Impressive Service Last Sunday at 110-Year Old Presbyterian Church

Cypress Presbyterian Church seven miles east of Vass, whose history dates back around 110 years, was the scene of an impressive dedication service last Sunday afternoon when four new Sunday school rooms were set aside for sacred use.

The pastor, the Rev. William A. Brown of Olivia, presided and led the congregation in the words of dedication. H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen, formerly a superintendent of the Sunday school, spoke briefly, congratulating the church on having built the addition and being able to present it free of debt.

H. C. Cameron, who is now serving his 25th year as superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday school at Olivia, spoke on "The Importance of Room, Equipment and Literature in a Successful Sunday School." In a most interesting way Mr. Cameron contrasted methods used in his childhood at old Barbécue Church, the oldest church in this section, with present-day methods.

The Rev. E. L. Barber of Aberdeen discussed "The Place of Religious Education in the Program of the Church." The closing prayer was by the Rev. M. D. McNeill of Sanford, who for many years served as pastor of Cypress Church.

THIS BUSINESS OF Living

BY SUSAN THAYER

"SURE" AND "O. K."

Typical American answers, being given in plants and factories all over the United States today, are "sure" and "O. K." For American business which must produce the "sinews of war," is on the march!

We have a genius for organization and production in this country born of our conquest of the continent. We know how to "get things done" and we're getting them!

Tungsten is needed for tank construction and a supply is located in far-away Turkey. Two American ships are in the neighborhood but one hasn't enough fuel to stop for the ore. American business men in the National Defense Commission who knew the Near East get busy. Cables are sent. Phone calls are made.

"Sure, we can pick it up." . . . the tungsten is soon on its way to this country.

It takes from 400 to 500 sub-contracts to produce the parts and accessories for a single bombing plane. A job that would ordinarily take months must be put through in weeks. "O. K. we'll step on it" . . . and in much less time than was anticipated the planes will come through.

American business men know how to work under pressure. Plant expansion and new tools are needed to produce other equipment. That means an investment of hundreds of thousands of dollars; perhaps millions. A manufacturer must be able to pay off this investment and make a reasonable return to his stockholders, but rapid return often hinders the necessary governmental assurance from coming through as soon as is desirable.

"O. K. we'll take a chance . . ." In dozens of cases manufacturers are saying this—going ahead with the necessary expansion before contracts are signed. For American business men, who have the responsibility for building our defense, know how important it is to get going. Our national security may depend on speed.

It took initiative and a lot of hard work to build a nation like this in 150 years. There wasn't a city west of the Mississippi in 1800 and now look at it! The men and women who made this country weren't afraid of danger or toil. They said "Sure . . ." and as our slang developed they said, "O. K." . . . Typical American expressions . . . showing clearly the typical American spirit!

NASH ENTERS LOW-PRICED FIELD WITH NEW MODELS

The prices of the new low-priced automobiles with which Nash Motors will compete in 1941 with Chevrolet, Ford and Plymouth have been announced by George W. Mason, president of Nash-Kelvinator Corporation.

A price of $780 for a slipstream four-door sedan (a full six-passenger car), delivered at the factory and with Federal excise taxes paid, is "right on the nose" with lowest prices for full-sized cars in the 4-door sedan market, Mr. Mason said.

A special business coupe was announced for $731, delivered at the factory and with Federal excise taxes paid.

Other prices for the Nash Ambassador 600 series, which is the name of the new low-priced car, were listed as follows:

De Luxe business coupe, $783; De Luxe 4-door, slipstream sedan, $810; 2-door, six-passenger Brougham, $810, and a 4-door, trunk sedan, $860. All prices are the delivered-at-the-factory prices, and include payment of Federal excise taxes.

COTTON GINNING REPORT

Census report shows that 480 bales of cotton were ginned in Moore county from the crop of 1940 prior to October 1st as compared with 410 bales for the crop of 1939, William D. Smith, special agent, reports.

Pinehurst P. T. A. Seeks Equipment for New Home Economics Room

At the October meeting of the Pinehurst Parent-Teacher Association held last week in the school auditorium a number of kitchen utensils were brought by the members to give to the Taylortown colored school to help in getting a Home Economics room equipped. The only equipment now is a wood kitchen stove. In a letter to patrons last week Mr. Harbison wrote:

"A full time Home Economics teacher has been placed on the staff of the Academy Heights colored school, (Taylortown) and daily classes given to the girls. The School Board feels this to be a forward step for our colored schools and one of which the white population should be equally proud. Its avowed purpose is to train better servant girls for our homes.

"Would you like to help in this program? Do you have some discarded dishes, pots and pans, a table or old cabinet, that you would like to give to the colored school to be used in this department? If you can't carry the equipment, let us know and we'll pick it up in car or truck."

Also needed are sewing machines, irons, scissors, chairs and large pieces of cloth suitable for teaching sewing.

Mrs. Karl Johnson reported that between 75 and 100 lunches were being served daily in the school cafeteria under the management of Mrs. Martin Wicker and Mrs. J. A. McCaskill.

The program topic was extending the services of our Schools," and this was ably discussed by Supt. J. W. Harbison.

Mrs. Eric Nelson, president, has appointed the following committee chairmen: Membership, Mrs. C. B. Fields; Publicity, Mrs. T. P. Cheney; Program, Mrs. H. A. Campbell; Summer Round-Up, Miss Dorothy Ehrhardt and Mrs. G. M. Cameron; Playground, Shelby Horton, Jr.; Hospitality, Mrs. I. C. Sledge.

Mrs. Nelson thanked all who donated to the luncheon that was served last Wednesday to those attending the Tuberculosis Seal Sale conference. She turned over to the treasurer a check for $25 net from the luncheon.
