Blue Teams Lose To Pinehurst Squads

Cheney, who were good for 16 and 22 points respectively. High scorers for Southern Pines were forwards Nellie Ward and Peggy Cameron, with 12 and 9 points.

Meet West End Tonight
The West End-Southern Pines clash scheduled originally for last Friday, later postponed because of bad weather, will be played on the local gymnasium floor tonight, Friday 25, Coach A. C. Dawson announced earlier this week. With West End's having nosed out the Blue and White in a close game for the county championship last year, keen interest among students and a friendly spirit of rivalry have been evidenced during the week building up to the game tonight.

It is hoped that the defeat of Coach Dawson's squad at the hands of Pinehurst recently will settle the home team in its best form for the West End encounter. Tonight's game is the one clash of the year which no dyed-in-the-wool supporter plans to miss, and a large turn-out is anticipated.

McDonald Reports War Fund Success

to make this drive a success. The county has shown a very fine spirit in all of the campaigns and especially in this one, since it was made since V-J Day. I am sure that these funds will help those soldiers who have not yet returned and the other very worthy causes of this United War Fund.

"I feel very proud of Moore County and the part it played in this campaign."

Following are the names of towns, with their chairmen, and the amount each raised:

from Southern Pines in 1943, is the husband of Mrs. Charlotte Smith Moran, Cortland, N. Y., and is the father of a son, Francis Thomas Moran, born June 13. Following his basic training in this country, he served as a regimental surgeon with Patton's Third Army during the Battle of the Bulge. Discharged on January 7th of this year, he has since enrolled in a two year post graduate course at Duke University, where he will act as a resident house physician. For a number of years Moran lived with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Barron, in Southern Pines. He received his premedical training at Vanderbilt University, was a graduate of the Duke School of Medicine, and served his internship at Duke and at the Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, N. Y.

Mid Pines To Hold 1st Tourney of Season in the form of cash for pros and golf merchandise for amateurs. All professionals in the Sand-hills will compete in Monday's tournament, and Director Cosgrove is hoping that pros throughout this section of North Carolina will be on hand for the event. It is anticipated that each will form a team with his amateur partners to represent the various clubs in the tournament. Other Sandhills clubs are planning similar golfing events later in the winter season.

FIRST ISSUE SOUTHERN BAPTIST MAGAZINE

A new magazine to take the field in the south is that of the Southern Baptists, called "Christian Frontiers," Edited by Dr. Das Kelley Barnett, pastor of the Chapel Hill Baptist Church, it is being brought out by the Baptist Book Club on a non-profit basis, and will deal with internationalism, industrial and race relations, education, and other timely subjects. Numbered on its Board of Directors are most of the leading Baptists of the South.

GAMECOCKS HERE

Members of the University of South Carolina basketball squad, made up of both civilians and Naval trainees, were to be seen on the streets here at noon on Wednesday. On their way to a night meeting with the Blue Devils of Duke at Durham, the Gamecocks, stopped over for lunch in Southern Pines. With two of the town's restaurants closed, the entire squad of South Carolinians thronged Holliday's to rub elbows with the regular mid-day clientele.
