In Your Library

"TRY AND STOP ME" by Bennett Cerf. A collection of anecdotes and stories mostly humorous. Like a bag of peanuts, one isn't enough and all are too many!

"DEMOCRACY UNDER PRESURE, Special Interests and The Public Welfare" by Stuart Chase. This little book is in its fourth printing since January. It is the fourth in a series of six "explanatory" reports on postwar problems being made for the Twentieth Century Fund established in 1919 for research and public education on economic questions." It is a very important book, easy to read, clear and direct and what we don't know about Big Business, Big Unions, Big Farmers, pressure groups and the interrelatedness of our modern economy we can learn painlessly in an evening's perusal of this valuable book.

"TIMELESS MEXICO" by Hudson Strode. This history-story of Mexico has been a best seller and quite understandably so as it acquaints us with our neighbor in a highly artistic, charming fashion. In any period in the span of history more fascinating than Cortes' conquest of Mexico or the tragedy of Montezuma?

"INDIGO NECKLACE" by Frances Crane. A good murder story set in New Orleans.

"THE HIDEOUT" by Egon Hostovsky. The author is a Czech now living in America and this is his first novel to be translated into English. It has been so well received it will undoubtedly not be the last. A delicate little book of 112 pages written in the form of a last letter to his wife by a Czech engineer who lies in hiding in a cellar in France to escape the Gestapo.

"NEVER LET ME GO" by Gale Wilhelm. The romance of a young woman of fortune living with an invalid mother and eccentric grandmother who goes into the business world by way of escape and there falls in love with her employer regardless of a good defense.

"TVA, Democracy On The March" by David Lilienthal, chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority. This is surprisingly interesting and informative reading, an "account of what has happened in the valley of the Tennessee in the ten years since Congress set the TVA to the task of operating the resources of this region."

Neighbors ALL

The Seaboard Air Line Railway family comprises many thousands of employees living in various parts of the six states served by the system. At work or play, in their homes, at church or in shops and on the street, these men and women of the Seaboard organization are no different from the people who live and work around about them.

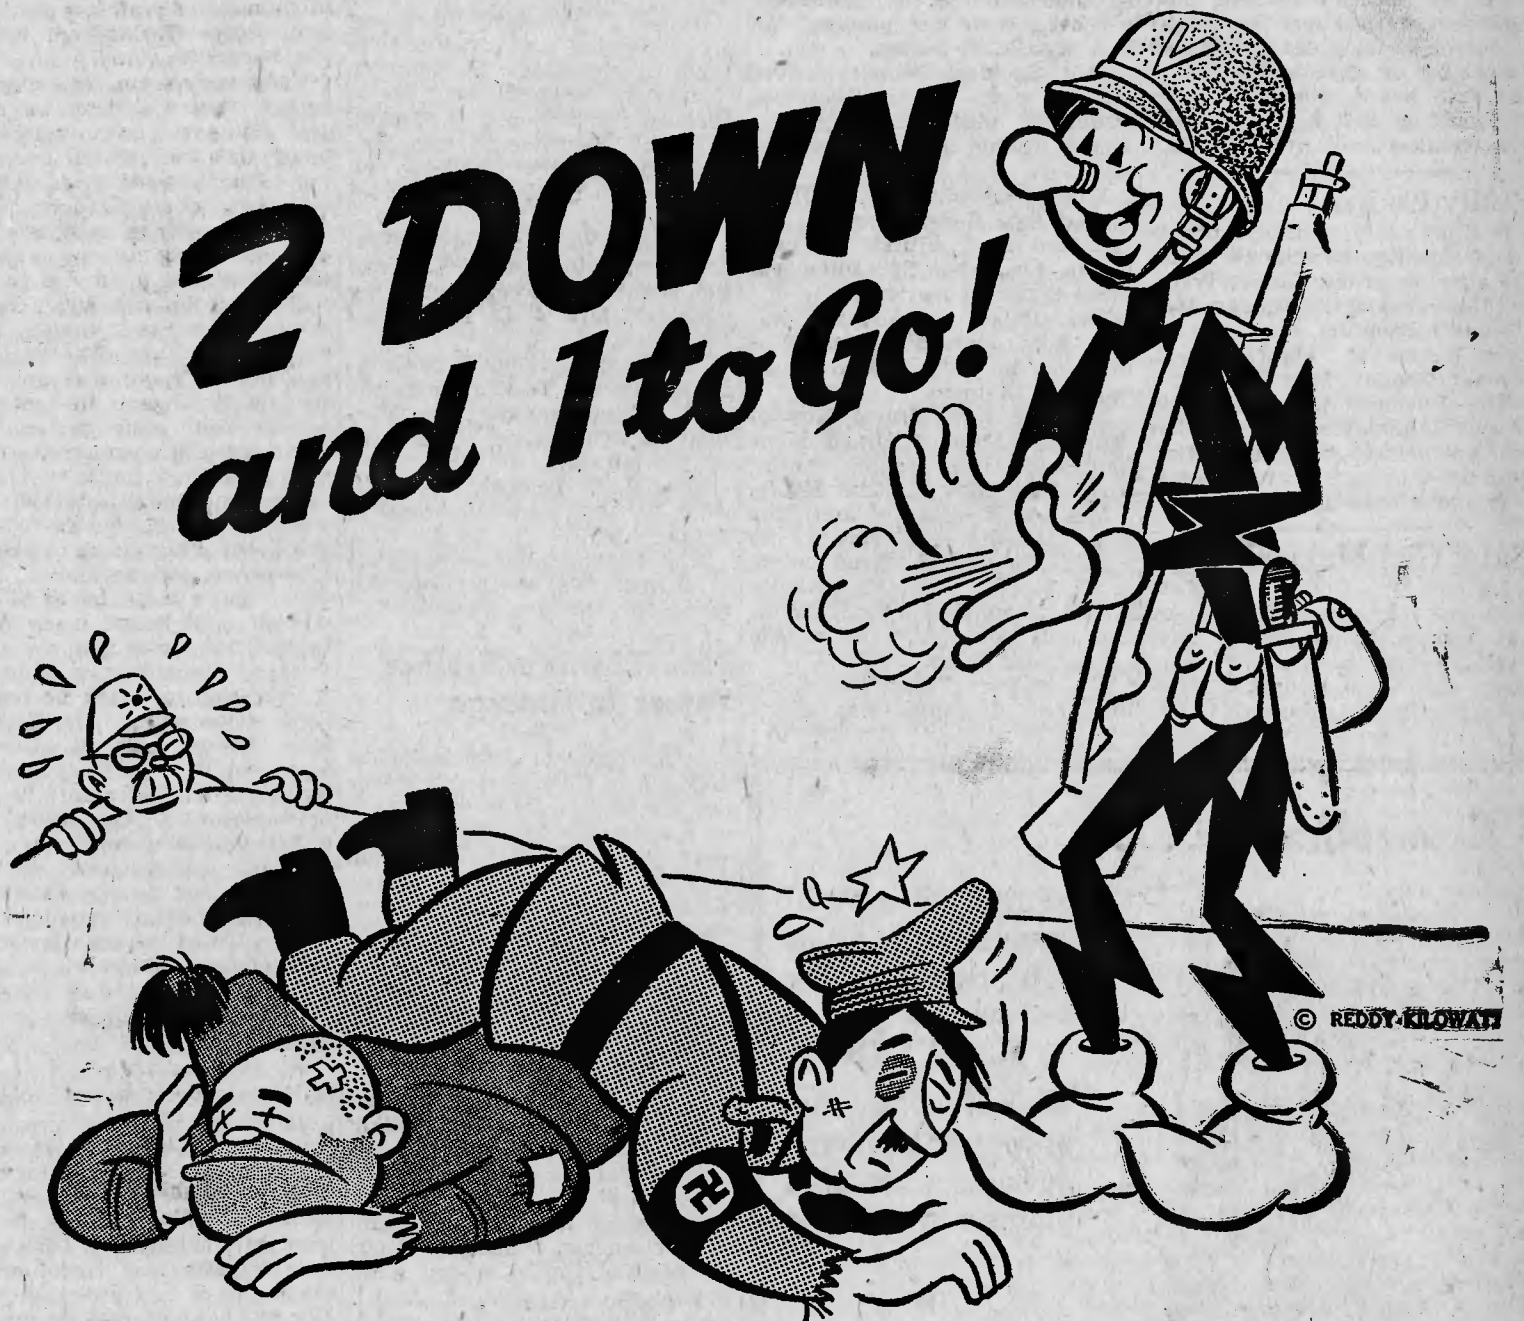

In short, Seaboard employees are an integral part of their community life. As such, they share that mutually friendly interest in the welfare of others which makes for neighborliness in every sense of the word.

As with the individual, so it is with the entire organization. Never forgetting that our primary function is to provide the public with adequate transportation, the Seaboard will likewise strive in the future as in the past to fulfill its role as a builder and a neighbor wherever we serve.

2 DOWN and 1 to Go!

DOESN'T it make you feel good, to know part of a big job is finished? Makes you want to slap some of that war dust off your hands, even if you know you are going to have to wade right back into a fight again. But don't get the wrong idea from the picture above. I didn't knock out those two infamous dictators alone. It was the full cooperation of all the Allies and their folks at home that made it possible for us to win. A continuance of that cooperation will soon bring victory over the third tyrant.
