

Willie Hilliard Is Back From Kansas

Willie Hilliard, the short cripple with the long smile, who is widely known throughout Moore County, returned to Vass last Friday after spending several days in Hutchinson, Kan., with Seaman "Buddy" McRae.

Willie was lucky about getting rides and made the trip back in five and one half days. He says that he didn't have to walk more than a block or wait more than an hour for a ride.

People in Hutchinson were so nice to him that Willie said he "had a notion to go to work up there."

Sophomore-Senior Banquet In honor of the Senior Class, sophomores of Vass Lakeview high school entertained at a lovely banquet in the home economics room Thursday evening, May 3, the entertainment taking the form of a May Day festival.

Yellow flowers were distributed to the girls and Thelma Autrey, holder of the flower upon which was found a tiny gold crown, was declared Queen of the May and was fittingly enthroned and crowned.

Following the delicious chicken dinner the group entered enthusiastically into the "May Dances", with N. V. Keith calling the figures and the Baker family providing music.

Every senior and sophomore was present. Members of the senior class are Mary Beasley, president; Iris McFayden, secretary; Hugh McLean, treasurer, and Ruth Bailey, Mary Catherine Blue, Jeanne, Cox, Nadine Everette, Mary Ruth Foster, Virginia Garner, Kathleen Harmon, Christine Jackson, Ethelean Johnson, Bertha Key, Iris McFayden, Lucille McKay, Lucille Newell, Johnnie Patterson, Aldonia Ransdell, Eunice Reynolds, Mildred Reynolds, Faye Simpson, James Bailey, Clarence Blue, Max Edwards, Hugh McLean, Edgar Klingenschmidt, and Joel Stutts.

Sophomore Class members are Peggy Haynes, president; Ruth Blue, vice president; Jo Ransdell, secretary-treasurer, and Marian Bailey, Edith Kimball, Della Mae Oakley, Leatrice Simpson, Opal Baker, Agnes Boggs, Nadine Jackson, Doris Lynch, Lucille Overby, Vera Preatave, Mary Bridges, Bobby Jean Stanton, Thelma Autrey, Newton Caviness, Elvin Wooten, Ernest McCrimmon, and Raymond McCrimmon.

Faculty members present included Miss Alberta Monroe, Miss Carolyn Dowd and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gladstone. C. L. Tyson, Redga Thomas and Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin, board members, and Mrs. Tyson and Mrs. Thomas were guests.

Mrs. Gladstone and Miss Dowd assisted the sophomores in planning the entertainment and the attractive favors and programs.

Guest Speaker On Tuesday evening, May 15, F. H. Jeter, agricultural editor of the North Carolina Extension Service, will address a joint meeting of the Vass Lions Club and the Vass-Lakeview Parent-Teacher Association, speaking on some phase of rural life.

Birthday Dinner Honoring Dr. J. F. McKay of Buie's Creek on his 84th birthday,

Put pounds on your porkers, by making their diet rich in proteins and vitamins. You realize greater profit when you keep your feeding troughs full of our quality HOG RATION
