AUXILIARY SETS GOAL FOR YEAR

New Officers Take Over; Committee Appointments Made; Seeking New Members

Two new members for every present one was set as the goal of the Moore County Hospital Auxiliary for 1942 at its first meeting of the year held Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Burt Hunt of Southern Pines assumed the chairmanship of the organization for the year at this meeting and the Auxiliary decided that it would make direct appeals for funds for its work this year, rather than to use a schedule of entertainments. The work of the Hospital is even more important during wartime than in peace, it was pointed out, and this will be particularly stressed by the Auxiliary.

Committee Heads

Mrs. Hunt announced the following appointments of committee chairmen: supply, Mrs. Charles E. Crowell Jr.; equipment, Mrs. Preston T. Kelsey; social service, Mrs. Struthers Burt; motor corps, Mrs. N. S. Hurd; membership, Miss Laura Kelsey; flowers, Mrs. H. Foster Kelly. Mrs. James H. Andrews will again head the independent inspection committee and a finance chairman is to be appointed later.

At the invitation of the Charlotte Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, the local organization will send a delegation, headed by Mrs. Paul Dana, to Charlotte to confer on problems of common interest, and a Charlotte group is expected to visit here at a later meeting.

Appreciation was voiced by the Auxiliary of the efforts and generosity of many people in making a great success of the Christmas party at the Hospital which was arranged by Mrs. James W. Tufts, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Leland McKeithen.

Members of the auxiliary also inspected the redecorated bedroom of Dr. Clement Monroe—but that's a story told elsewhere in The Pilot.

TRADITIONAL CROCHET DESIGN For a Charming Modern Luncheon Set

BACK from the rich Indies, Yankee Clippers brought the lordly pineapple—and housewives borrowed its design to create the classic pineapple motif in crochet. Here it is charmingly used in repeating circles for this luncheon set with a flavor as traditional as the early New England, where the design was first used. Crochet this heirloom design for your own luncheon table, using white or ecru mercerized crochet cotton for a crisp, firm finish and long wear. Directions for making this luncheon set may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design #7335.
