Theatre

A few years ago "Mr. Deeds Goes To Town" set a precedent which has had many notable followers. "The Talk of the Town," the attraction at Pinehurst, Sunday night, September 6th, and at Southern Pines, Monday and Tuesday, September 7, 8, with a Tuesday matinee, is the latest tiller in the fertile field of socially conscious comedies, and we are here to testify that its fruits are delicious. It is a neat combination of drama, comedy and melodrama, with laughs vieing with suspense to hold the spectator's interest.

Cary Grant, Jean Arthur and Ronald Colman perform ably and impressively with Colman stealing a march on his associates in a role that builds in sympathetic interest. "Talk Of The Town" is a natural for all types and classes of locations and theatres. Give three stars situations and dialogue that sparkle and you have a hit. That's what this is, a story that would hold attention in any player's hands and fascinate customers as purveyed by these experts.

The stars of "The Maltese Falcon" ("remember it?") return to the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Wednesday and Thursday, September 9, 10, with a Thursday matinee, in another adventure thriller, "Across The Pacific." Reuniting Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor, Sidney Greenstreet and Director John Huston,

"Across The Pacific" pits Bogart against a ruthless band of would-be Jap saboteurs who plan the destruction of the Gatun Locks of the Panama Canal.

Humphrey is again the daring, ruthless investigator; Greenstreet, the sinister enemy agent, and Miss Astor, the seemingly innocent but worldly-wise adventuress. The dialogue is smooth and racy and not the least of the production's attractive features. This is the third picture-directed by John Huston, following his previous successes, "The Maltese Falcon," and "In This Our Life," and this is his last for the duration as he is now in the Army.

Just at this time when American War Correspondents are being released from the Axis' prisons and concentration camps, the attraction "Berlin Correspondent," coming to the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Friday and Saturday, September 11, 12, with a Saturday matinee, will be of particular interest, to our patrons.

In an exciting, thrilling and suspense-filled manner it demonstrates the terrifying methods, sadistic practices and far-reaching tentacles of the despicable Gestapo organization.

It is generally known that the Gestapo and, indeed, Hitler himself, fear American newspapermen above all others, and for obvious reasons. American reporters are traditionally trained to search for the truth and, when necessary, even to fight for it.

Now 20th Century-Fox pays tribute to these intrepid newshawks in a film that thrillingly reveals that Herr Hitler's fears were well founded. An added attraction is the newest March of Time Magazine, under the title of "The FBI Front," showing how the fight against saboteurs is carried straight to the heart of Nazi Germany by Uncle Sam's "men who never sleep."
