

THE WEEK IN VASS

Miss Blue Is Crowned

Miss Mary Katharine Blue, popular eighth grade pupil of the local high school, was crowned "Miss Vass-Lakeview" at the hallowe'en carnival Friday evening, leading a field of seventeen contestants. She was sponsored by the Sanitary Barber Shop. Miss Margaret Louise Kelly was runner-up.

The coronation ceremony was an interesting feature of the evening's program. Miss Helen McRae, "Miss Vass-Lakeview" of 1940-41, sat on a throne at the center of the stage as this year's contestants were presented, and crowned Mary Katharine when she was declared the winner. "Miss Vass-Lakeview" is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blue of route 2.

A one-act farce, "Meet the Wife," was well received. The parts were taken by "Dutch" Hudson, Catharine Caviness, Margaret Louise Kelly, Janet Rosser, A. Mac Cameron and James Stevens. Two specialty numbers were enjoyed. A "cake walk" followed, and there was general satisfaction when several soldiers won cakes.

Mrs. Matthews Hostess

Mrs. Bertie L. Matthews was hostess to the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service at her home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. J. Temple read the Scripture lesson and the following presented an unusually interesting program: Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Mrs. W. C. Leslie, Miss Louise Leslie, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, Mrs. S. R. Smith and Mrs. W. P. Parker. Mrs. T. F. Cameron conducted the Bible study.

During the social hour a prize was awarded Mrs. S. R. Smith for naming the 66 books of the Bible in a written contest, and another to Mrs. W. P. Parker in a hallowe'en contest.

Mrs. E. J. Thomas was enrolled as a new member, and Mrs. Bernice Graham was welcomed as a visitor.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., in serving refreshments.

Attends Game

A. M. Cameron, local distributor, attended the Duke-Georgia Tech game at Atlanta, Ga., Saturday as a guest of the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Cameron, a graduate of Trinity College, now Duke University, had the pleasure of seeing his alma mater gain the victory.

Week of Prayer

The Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service met at the church Thursday afternoon for a program in observance of week of prayer. Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., and Mrs. H. A. Borst were the principal speakers. Mrs. W. P. Parker and Mrs. C. L. Tyson were in charge of the program. An offering for the week of prayer objective was received.
