

The Passing Years

BY CHARLES MACAULEY

Last Week of March

1942

Any old rags? Any old papers? Any old metal? The Southern Pines Salvage for Victory committee wants them.

The new warning signals at the New Hampshire avenue crossing of the Seaboard are in operation.

"Fresh Eggs, 29c doz. Strawberries 20cpt. Sirloin Steak, 45c lb. A&P." Adv.

1938

New Postoffice to be opened on Monday, April 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Durgin returned to their home, Shirley Hill, Manchester, Vt., after several weeks stay here.

Dr. Benjamin White dies. "Tennis days are here. White Ducks, Polo Shirts, Cotton Slacks, Shorts. Tog Shop." Adv.

1933

Car full of booze breaks down and lo, rescuers prove to be officers.

Miss Zilla Adams was confined to her home several days this week on account of illness.

Miss Ethel Day of Meredith College, Raleigh was a visitor over the week.

1928

While the fire department should be willing to help our less fortunate neighbors in case of fire, there should be no reason why it should be sent to places far from home without proper compensation. Many places make a nominal charge of $25 and the amount is assessed on the township in which the fire occurs.

"Canned food features Stringless Beans, No. 2 can—15c; Lima Beans, No. 2 can, 13 1-2c; California Peaches, 3 cans, large halves in heavy syrup, 49c. Pender's." Adv.

1924

Miss Ruth Goldsmith is spending the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goldsmith at their home on Ridge street.

Complimenting her sister, Mrs. Harry Pethick of Hong Kong, Miss Mary Abraham gave a Chinese Tea.

Fire at the Schwarberg house on Ashe street occupied by Mr. Hester.

1913

The Phillies go. On Monday the main body of the Phillies shook the dust of the Sandhills from their feet and left for the country where sand gives place to mud on the slightest provocation.

"National Canned Goods Week, March 20 to April 5, at the Home Store. Prices reduced on Canned

Homemakers Finish Nutrition Course

Fifteen Local Women in Class Taught by Home Agent: Other Courses in Progress

Fifteen homemakers last week completed the standard Red Cross nutrition course taught in Southern Pines by Miss Flora McDonald, Moore County home demonstration agent.

In the list are Mrs. N. H. Snow, Mrs. Harry M. Vale, Mrs. Brewster Smith, Mrs. H. J. Betterley, Miss Barbara Betterley, Mrs. W. H. Lonsen, Mrs. E. C. Evans, Mrs. Helen H. Plowden, Mrs. O. L. Hedge, Mrs. P. P. McCain, Mrs. W. Stevens, Mrs. R. D. McMahan, Miss Elsie Vale, Mrs. Everett A. Palmer, Jr., and Miss Norma Shirring.

Two nutrition classes with home economists as instructors are now in progress in the county, one at Pinehurst with Miss Julia Latham in charge and another at Aberdeen with Miss Hilda Clantz as teacher.

Nutrition service has become one of the most important programs of the Red Cross on the home front, and the Moore County chapter is cooperating in a nation-wide movement to make nutrition instruction available to everyone.

"Experienced nutritionists have volunteered their services as instructors for every town in Moore County, and if a class has not been started in your community, contact your home economics teacher or the home agent in Carthage," says Miss McDonald, who is nutrition chairman of the Moore County Red Cross chapter.

MEMBER OF SQUARE CIRCLE Greensboro—(Special)—Recent initiates into Square Circle at the Woman's College of The University of North Carolina include 37 honor students in mathematics for this year. Among the new members is Miss Helen Hilderman of Southern Pines.

Goods, Dried Fruits, Peanut Butter, Ketchup, Olives and other relishes. Quality Good. Try some and come back for more." Adv.

1908

Results of a volunteer census of Southern Pines show 347 persons giving the town as their home and 823 winter guests. Of this number 195 were from New York, 160 Pennsylvania, 116 Massachusetts, 74 Maine, 48 Connecticut, 44 New Jersey and the rest scattering. Total number of visitors for the season, 2,926.

Will J. Irvin's show for the benefit of the Country Club was held in the Opera House Thursday night. Members of the cast distinguishing themselves were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin, Thomas Kelly, Theodore Heizman, Miss Irene Couch, Dr. C. D. Jones, J. H. Tilghman, H. Kapitzke, Mrs. C. L. Hayes and Katherine Swett.

1903

Auction sale of the Prospect House, April 4th, 2:30, on the premises. To close the estate of W. R. Raymond. A. M. Clarke, auctioneer.

"Mrs. L. Steinmetz, Palmist, Past, present and future. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mt. Vernon House." Adv.

Mrs. George A. Johnson dies. "Coming Saturday April 4th, John M. Sparks, the old reliable Virginia shows. New Educational Annex. Trained Animal Exposition. The best and most up to date 25c. shows in the world." Adv.

1900

Rev. George R. Ransom, pastor of the Congregational church in Southern Pines, and long identified with the town and its people, died here on Wednesday after a brief illness.

Mr. Stanley has been improving the grounds around the Belleville cottage and his new apartment house on Bennett street. He has built a fence in front of the houses, which makes a neat and attractive appearance.

Church Dedication Set for April 11th

Dr. Cheatham to Deliver Address at Pinehurst Event: Former Pastor to be Honored

The debt on the Pinehurst Community Church has been cleared, and plans for the dedication of the building on Sunday, April 11, at 4:45 p. m. are now being perfected.

Dr. T. A. Cheatham will deliver the dedicatory address. A special musical program has been arranged. Robert Rodwell will be at the organ.

A special feature of the program will be the unveiling of a memorial plaque honoring the late Rev. Dr. Murdoch McLeod. Dr. McLeod was the beloved pastor of the church from 1925 to 1934, and it was through his efforts and leadership that the church was built in 1929.

All friends of the church are given a cordial invitation to join the members in this service.

The committee on arrangements is made up of Miss Fannie Gray, Mrs. I. C. Sledge, J. Ellis Fields, J. F. Taylor, and the Rev. Mr. Prince.

SCENIC FIRE

The light apparatus of the Southern Pines Fire Company was again called out shortly before 3 p. m. Wednesday to fight a rapidly spreading brush fire in the deep pine needles and arbutus on the sloping hillside east of the residence of Major H. V. Carson on Hill Drive.

RECEIVES RECOGNITION

Paul Brown, superintendent of the West Southern Pines schools, brought to THE PILOT office a certificate of appreciation from President Franklin D. Roosevelt which had been awarded him for his services in filling out questionnaires for the Selective Service Board.

CARTHAGE

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Caldwell spent the week-end in Salisbury with relatives.

Misses Mary Nell and Helen Boyette of Peace College are spending their spring holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Boyette.

Miss Ann McCree Roberts of Raleigh spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. K. Roberts.

Mrs. West of West Palm Beach, Fla., is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. H. McDonald.

Miss Ruth Tyson of Samarcand spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hill spent the week-end in Sanford, with Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lambeth.

Miss Leah Price and Mrs. Wm. Henderson spent the week-end in Greensboro.

H. Lee Thomas, Jr., of Duke University spent the week-end with his parents.

Miss Grace Blue of Camp Butler and Buddy Blue of State College spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Blue.

La Verne Womack of Fort Bragg spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Fred Womack and Mrs. Womack.

Miss Betty Kennison is spending a few days in Raleigh with her parents, recuperating from influenza.

Mrs. George P. Thomas underwent an operation at the Moore County Hospital on Thursday. She is getting along nicely.

Neill McKeithen of Lumberton and Miss Frances McKeithen of Fort Bragg are spending a few days with their mother, Mrs. N. A. McKeithen.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Teague of Tallahassee, Fla., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Colin G. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Davis and Jimmy Davis spent Monday in Raleigh.

The executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon with the president, Mrs. L. R. Sugg at her home.

During the social hour Mrs. W. S. Golden and Mrs. Chas. T. Grier assisted the hostess in serving pecan pie with hot coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clegg and Charles shopped in Sanford Thursday afternoon.

Patrick Hill McDonald returned to State College Monday after spending Spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McDonald.

Senator W. H. Currie and Miss Catherine Currie visited Mrs. Currie at the Presbyterian Hospital on Saturday.

The Dunes NOW OPEN

From 5:30 P. M. to 12 Midnight

Excellent Food

Served in Refined Congenial Surroundings

Catering To Officers and Civilians

Dancing

Half way between Pinehurst and Southern Pines

On Midland Road

For Reservations call Pinehurst 4604

Now Available

MR. HUGH DAVE MacWHIRR

IN

BOOK FORM

For 75 cents

THE PILOT'S Unique Subscriber from Possum Bottom at His Best

"Mr. Hugh Dave MacWhirr looks after his $1.00 Investment in THE PILOT Newspaper and Contributes Generously of his Time and Thoughts."

With an Introduction by JAMES BOYD

This volume, packed with Mr. MacWhirr's personal philosophy, was designed under Mr. MacWhirr's personal direction—and looks it!

COPIES ON SALE AT

THE PILOT OFFICE --- W. Pennsylvania Ave., Southern Pines
HAYES SANDHILLS BOOK SHOP --- Broad Street

Mail orders filled by The Pilot, Inc. Address Box 58, Southern Pines and enclose 75c for each copy. Remittance must accompany order).

ZIP!
ZING!

ZIMBA
KOLA DRINK

First-for-Thirst

Associated Distributors,
Incorporated
Sanford, N. C.

Highland Pines Inn

East Massachusetts Avenue
WEYMOUTH HEIGHTS

Dining Room Now Open

Excellent Food and Service

AMPLE PARKING SPACE

W. E. FLYNN, Manager
Southern Pines, N. C.