

Comings and Goings in Vass

At a rally of enthusiastic patrons and friends of the Vass-Lakeview school held in the school auditorium Thursday evening, a parent-teacher association was organized with the following officers: president, Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Lakeview; vice president, Mrs. Ben H. Wood of Vass; secretary, Miss Louise Leslie of Vass; treasurer, Edwin Causey of Lakeview. Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin of Route 2, Vass, was appointed chairman of the membership committee.

R. C. Fields, principal of the school, presided over the meeting and County Supt. H. Lee Thomas, Mrs. H. Lee Thomas, chairman of the Moore County PTA Council, and Mrs. Eldon S. Adams, district chairman, all of Carthage, spoke on PTA work.

The gathering was 100 percent in favor of the organization, and around 30 paid their dues for the year before leaving the building. It was decided to hold only five meetings during the school year on account of transportation difficulties.

Group singing, and three piano solos by Miss Laura Spence of Lakeview were enjoyable features of the program.
