PINEBLUFF

Soldier Entertainment
The Carolina maneuvers have passed into history; the tents, the tanks and the tall trucks no longer thunder over the trails. But, we are sure that men and officers have carried away pleasant memories of the Service Center, which the Pinebluff Home Demonstration Club maintained.
Through the generous and skillful committee working under Mrs. M. F. Butner, Saturday nights were made happier with home-made cakes, pies and cookies—and how the boys drank coffee! To the untiring efforts of Miss Florence Fowle another vote of thanks is given for the cheerful pillows and the continued interest in the prosaic matters of warm water and mirrors for shaving.
The townspeople of Pinebluff thank each one whose kindness made the boys understand how we all feel toward them.

Mrs. A. W. McMinn left Friday for Washington, D. C., where she will visit her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McMinn.
Clay Parker, who is on furlough from Ft. Knox, Ky., was a guest Monday of Miss Charlene Parker.
Mrs. Purvis Ferree of Pinehurst, Mrs. M. F. Butner and Mrs. Etlice Mills spent Monday in Fayetteville.
Capt. Joe Cerwin, who has been stationed here during maneuvers, left Friday for Fort Dix.

Miss Sally Allison of Fayetteville spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Hazel Allison.
Jack Lampley left Sunday for Durham where he has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Carpenter and sons were week-end visitors of relatives in Goldsboro.

Miss Nell Cook left Wednesday for Franklinton to attend the funeral of her grandfather, James Howell.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Suttonfield, Mrs. A. L. Van Boskerck and Mrs. Claude Smith attended the joint Achievement Day meeting of the Home Demonstration Clubs of Moore County Tuesday in Carthage.

Mrs. Margaret Thompson spent Sunday in Hamlet with the W. A. Wilkes family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jolly of Aberdeen have rented the James Cottage on New England avenue.
Mrs. J. R. Lampley left Saturday for Norwood to spend this week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Van Boskerck and Mrs. A. L. Van Boskerck spent Wednesday in Raleigh.
Harry Howie Sr., Misses Edith and Jean Howie, Morrison Howie and Bob Harris on Sunday visited Charles Howie, who is stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Harry Howie of Ft. Bragg is home on furlough.

PINEHURST

P. T. A. Meeting
The December meeting of the Parent Teachers Association, held Monday, was the first time the school auditorium has been used since it was painted and new curtains and drapes were hung.

Superintendent J. W. Harbison was given thanks for his efforts in getting this project through. The P. T. A. gave $200 toward the new curtain, and each school child took part in its purchase. Mrs. Nelson reported progress on the collection of funds for the cafeteria free lunch program, and Mrs. T. A. Cheatham reported the scouts were "going over the top" in Christmas Tuberculosis seal sales. Miss Edna Gentry presented a group of third grade children in a Christmas play, with carol singing by a group from the Glee Club.

Mrs. S. A. LaSorsa is spending the week in New York City with relatives. Sergeant Charles Davidson of Fort Bragg was a week-end guest of Miss Ruth Lilly.

M. P. Wilson has returned from Hendersonville, where he was called last Thursday on account of the death of his grandfather.

Mrs. True P. Cheney and daughters, Dorothy and Sally, went to Vidalia, Ga., Saturday to attend the Golden Wedding anniversary of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John M. Meadows.

Mrs. Thomas Morrison and daughter, Miss Helen Morrison, have arrived from Spring Lake, N. J., to join Mr. Morrison at their home, The Pines.

Jimmy McGouldrich had as dinner guests, Colin McKenzie, Jr., and Edgar Currie Tuesday, this being his fourteenth birthday.

Friday (today) school will close for the Christmas holidays, re-opening on January fifth. The Glee Club under the direction of Miss Harriet Shillinglaw will present a cantata, "The Wonderous Story" in the auditorium at 10:30 o'clock.

Bob Black, with U. S. Navy in Portsmouth, Va., spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Black.

J. W. McNeill of Maysville, Ky., and Miss Pearl McNeill of Winston-Salem were guests this week of their sister,
