Theatre

Armed with one of the wittiest scripts of the season, the new production, "Three Girls About Town," starring Joan Blondell, Binnie Barnes, Janet Blair, Robert Benchly and John Howard, comes to the Pinehurst Theatre, for a special showing Saturday, October 25th, at 3:00 and 8:00 p. m. The show purports to answer American widom's most vexing enigma: what goes on at Hubby's out-of-town conventions, after the business sessions? One previewer says that "three wild women are on the loose. How they do get about... about every man in town, and they get about every laugh in town, too, as they raid the males in the season's rollicking round-up of roars.

Added attraction of especial interest is the new March of Time Magazine, "Sailors With Wings," story of Naval Aviation, America's first line of defense. Monday, October 27, being Navy Day, this subject is of timely interest.

Special attraction at the Carolina Theatre, Sunday, Oct. 26 at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. is the already heralded best mystery thriller of the year, "The Maltese Falcon," with Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor, Gladys George, Peter Lorre, Jerome Cowan and many others. This is an actionful and suspenseful melodramatic story. Added also, is the new March of Time Magazine, "Sailors With Wings," in commemoration of Navy Day, October 27th.

Carolina Theatre welcomes back Deanna Durbin, at Pinehurst Sunday night, Oct. 26, in "It Started With Eve," which, according to all critics, is by far her best picture to date. It is a film designed to entertain, and fitted to the tastes of all ages. One critic who saw its preview in California, said: "Previewed to the trade press and a capacity paid audience which laughed so long and so loudly and so often that a good deal of the dialogue was drowned out but no observer within earshot of the auditorium could doubt that a grand time was being had by all." Miss Durbin is ably seconded by Charles Laughton as a crusty and crafty old millionaire, who is supposed to die in the opening scene but gets well instead. As her leading man, she again has Robert Cummings, a hit with her in a former picture.

"It Started With Eve," moves over to the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 27-28 at 8:15 with a Tuesday matinee at 3:00.

Another comedy winner is "The Feminine Touch," coming to Southern Pines, Wednesday and Thursday, October 29-31, at 8:15, with a Thursday matinee. It is a new treatment of the eternal triangle, played to the hilt by an excellent cast. It showcases Rosalind Russell as one of the top film comedienne. Another performer who can be thankful for this film is Don Ameche, out to regain many old friends lost in a long run of stereotyped roles. Ameche as an absent minded but honest professor can also pitch comedy.

And still another comedy treat is "New York Town," starring Fred MacMurray, and Mary Martin, with Robert Preston, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, Eric Blore and Fuzzy Knight adding to the funfest. Here is that type of motion picture entertainment that knows no bounds in audience appeal. It has a rich, yet simple, humor and a fresh charm about it that gives the on-looker whether 16 or 60, a feeling of well being.

If you found it necessary before to censor the pictures; therefore the city has no local laws for the purpose. It is agreed that motion pictures at their best are none too good. If they are to be brought to us in their cheapest and worst form; it is time for official action by the city."
