Tag Day In Southern Pines Nets $130.20 For Maternity Welfare

Committee Expresses Appreciation, for Itself and Beneficiaries, for Generous Response

BY KATHERINE L. BOYD "How much did you make?"

That question has been asked twenty times if it has been asked once of the members of the Southern Pines branch of the Moore County Maternity Welfare Committee this week. Somehow the enthusiasm for this work has infected everyone and the eager inquiries of "How much did you make?" testify to the intense interest of the public.

It is with joy that the committee announces the results of Tag Day in Southern Pines: $130.20. Of this sum, $10.00 was given by the Christian Science Society; $5.00 was a donation from Mrs. Leonard Tufts. West Southern Pines raised $24.65 through the following organizations: The Holiness Church, $5.25; the Free Will Baptist Church, $7.25; the First Baptist Church, $7.20; The West Southern Pines School, $4.65. The rest of the amount came from the people of Southern Pines.

On behalf of Mrs. Frank McCluer, chairman of the Southern Pines Committee and for my own sake as vice-chairman of the County Committee, I would like to thank the people of Southern Pines one and all for their generous support of this work. I would like also to thank the Girl Scouts for their efficient, attractive, and cheerful services as tag-sellers. We are very grateful, too, to those who made posters for us; Mrs. Stratton, Miss Yeomans, and the faculty of Mrs. Hayes' School, and to the merchants whose lovely window decorations advertised this work and encouraged its support as nothing else could. Incidentally we wish we could do this again next winter during tourist time. We think our visitors would be much impressed to see how extraordinarily public-spirited our merchants are. It was to us quite an exciting thing to see the eagerness with which these busy men and women cooperated to make this campaign a success.

We would also like to thank, especially, The Pilot, and the other newspapers of the county, for their help. It was felt by all that the splendid publicity given to the cause contributed largely to its success. Free press publicity is too often regarded as a right by charitable organizations. We do not forget that it is not free, that it costs the paper just so many dollars and cents to print it, and we are deeply grateful for these contributions throughout the year.

Finally, may I say that this gratitude comes, through us, from the mothers and babies helped by this work? They are the really grateful ones. We only wish that everyone who contributed last Saturday could see at first hand the results of their generosity, so that they might share with us, to the utmost, the joy of feeling that one has helped just a little to make life happier and better for someone.

A report of the results of Tag Day in other towns of Moore county will be given when all the returns have been reported.

Ark School Closes A Successful Year

Pupils See Motion Pictures of Second Byrd Antarctic Expedition

The Ark School in Southern Pines closed last Thursday afternoon after a very busy season, and many pleasing events were crowded into the final two weeks of the term. They included the showing of motion pictures of the second Byrd Expedition to the South Pole by Capt. Alan-Innes-Taylor, a member of the expedition; a recital by members of the school's music club for their parents, and the Nature Club's picnic and exhibition of collections made by the members during the year.

A tennis party under the direction of Edward King and Donald Sherrard of Pinehurst was held last week, those playing in the singles and doubles matches being Nancy Boyd, Peggy Ewing, Cynthia Osborn, Mary Jane French, Pauline Nichols, Sewell Weeks, Sandra Zelle, Lewis Haynes, Dick Erhardt and George Pulver. A short assembly was held last Wednesday followed by sports events for the older children. The Ark will reopen on Monday, October 7th. Mrs. Millicent A. Hayes, principal, announces.

Theatre

It is worthy of note that the Carolina Theatre is showing three issues of the News every week direct from the Laboratory, which assures patrons of up-to-the minute-war news with every program. An instance is the fact that President Roosevelt's preparedness speech in Washington Thursday, was on the screen at Pinehurst Sunday and at Southern Pines, Monday and Tuesday.

The life and loves of Lillian Russell, belle of another generation, are brought to the screen by Alice Faye, at Pinehurst, Sunday night (only), May 26th, and at Southern Pines, Monday and Tuesday, May 27, 28, with a Tuesday matinee in a motion picture into which Darryl F. Zanuck has incorporated the wealth of elements out of which production experience spells entertainment—glamour, song, costume brilliance, famous names and places and action. The adaption of the autobiographical material for a supporting cast headed by Edward Arnold, Henry Fonda and Don Ameche, gives a basis for able performances of parts of Diamond Jim Brady, Alexander Moore, Tony Pastor and Jesse Lewisohn and Edward Solomon. William Warren is there as Jesse Lewisohn, and Leo Corlillo as Tony Pastor. Nigel Bruce and Claude Allister portray Gilbert and Sullivan; Weber and Fields as themselves. Lavishly produced and abounding in outstanding performances, this playback of a notable era and about a famous stage personality combines all the essentials of perfect entertainment.

And then comes Gloria Jean, the captivating miss of the silvery pipes, so well remembered for her first screen appearance in "The Under-pup," supported by no less a personage than Bing Crosby, in "If I Had My Way," the attraction at Southern Pines Wednesday and Thursday, May 29, 30, with a Thursday matinee. The teaming of these two song birds is a ten-strike in smart casting and the resultant feature has much to offer customers of all ages and tastes; with a bonus for the oldesters who will enjoy a nostalgic thrill through the appearances of Blanche Ring, Eddie Leonard and several other old times whose stars shone brightly during the golden era on the "theatah."

The attraction at Southern Pines for Friday and Saturday, May 31st and June 1st, with a Saturday matinee is Thorne Smith's "Turnabout," and those who read this novel a few years ago or recently, need only to be told that the picturization follows the Smith story closely, to know the odd and venturesome nature of this comedy. Thorne Smith is also author of the famous "Topper" stories which made such hilarious pictures.

The cast includes Adolphe Menjou, Carole Landis, John Hubbard, William Gargan, Veree Teasdale, Mary Astor, Donald Meek, Joyce Compton, Inez Courtney, Franklin Pangborn and Marjorie Main to mention but a few of the fun makers. An added attraction is the special subject, "Cavalcade of Academy Awards," presenting for the first time the winners of these awards from the first year and introducing such stars as Emil Jannings, George Arlis, Lionel Barrymore, Frederic March, Clark Gable, Paul Muni, Spencer Tracy, Janet Gaynor, Mary Pickford, Norma Shearer, Marie Dressler, Helen Hayes, Katherine Hepburn, Claudette Colbert, Shirley Temple, Bette Davis, Louise Rainer, Vivien Leigh and Robert Donat.

BALL AND PARTIES TO AID RED CROSS DRIVE

(Continued from page one) mometer in front of the postoffice in Southern Pines showing the daily progress of receipts for the Refugee Fund of the Red Cross. This will be in charge of Dr. George G. Herr and Charles Macauley. Cash donations may be placed in lock boxes placed about the town, or given to Mrs. Burt Hunt, county chairman, or to the members of the local committee, Miss Florence Campbell, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Chandler, vice-chairman; Mrs. Greer Stutz, secretary. The local committee is being assisted in its work by Mrs. Pushee, Mrs. M. G. Nichols, Mrs. Frank Welch, Mrs. James Spring, Mrs. E. Lewis Prier, E. C. Stevens, Struthers Burt Dr. Herr, M. F. Grantham and the Rev. T. A. Williams.

John and Tom Ormsby have reopened "Herb's Old Stand" on New Hampshire avenue for lunches and beverages.
