Young David Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chan Page, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Moore County Hospital Saturday.

Dent-Harrison Marriage Solemnized in New York

Miss Mildred Carrington Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leftwich Harrison, of 1075 Park Avenue, New York, and Bedford, N. Y., was married Saturday afternoon in the chapel of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church to Ensign Frederick Baily Dent, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Magruder Dent of Greenwich, Conn., and Southern Pines. The ceremony was performed by Dr. John Sutherland Bonnell, Pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Arthur Ketchum of St. Matthews Church, Bedford, New York. The wedding was followed by a reception at the Junior League.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin, a rosepoint Juliet cap and a tulle veil bordered with rosepoint lace. She carried a bouquet of white spray orchids and freesias. Miss Polly Harrison was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were: Miss Rose Parsons and Miss Anne Morgan of New York, Miss Elinor Cooke Robinson of Hartford, Conn., and the Misses Edith and Diana Dent of Greenwich, Conn., sisters of the groom. They wore dresses of pale aquamarine taffeta and carried deep red roses.

Owing to the absence overseas of Lt. Magruder Dent, Jr., USNR, brother of the groom, William Thayer Brown, Jr., was best man for Ensign Dent. Ushers were Lt. Quentin Meyer, USMCR, Lt. Richard Williams, USMCR, Frank Coyle, Lt. John P. Renwick, USA, Ensign Sydney Davidson, USNR, T. Mitchell Hastings, Jr., and Lt. James Riley III, USA.

The bride, who is a granddaughter of Dr. Thomas P. Harrison, Dean Emeritus of State College, Raleigh, attended the Brearley School in New York and was graduated from Chatham Hall, Virginia. She made her debut at a dinner-dance preceding the Junior Assembly in 1942.

Ensign Dent was graduated from St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and from Yale University where he was a member of the Fence Club and Scroll and Key. He is on active duty in the Pacific, and the couple left for the West Coast after the wedding.

Petria Joyce MacDonnell

The Gordon Scott MacDonnells of La Jolla, California, announce the birth of a daughter, Petria Joyce, at La Jolla on Monday, March 13. Mrs. MacDonnell is the former Petria Ernestine Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bailey of Southern Pines.

A Granddaughter
