EUREKA

In New School Plant

This is the sixth week of school at Eureka and teachers and pupils are happy to be in the new building. It isn't completely finished inside, but everybody is cheerfully enduring the inconvenience because a new building has been needed so long.

For years, after the main dormitory was lost by fire which caused the loss of boarding students, and the vocational departments and brought the high school average attendance to a dangerously low mark, patrons and friends "held their breath" for fear their school would be absorbed by larger schools.

The new beautiful structure of brick gives a feeling of enduring permanence for Eureka school. Now the attendance has gone up and up until there is a big margin over the requirements for the school to stay on the accredited list. Miss Sarah Ruth Currie from Jackson Springs is the only new member of the faculty. This is her first year as a teacher but her pupils say they have to come across with good work. Worth L. Kiser, the principal, is very much liked, as well as Mrs. Kiser.

Eureka Woman's Club

At a recent meeting of Eureka's Woman's Club, Miss Flora McDonald, county home agent, gave some helpful points in furniture selection, and explained one phase of the defense program in which the homemaker may play an important part. Mrs. Walter McCaskill, chairman of the clothing project, told members how to arrange gray hair ("silver threads" adorned many heads at the meeting) and what colors to wear with it.

Young People Away

Many young people are away from home nowadays and they are much missed.

Mary and Margaret Kelly and Lucille McLeod are teaching. Mary at Roxboro, Margaret at Vass-Lakeview, and Lucille at West End.

R. A. Boger, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Boger, is in the Naval Reserve. He is chief pharmacist's second mate, located at Naval Hospital in Charleston, S. C. Eubert McLeod, son of W. M. McLeod, is 2nd Lieutenant in the Quartermaster division in Atlanta. Both young men recently visited their families.

Pvt. Max Blue at Fort Bragg has been assigned to mechanical work. Pvt. Nelson Blue is at Will Rogers' Air Base in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hendren had as guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Britt and two daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Britt and Mr. Hendrix of Lumberton, and Miss Margaret Kelly of Lakeview.

Mrs. A. L. Blue is home from Moore County hospital after an appendicitis operation, and young people at the church hope she will be able to be with them again soon. Mrs. Cliff King, who works with Mrs. Blue, has been carrying on.

Blaine King's friends will be glad to know he is also home from the hospital after a serious operation. Blaine has put up a gallant fight to get well and bears his illness cheerfully.
