cents, united in marriage, and, finally, conducted the funeral rites for. One of his friends paid him this tribute:

"He has become a part of all of the loves and sorrows of his Flock—a Shepherd of the Sheep, who love him and follow his guiding voice. He has led them through joys and sorrows along the Way of Life. He can never leave them, because he has become a part of their ideals. Even though he shall, with the passing of time, go down the Shining Road and pass through the Golden Gates; he will continue to walk with his people. A friend and leader like him is always 'more than a Memory. He is a Living Presence.'"

In accepting the gift Mr. McNeill referred to the many happy years spent in this pastorate where his life had been in pleasant contact with the members of all denominations and with many adjoining churches.

In addition to serving Cameron Presbyterian Church, Mr. McNeill has been pastor of the Manly, Vass, Cypress, White Hill and Union churches. After his retirement a few years ago he moved to Sanford.

Cameron Church History

The Cameron Presbyterian Church was organized on April 18, 1879. Twenty-three people presented certificates of dismissal from their respective churches to form the new church: Rebecca Blue, Neill MacDougald, E. J. and J. E. MacDougald, E. L. Rowan, Tom Goodman, Janie Harrington, Fergus and Catherine Ferguson, Moses and Martha Britton, all from Union Church; Murdock, Mary, John, and Hugh MacPherson and Sarah Gibbs, from Cypress; C. N. Gibbs, from MacPherson's Church; Gideon and Flora MacFadyen, from St. Andrews; Nellie Black, from Carthage; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McIntyre and Flora Worthy from Buffalo. The Reverend Mr. Gibbs then was installed as pastor. Elders were D. MacIntyre and Fergus Ferguson, and the deacon was G. MacFadyen. Mr. Gibbs served this church two years and was dismissed at his own request in 1881 to go to MacPherson's Church.

The Rev. Martin McQueen was then installed as pastor and served from 1881-1887, preaching twice a month. For these services he received $75.00 a year. (The aggregate collection for the year 1884 is listed as $87.99, which included the pastor's salary.) At this time there were 50 members and twenty-three. A great outpouring of the Spirit came in 1887, and a Sunday School enrollment of 35 were added to the church.

After the death of Mr. McQueen in 1887 the Rev. A. R. Shaw, the Rev. A. Currie, the Rev. Mr. Harrell, and the Rev. M. Shields served as pastor for one year each. Mr. Shields moved to Roxboro in July, 1892, leaving the church without a pastor for two months, at which time Licentiate M. D. McNeill came to the church for one-half year and the Rev. M. D. MacIver held a service one night a month. The Rev. Mr. Eldridge was then pastor for eight months, after which Mr. McNeill began the work he continued for so many years. The Rev. C. M. Voyles is the present pastor.

flavor are injured by other methods of preservation. She recommended peaches, cherries, figs, berries of all types, asparagus, snap beans, lima beans, garden peas, corn, and broccoli as especially suitable for freezing, adding that vegetables eaten raw such as celery, lettuce, cabbage, onions and tomatoes should not be frozen.

She said the equipment needed is found in the average kitchen: tables, pans, bowls, sharp knives, measuring cups, household scales, sink with running water, kettle for blanching vegetables, a clock and an iron being the only items necessary. Containers must be moisture-vapor proof, durable, conveniently used and easily filled, must impart no flavor or odor to food, and shaped to fit locker space with least waste of space. Mr. Stewart summarized the freezing of foods for the home, discussing the cost of renting, processing and the time saved in the use of freezer locker plants. Mr. Stewart compared the home freezer unit to the community freezer locker as an ice box to an ice plant.

E. H. Currie and M. G. Boyette of the Carthage Rotary Club concluded the program with the purpose of the freezer locker plant in Carthage.
