

Portrait of a man
cashing in his War Bonds

BEFORE YOU decide to cash that War Bond—wait a minute.

For the last 3 years, you've been buying Bonds steadily—saving part of every dollar you earned.

You've formed the habit of saving.

You've been accumulating money against unforeseen troubles or a time of need.

You've been working to build up a nest egg—and by golly, you've got Uncle Sam helping you do it! Every time you put in $3, he will make it $4—if you hold your Bond to maturity.

You've been laying aside money to help safeguard your job after the war, and help guarantee a healthy, prosperous Country for us all.

You've been helping to fight inflation and to keep prices down.

Last, but by no means least, you've been sending your dollars into the fight—backing up G. I. Joe.

You don't want to undo all you've done. It just isn't smart. To say that it's cutting off your own nose is to put it very, very mildly.

DON'T cut off your own nose. Hang on to your War Bonds. Hang on to them till they come due—and meantime, buy some more!
