Speaker and Music at Civic Club Today

Misses Bishop and Yeomans to Play Before Talk by Mrs. Guy Whittall

Civic Club members and visitors have a treat in store for them this afternoon when Mrs. Guy Whittall speaks at 3 o'clock at the Civic Club. She taught in an American school for Moslem girls in Damascus before her marriage to an English member of the Shell Oil Company, and since her marriage has made her home abroad until about a year ago. Her latest residence before coming to the United States was Cairo, Egypt, where Mr. Whittall is still conducting his business.

Mrs. Whittall and her young son and daughter are now making their home in Southern Pines where she has taken an active interest in social and community affairs.

Miss Margaret Bishop and Miss Mary Yeomans will give a short musical program before Mrs. Whittall's talk.

At the conclusion of the afternoon's program, a silver offering will be taken. The public is invited to attend.

Music Students Enter Contest in Durham

Southern Pines High School Glee Club to Compete; Local Piano Pupils Going

Southern Pines will be well represented at the District Music contest in Durham today. Winners in this group will go to Greensboro to compete in the State Music Contest to be held late in April.

Miss Dorothy Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Phillips, and a piano pupil of Mrs. Claude Hafer, will enter the Senior Piano contest, in which she has twice before played, receiving good ratings each time. Another of Mrs. Hafer's pupils, Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. F. S. Kirkpatrick was to have entered the Junior Piano contest, but had to withdraw because of a broken arm.

The Glee Club from the Southern Pines School is going to enter the contest and about 45 members of the Club and Miss Selma Stegall, the director, are going to Durham.

Donald Kirkpatrick, boy soprano, and a trio composed of Dana Utley, Carol Thomas and Irene Olive will also compete.
