St. Anne's Guild Announces Card Party for Evening of Nov. 2

Members of St. Anne's Guild issue an invitation to Southern Pines residents and visitors to a benefit card party Tuesday evening, Nov. 2, at eight o'clock in the Parish House of Emmanuel Episcopal Church. Arrangements for the gala evening affair have been made by Miss Pauline Miller assisted by Miss Katherine Wiley, ticket chairman; Mrs. Howard Burns, entertainment committee; and Mrs. Roy Grinnel, in charge of prizes.

Reservations may be made with any of the above named chairmen, guild members, or may be purchased at the Parish House the evening of the party. Guests are requested to bring their own playing cards.

Joyce Bailey Engaged to Lloyd Woolley, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bailey announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine Joyce, to Lloyd L. Woolley, Jr., of Southern Pines and Durham. Mr. Woolley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Woolley, Manly. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engaged couple attended Southern Pines schools, Miss Bailey graduating from high school in 1943. At present she is a member of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company staff. Following his graduation in 1942, Mr. Woolley was also with the Citizens Bank until he entered Duke University early this fall. He is now receiving naval training there in the V-12 Program.

Birthday Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Block recently entertained several of their friends at a dinner party in their home on Indiana avenue. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Block and her neighbor, Mrs. E. O. Howard. Guests included Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Frank Schmelzer, Miss Blanche Sherman, Mrs. W. H. LaClair, Mrs. Myra deBerry, Mrs. Christine Kohring and Miss Louise Hertler.

Hallowe'en Party for Juniors

More than thirty-eight youngsters, between the four and fourteen age, were present at the Hallowe'en party given Friday evening, Oct. 22, for the Junior Department of Brownson Memorial Church in their club rooms. The Hallowe'en spirit prevailed in colorful decorations, appropriate Hallowe'en eats, and games and contests in which costumed guests vied. Carolyn Hearne, Dorothy Newton and Carolyn Hoskins were successful prize winners. Dr. David N. Roller, camp pastor for the month, pleased the group with his entertaining reading of "Twinkle Toes", a fairy tale. Miss Evelyn Edson planned and carried out arrangements for the party.

Dinner and Bridge

Mrs. E. J. Woodward was hostess at dinner Tuesday evening of this week in her home on Vermont avenue, complimenting several of her friends. They included Mrs. Margaret Mills Cameron, Mrs. H. E. Thrower, Mrs. Clarence Edson, Mrs. L. W. Miner, Mrs. R. L. Sugg, Mrs. James S. Milliken, Mrs. Carl G. Thompson and Mrs. Westcott Clinton. Following the dinner the guests enjoyed an evening of bridge playing.

Hostess at Luncheon

Mrs. J. W. Atkinson was hostess at luncheon last Thursday in her home on West Broad street when she entertained for two of her aunts, Mrs. W. J. Cameron of Vass, and Mrs. Catherine Shaw, Southern Pines, and her cousin, Mrs. S. R. Smith of Vass.

Mrs. N. W. Mann Hostess

Mrs. Nellie W. Mann, Indiana Avenue, opened her home Monday evening, October 25, to the Junior Willing Workers of the Baptist Church. Among the members present were Mrs. Archie Ferguson, Miss Lillian G. Roberts, Mrs. Bruce Lewis, Mrs. C. R. Mills, and guest Mrs. Leonard A. Nelson of Yonkers, N. Y., Mrs. George Draughon, Mrs. W. L. Baker, Mrs. Bessie C. Clark, Mrs. D. P. Wells and Miss Maggie Edwards. The business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Ferguson, vice-president, was followed by a round table discussion.

A buffet lunch was served by Mrs. Mann at an attractively decorated table, which was centered with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums presented to the hostess by Mrs. Clark.

Seventh Birthday

Because Thursday, Oct. 21, the date of Paul Propst's seventh birthday, was a school day, he decided to celebrate the following Saturday afternoon by inviting in some of his friends for an afternoon of games. The party was given in the home of Paul's parents, Capt. and Mrs. C. L. Propst, Ohio Avenue. The young guests included Patty Hobbs, Susanne Lee Humphries, Patty Gorman, Temp Davis, Adrian Ferguson, John Michael Carabelo, Jimmy Gorman, Jimmy Menzel and John Callaghan. Susanne Humphries and Jimmy Menzel were the fortunate prize winners in pinning the tail on the donkey and a marshmallow contest. Mrs. Propst served refreshments of ice cream, candies, and a chocolate frosted birthday cake lighted with seven candles, and each youngster received a favor.

Study of Puerto Rico by Missionary Society

At the first meeting of the season 1943-44 the Missionary Society of the Congregational Church of Wide Fellowship made plans for study of Foreign Mission Work in Puerto Rico and Home Missions in Pleasant Hill Academy, Tennessee. The meeting was held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 21, in the church parlor with Mrs. Tucker G. Humphries, president, presiding and leading devotions. The Rev. T. G. Humphries, spoke on missionary work at home and abroad using as his theme, "A Challenge Old, a Challenge New." During the year Mrs. John McMillan will assist Mrs. Humphries as vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Eakins, as secretary; and Mrs. H. S. Knowles, as treasurer.

An hour of fellowship followed the program with Mrs. McMillan presiding at the tea table.
