

Ark Students Raise $128 for Hospital With Their Bazaar

Moore County Hospital's treasury was swelled by a gift of $128 this week, due to the efforts of the students at the Ark School yesterday. More than generous contributions to the bazaar by local people made many lovely articles available to the visitors. Lovely linens, home-made cakes, cookies and candy, hearth brooms, bird houses, pot holders and all sorts of toys sold rapidly as a capacity crowd filled the School dining room which had been turned into the carnival room.

A feature attraction of the afternoon, which drew parents and friends as well as the children, was the appearance of "Mitzi, a Russian Dancer." Attractive posters made by the students and on exhibit at the School had announced the appearance of the Russian refugee dancer and the audiences were delighted with the very talented dancing of the marionette. Miss Ruth Starr directed the dancing of Mitzi and was assisted by Miss Janet Millen in this part of the program.

The films of the Second Byrd Antarctic Expedition were shown by Harlow Pearson, in the absence of Capt. Alan Innes-Taylor, who had planned to show the films but was called out of town. Mrs. R. D. McMahon assisted Mr. Pearson.

The candy booth was run by Anita Thee, Diana Dent, Mary Jane French and Pauline Nichols. Mrs. F. H. Gunning and Mrs. E. Millen presided over the table of home-made cakes and cookies. Miss Mary Webb, who instructed the students in Handicrafts, Winston Holt, Harriet McMahon, Eve Ewart and John Emmett French, Jr., displayed and sold the things made at the School and other donated articles. Mrs. S. D. Sherrerd, Mrs. Harlow Pearson, Mrs. Paul Dana, George Sherrerd and Shirley Dana sold the toys.

Mrs. Peter Cummings donated a live rabbit which was raffled off and won by Harriet McMahon. Chances were also sold on a painting "Docked at Morehead City" by Gene Erwin, which was donated by Mrs. Magruder Dent. Mrs. George Scott won the picture.

The afternoon was a great success, both from a financial standpoint and from a standpoint of enjoyment of the guests. More than 100 people attended.

SOUTHERN PINES

Dear Julie
I do hope the Easter Bunny doesn't forget that I want some toys along with my clothes.
Of course, one of those cuddly bunnies they have in TOTS' TOGGERY would be wonderful—or one of those cunning ducks. Then I'd like one of those hoops to roll. Mother says they're like she used to roll, only glorified—'cause they're painted in such nice colors and the sticks to roll them with have bells on them.
