

Special Program on Food Conservation For Women of Moore

Meetings Are Scheduled For All Sections of County at Early Dates

Plans for reaching every home in Moore County during the first two weeks in June with a comprehensive food conservation program which will give to the housewives the best methods of canning, drying, brining and sulphuring foods have been completed, and Miss Flora McDonald, home agent and OCD nutrition chairman, is this week announcing her schedule.

Families in Moore County are taking their gardening seriously this year and practically all will have some surplus vegetables, the conservation of which will be a real contribution to the war effort.

Miss McDonald will have the cooperation of the farm Security home supervisor, Mrs. Marion S. Doshier, home economics teachers, block and neighborhood leaders in putting across this program, one of the most important, in view of the present food situation, ever undertaken by local agencies.

In Southern Pines Miss McDonald is being assisted by a committee composed of Mrs. E. C. Stevens, chairman, Mrs. E. Levis Prizer and Mrs. William Dale. The meeting will be at Lewis' Store at 10 a. m. June 4.

The complete schedule of food conservation meetings, with the time, place, and home economist in charge, follows:

Civil and Criminal Court Cases Heard

Judge Armstrong Presides Over First Week; Second Term Is Called Off

A few civil cases were heard along with last week's criminal docket in Moore County Superior Court, which was presided over by Judge Frank M. Armstrong, and this week's scheduled term of civil court was called off.

Divorces were granted in the following cases: Kimrey Goins versus Versie Dowdy; Ethel Nalley versus Joseph M. Nalley; Grady Craven versus Nannie Craven; A. T. Cruce versus M. R. Cruce.

Earl Phillips, charged with the murder of his brother-in-law, Joe Carlyle, on the former's premises near Carthage, was found not guilty. Carlyle was shot through mistake, his sister, Philip's wife, thinking that he was a prowler seen around the place on previous occasions.

Chester Ewing was given from seven to 15 years in State's Prison on a manslaughter charge arising from the pistol death of Gus Smith.

A case in which Mabel Goodwin of Southern Pines was charged with the murder of Leon Bigbrey by stabbing him with a knife was continued, as was a murder case against Mary Gales, charged with shooting William Street of Sheffield's township.

Other Cases

James Kelly Robinson was given from three to five years in State's Prison for the larceny of a diamond ring and a wedding band, property of Miss Edith Howie, from the premises of Keith's pressing club in Aberdeen, and Mary Elizabeth Birca, found guilty of receiving, drew a term of from one to three years in prison.

Thompson Named Area Rent Examiner

Mrs. Ethel M. Haight Is Office Assistant at Headquarters in Hart Bldg.

Carl G. Thompson, Sr., of Southern Pines, was this week named rent examiner and inspector for the Southern Pines-Pinehurst Defense Rental Area, Raleigh District OPA Director T. S. Johnson has announced.

Thompson's appointment followed the opening of rent control in Moore County on May 1. His headquarters are in the Hart building in Southern Pines. Mrs. Ethel M. Haight, also of Southern Pines, was named assistant for the rental area to serve under Thompson.

Mr. Thompson, a resident of Southern Pines for the past 15 years, has been active in civic affairs and is well qualified for the position, due to his wide knowledge of the territory. Mrs. Haight, the former Ethel Hutchinson, is a member of a family long resident in Southern Pines and is thoroughly familiar with this section.

At the same time, Johnson made known that registrations in Moore County by all landlords of all types of dwelling units was "extremely low." He said that registrations—now underway—were "slack and landlords must register at once or face penalty under the rent control regulations."

Thus far, Johnson said, registrations were less than one-third the expected number.

War Ration Book 3 To Be Applied For By Mail, Says OPA

Information Posts Will Be Established To Help in Filling Out Blanks

Holders of War Ration Books Nos. 1 and 2 will not have to trek back to the schoolhouse to procure No. 3, but will make application for and receive their books by mail, and information posts will be set up throughout the county for the benefit of those who are unable to fill out their cards unaided. In Southern Pines help will be available at the Town Hall from 9:00 to 12:00 noon, and from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. each week day from May 29 to June 10 and in West Southern Pines at the school building May 31 and June 3 from 3:00 to 9:00 p. m.

George H. Maurice, chairman of the Moore County Rationing Board, informs the public that applications for War Ration Book No. 3 are being distributed by postmen from May 20 to June 5, and that they will also be available at general delivery windows through June 10.

"By reading carefully the instructions on the simple application, you will have no troubles," says Mrs. Maurice, adding: "Only one application shall be filled out for any one family, with all names of the family group on one application. No members of the Armed Forces may apply for Book 3 at this time. Their names are not to be placed on applications. All information must be printed, except the signature, which must be written."

Anyone who is unable to fill out his own application is advised to call on a friend for help, or to go to one of the information posts set up in the county, a list of which follows, with the hours at which help will be available:

HOKE COUNTY MAN IS FATALLY INJURED

George Simpson, 66, died in Lee County Hospital at Sanford Sunday at 3:30 p. m. as the result of injuries to his face and head when struck by a hit-and-run-driver near Lobelia in Hoke County Saturday night about 10 o'clock.

According to information received here, Simpson, and his two sons, J. F. and E. M. Simpson, were pushing their car on the highway when an automobile driven by a Negro rounded a curve and struck the elder Simpson, inflicting fatal injuries.

The driver of the car was later arrested in Southern Pines. Investigation of the accident was made by Hoke County officers.

Simpson, a native of Surry County, had resided on Vass, Route 2, for several years. He was a farmer.

Funeral services were held Monday at 4 p. m. from Mt. Pleasant Christian Church near the intersection of Hoke, Harnett and Moore counties.
