Miss Murphy Announces Final Wedding Plans

Miss Marie Murphy, who is to be married Saturday to Duncan Googan Malloy, Jr., of Lumber Bridge, has announced her attendants and final wedding plans.

The ceremony will take place at five thirty o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Southern Pines, with the Reverend J. Fred Stimson officiating, assisted by the Reverend Malcolm Calhoun of Saint Pauls.

Miss Murphy will be attended by her sister, Miss Ann Murphy, as maid of honor, and her aunt, Mrs. R. Earl Wagoner of China Grove, will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Betsy Jean Backer of Southern Pines, Miss Helen Ruth Cole of Pinehurst, Mrs. Dan Proctor, Jr., of Parkton, and Miss Eleanor Cashwell of Gastonia. Miss Jean Murphy, sister of the bride, will be junior bridesmaid and the bridegroom's niece, little Faye Johnson, has been chosen flower girl.

Wedding music will be rendered by Miss Dorothy Phillips of Chapel Hill and Miss Frances Storey of Rockingham.

Mr. Malloy will be attended by Dan Proctor, Jr., of Parkton as best man, and George Darden and John G. Hughes, Jr., of Parkton, Marcus Allen of Florence, S. C., James Watson of Red Springs, and Ted Murphy and W. E. Kivette of Southern Pines will act as ushers.

Parents of Daughter

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Johnson of Clarksville, Ga., on December 28, 1943. The baby has been named Ruth Marie. Mrs. Johnson is the former Ruth Richardson of Southern Pines.

Birthday Luncheon

Honoring Mrs. C. W. Kellam on her birthday, Mrs. George Abraham entertained at luncheon on Tuesday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kellam, and Mrs. V. R. Sweezy.

Catholic Benefit

The bridge party given by Miss Kathryn McMahon at Highland Lodge on February 22 for the benefit of St. Anthony's Catholic Church proved a very happy and successful affair, both socially and financially. The attractive living rooms of the Lodge were appropriately decorated for the occasion and afforded spacious accommodations for the twelve tables in play.

A thirty-two egg angel cake, which was made and donated by Mrs. Morman, was raffled off and won by Mrs. Punari of Pine Needles. Mrs. Punari returned it to be resold so that the fund benefitted by $19.00 from the cake alone.

Pairs of Cannon towels, given by a New York friend, made prizes for each table. These were won by Mrs. Aldrich, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Marcott, Mr. Matthews, Mrs. Rathbun, Mrs. King, Miss Berne Randall, Mrs. Smiley, Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. George Thompson, Miss Vanderveer and Miss Alice Warner.

Miss McMahon expressed her appreciation to all those who attended and to those who donated generously to make the affair a success.

Pine Dodgers Will Hold Leap Year Tournament

There were eighteen members present at the weekly Pine Dodgers luncheon at the Country Club Wednesday afternoon. The golf for the afternoon was played with a Blind Bogey.

TOG SHOP

Broad Street and New Hampshire Avenue

Dear Julie,
I wish we had a little tiny boy in our house, 'cause Mother says if we did she'd certainly have to buy him a little tweed coat and matching cap at TOTS' TOG-CERY. They have the tweeds in tan and blue--and little Army ones, too, from size one up--can you imagine?
I saw them when Sue was buying her Spring dresses. Boy, are they pretty! She bought a Mary Muffet Classic "Spec-tator" in gold dust gabardine, and a flowered Gay Gibson picque. If I were that size I'd have bought the rose red dress called "Tie Up" with white eyelet trim.
Love,
Penny
