T. B. Association Urges Seal Buying

Early reports on the 1945 Christmas Seal Sale indicate a lag in returns, in spite of the fact that during these immediate postwar years the American public should be strengthening its guard against tuberculosis.

Frank W. Webster, executive secretary of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association, points out that past wars have been followed consistently by increases in tuberculosis. There has been a sharp increase in tuberculosis already in Europe and Asia, where this long-term disease has had a number of years to make its destruction known.

The state and community goals in the 1945 Seal Sale should and must be met, Webster said, in order that the voluntary organizations may continue and even augment their programs of health education and case-finding in bringing in check the greatest killer of youth in our nation. The appeal for funds to fight tuberculosis is made only once each year, Webster continued, but the importance of the Seal Sale as a means of controlling tuberculosis through education cannot be minimized. The state's Christmas Seal Sale goal is $285,000.

Aberdeen Club To Give Fine Christmas Program

A program of Christmas music was presented by the Aberdeen Music Club under the direction of Mrs. A. Robert Harrison at 5:30 Sunday, December 16th, in the Methodist Church, Aberdeen. Assisting were members of the Sandhills Book Club who dramatized several of the numbers. A Christmas story was be read by Miss Palmer, librarian at the Southern Pines High School.

The program included "Morning Star," Praetorius, "Christmas Hymn," Spicker, "List the Cherubic Host," Gaul, and the carols; Angels We Have Heard On High, Lullie Lullay, Carol of the Birds, Lo, How A Rose, Carol of the Russian Children, and Nazareth, by Gounod. Mrs. Harrison will sing, "Holy Night," and "Jesus Bambino."

A Christmas Discount

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jernigan turn up with the story of Discount, their doberman pinscher, who is back in the states again after twenty months in the Pacific, battleweary but full of honors. The Jernigans have received word from Marine Corporal Donald Deeds of Clifton Forge, Virginia, handler and battle companion of the bold warrior, that both man and dog have landed and are well.

Corporal Deeds writes that he owes much, his life, perhaps, to the intelligence and wariness which Discount displayed in action on Okinawa and Paliliu; and has requested that the K-9 be given to him. The Jernigans state that transfer of the dog's ownership is being arranged, and that Discount will join his companion in arms as a Christmas present.

LUKE 2:14

Luke 2:14 was selected by a world-wide vote of service men and women as their favorite Bible passage for December 25th. For centuries, it has been read with the hope that men would some day lay down their arms and adjust their differences in the Spirit of the Great Teacher.

The second chapter of Luke tells you of His birth, His boyhood days up to His twelfth year.

Why not ask the family to sit down with you on Christmas morning and read the finest short story ever written.
