

EUREKA

John A. McLeod, patriarch of our community, received a visit from Carl Goerch, editor of The State, last week. Mr. McLeod is of interest because he is one of the few people living whose father fought in the Revolution.

Mr. McLeod is active for his almost 90 years, is seldom absent from church, and goes to Carthage quite often. He is a substantial farmer and, until recently, took active part in the work of the farm. He and Mrs. McLeod have several sons and daughters and each one is filling the "corner where they are" very creditably. W. M. McLeod and Carey are prosperous farmers in our community. Carey and his family live in the McLeod homestead.

R. A. McLeod, oldest son, was president of Maxton College at the time of his death a few years ago. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod have a host of fine grandchildren and are interested in the other young people of the community.

Several young people, with their advisers, Mrs. A. L. Blue and Mrs. C. C. King, went to the home of Misses Kate and Effie Ray and sang for them Sunday afternoon. The "Ray Ladies" have been living in our community for a number of years. Before coming here, they owned a home in what is now Fort Bragg Reservation. When the government bought their home, they purchased a small tract of land and built near Mrs. Sallie Ray's.

At that time, there were four elderly maiden sisters. Miss Jane passed away a few years ago and Miss Maggie followed several months later. Miss Kate and Miss Effie are well up in their eighties and enjoy having company and take great interest in their friends and neighbors.

There was a meeting of the P. T. A. at the school last Monday evening. Grade mothers have been appointed and much constructive work is expected.

On last Friday afternoon, Miss Flora McDonald gave a meat canning demonstration at a joint meeting of the Eureka and Thagards' Home Demonstration clubs. The meeting was held in the Home Ec. building at Eureka.

Mrs. Foscoe Myrick and daughter, Mary Worthy, of Newport News, were week-end visitors in the A. L. Blue home.

Hulon Blue, president of the senior class at State College, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Potts and children of Albemarle spent several days last week with Mrs. Ed. McCaskill.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Gladden of Sanford were recent visitors in the Walter McCaskill home. Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCaskill and family spent Friday and Saturday with relatives in Sanford.

The good wishes of the community go to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garrison, recently married. Mrs. Garrison was Miss Lucille Michael.

The teachers went to school last Friday, November 14 at Durham and the pupils had a holiday
