Laing of Armissville, Va.; Hugh Sicard of New York; Lloyd Tate and Corbett Alexander of Pinehurst; Mile-Away Stables, Southern Pines, and Mrs. William Kennedy.

There will be 14 classes. First on the card is a class for green hunters; second, thoroughbred hunters; third, working hunters; fourth, ladies' hunters; fifth, lightweight hunters; sixth, middleweight and heavy-weight hunters; seventh, hunt teams; eighth, championship hunters; ninth, hunter hack; tenth, children's horsemanship, age 12 to 17; eleventh, children's horsemanship, 12 years and under; twelfth, open jumping; thirteenth, knockdown and out; fourteenth, handy jumpers' class.

Reserve parking space around the ring is practically sold out. Officials of the show have announced that plenty of non-reserve parking space is still available.

The judges will be Alex Calvert of Warrenton, Va., and Mrs. Edward C. Bowden of Millbrook, New York.

The officials in charge are Frederick H. Burke, general chairman; Howard F. Burns, secretary-treasurer; Miss Nancy Johnson, of Englewood, N. J., in charge of program; Nick Crotty of Boston, show manager; Mrs. Ralph K. Trix, chairman of entertainment, and Eugene C. Stevens, in charge of parking.

Dr. Erwin Addresses Parent-Teacher Ass'n

Aberdeen Hears State Superintendent On Community Responsibility for Education

Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, talked on "Community Responsibility for the Educational Life of its Children" at the Founder's Day meeting of the Aberdeen Parent-Teachers' Association on Wednesday. He was presented by County Superintendent H. Lee Thomas.

Mrs. Claude Covington presided at the business meeting, and following a solo by Lyle Johnson Murphy, the following presented the candle-lighting ceremony: Emma Jane Melvin, Virginia Paris, Louise Martin, Ernestine Marks, Ruth Lawhon, Alice Adams, Frances Hearn and Gayle Meanor.

The social hour which followed Dr. Erwin's inspiring and instructive talk was presided over by Mrs. Forrest Lockey, Mrs. R. S. Gwyn, Mrs. F. A. Cummings, Mrs. Frank Shamburger, Mrs. Jack Williams and Miss Frances Flaherty.

Theatre

The attraction at Pinehurst Sunday night, February 18th at 8:30 and Monday, February 19th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m., is the special production of the famous Johanna David Wyss story, "Swiss Family Robinson," which is still one of the world's best sellers and a story that interests the entire family. Featuring Thomas Mitchell as the father, Edna Best as the mother, and Freddie Bartholomew, Terry Kilburn, Tim Holt and Baby Bobby Quillan as the children, the story on the film is the same as in the book, a tale of adventure with the natural catastrophe the only villain in it.

The attraction for Wednesday, Feb. 21st is the well known story, "Vigil In The Night" which ran serially in Good Housekeeping, and is by A. J. Cronin, the noted Scotch physician who is best known to American readers and theatregoers for his famous "The Citadel," which, in screen form was one of last season's outstanding successes. Carole Lombard turning to a dramatic role again, will be seen as the heroine, with Brian Aherne the doctor. Anne Shirley and Julian Mitchell are the supporting principals.

On Friday, Feb. 23rd at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. the screen version of John Steinbeck's book, and the stage play, "Of Mice and Men," will be the attraction at Pinehurst. Here is a story which, because of its psychological and sociological ramifications, presented a picture-making problem which was gloriously solved through flawless casting and the masterful direction of a delicately wrought screen play. Every member of the cast was selected with such care that it is difficult to single out individual performances for laurels. Included in this cast are such notables as Burgess Meredith, Betty Field, Lon Chaney, Jr., Charles Bickford, Granville Bates and Bob Steele.

At Southern Pines, Monday and Tuesday, February 19 and 20, with a Tuesday matinee, Wallace Beery in "The Man From Dakota," plays a return engagement, with the added attraction of the famous Motion Picture dog, "Rinny Boy" in person, who gives a fifteen minute sketch all by himself.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 21-22 with a Thursday matinee, comes the return engagement of Ronald Coleman in "The Light That Failed," and on Friday and Saturday February 23-24, with a Saturday matinee, the full length technicolor cartoon feature, "Gulliver's Travels," comes for a return engagement, together with the March Of Time Magazine, "The Vatican of Pius XII."
