

Miss Harrington Bride of Joseph P. McLeod

Daughter of Mrs. W. J. Harrington of Carthage Weds Brevard Business Man

In a ceremony of dignity and beauty, Miss Mary Ruth Harrington became the bride of Joseph Patton McLeod of Brevard on Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. J. Harrington. The Rev. W. G. Farrior, pastor of the Carthage Methodist Church officiated. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar banked with longleaf pine and ferns. Tall floor baskets on each side held white larkspur and carnations. White tapers burned in graduated standards.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Rozelle Williamson rendered a program of nuptial music. The Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was played as a processional. During the ceremony "The Venetian Cool Song" was softly played. As a recessional Miss Williamson played Mendelssohn's "wedding march."

The bride and bridegroom, who were unattended, entered the living room together. The bride wore a pattern model of powder blue, with bracelet length sleeves and shirred bodice. Her hat was of blue felt with a blue veil, and other accessories were of matching blue. Her shoulder corsage was of orchids and sweet peas. The bride's only ornament was an heirloom bracelet, which had belonged to several generations of her family.

Mrs. Harrington, mother of the bride, wore a dress of lavender sheer. Her shoulder corsage was of pansies.

Following the wedding, Miss Harrington entertained the guests at an informal wedding breakfast.

The dining table was spread with a lace cloth and centered with an attractive arrangement of white snapdragons, sweetpeas and freesias. Tall white tapers burned in silver holders, Mrs. F. H. Underwood poured coffee and others assisting in serving were Mrs. Roy Harrington, Mrs. Alice Thomas and Mrs. Clyde Kennedy.

The bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Southern points following the breakfast, and after February 28 they will be at home in Brevard.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
