FIRST AID AND "BETSY" OCCUPY AMBULANCE UNIT

The Moore County Volunteer Ambulance Unit held its third meeting Tuesday evening at the Club House, Pinehurst instead of the regular meeting place, the Community Church. Through the kindly interest and efforts of Mrs. Alice Burt Hunt, Miss Hamilton of the Moore County Hospital and Lloyd Woolley, not forgetting "Betsy" the ambulance, were there and the unit is really taking form.

The class in First Aid under the direction of Mr. Woolley, who will replace Miss Hamilton, was started. First-Aid handbooks were distributed and a goodly hour was devoted to First Aid talk by Mr. Woolley. As the First Aid class alone will cover approximately 20 hours, it was decided to meet every Wednesday at the Community Church, Pinehurst, promptly at 7:30 p. m. when the first two hours will be given over to First Aid, and the next hour to studying "Betsy." At the end of the First Aid course, no doubt "Betty" will receive more attention.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL HAS ENROLLMENT OF 77

The Vacation Church School which comes to a close on Friday at the Erownson Memorial Presbyterian Church marks another milestone in the progress and growth of the church, this being the first Bible School conducted there.

There are 77 children enrolled with twelve teachers and workers. The average attendance is around 70. The beginners are in charge of Miss Sarah DuRant, with Misses Katherine Hilderman and Katherine Ferguson assisting. The primaries are in charge of Miss Leone Currie with Miss Louise Blue assisting. The juniors and intermediates are taught by Mrs. R. S. DuRant, Miss Helen Hilderman, Charles Robinson, Jr., and the Rev. E. L. Barber. Mrs. John Morrison and Mrs. John Ferguson have rendered great service in bringing the children to school. Mrs. Jean Edson is pianist. Buddy Blue and Robert Bailey are assisting on the playground.

OASIS TEMPLE, CHARLOTTE, MEETS IN LAKEVIEW JULY 19

A committee, representing Oasis Shrine Temple from Charlotte, headed by John D. Shaw, Chief Rabbani; Ralph K. Robinson, Captain of the Guard, Charles P. McAllister, Assistant Director, and S. Casper Chandler, Major of the Uniformed Units, met recently at the Crystal Lake Hotel, Lakeview, with the following local committee: A. M. Cameron of Vass, chairman, G. A. Charles, secretary; Neill M. McKeithen and John Fiddner of Aberdeen, C. M. Gunn of Sanford, C. E. Muse of Laurinburg, T. O. McEwen of Hamlet and P. K.
