Coming Church Services

The Rev. C. M. Voyles will preach at 11 a. m. at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning.

At 7:30 p. m. at the Methodist Church, officers of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be installed in a special service conducted by the pastor and participated in by all members of the Society.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Woman's Club Meets

The Vass Woman's Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. Friday, February 8, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Keith, with Mrs. C. J. Temple as program leader.

Crowd Hears Mrs. Macey

A crowd which practically filled the Vass Presbyterian Church Sunday evening heard Mrs. Susan Macey of Aberdeen, a missionary back from service in Portuguese East Africa, tell of the "ashes" in the life of the African that need to be changed to "beauty".

Mrs. Macey held the rapt attention of young and old in the congregation as she told of the physical and spiritual life of the people whom she had served, and related many interesting incidents connected with her work.

The meeting was sponsored by the Presbyterian Auxiliary, with women's organizations of the other churches cooperating. Mrs. M. M. Chappell presided. Others who had brief parts in the service were Mrs. M. L. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wilson, Mrs. G. M. McDermott, Mrs. S. R. Smith, the Rev. C. M. Voyles, and Mrs. W. E. Gladstone.

Church Receives Gift

Roy Hendricks presented a table to the Baptist Church Sunday, which is greatly appreciated by the congregation.

To Continue Studies

A. McK. Cameron completed his four-year course at Duke University last week after two and one-half years of study, and following a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron, left Wednesday for Evansville, Ill., to enroll in Garrett Biblical Institute to further prepare for the Methodist ministry. He was admitted to the North Carolina Conference several months ago.

Mrs. Rich Opens Store

Mrs. E. L. Rich has opened a store in the former "Pilot" building, where the family has been living since selling their home here several months ago. She is carrying dry goods and Octogan premiums, and will appreciate having her friends drop in.

Visit Buddies

Albert Graham and Warren Cox of Vass, Ed Gilchrist of Cameron, and Leon Cole of Tramway went to Salisbury and Mooresville Sunday to see some of their Army buddies that they served with in Europe.

Personals

Mrs. Clayton Evans, Mrs. J. B. Parker, Mrs. Herman Thomas and Thurlow Evans of the Rainbow Home Demonstration Club attended a special meeting at the courthouse in Carthage last Thursday, at which a lesson on textile painting was given.

Mrs. Tom Culbreth of Raeford was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Annie Chappell.

Mrs. A. R. Laubscher spent from Thursday until Saturday of last week in Glendon with her mother, Mrs. Mary Seawell, who was ill.

Mrs. Relmond McCraney and their three children, Bill, Kemp, and Katharine, of Lackey, Va., were weekend guests of Relmond's mother, Mrs. W. D. McCraney.

Little Betty Hemphill of Hamlet spent part of last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McGill. Mr. and Mrs. McGill, and sons, Junior and Billy Bob, accompanied her home Thursday night.

Mrs. Tom Bailey of Carthage Route 3 visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Evans during the weekend.

Mrs. Sallie Cameron of Pensacola, Fla., is visiting relatives in the community.

Franklin Matthews, who recently received his discharge from the Army, has returned to the position with the Atlantic Tobacco Company in Fayetteville which he held before entering the service.

G. E. Oldham of Goldston visited his brother, R. L. Oldham and Mrs. Oldham Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Oldham of Southern Pines were there for a part of the day, also.

Max Edwards of the Merchant Marine arrived last Friday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards. He had recently returned from France and Belgium. Max's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bundy, also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bundy and children, all of Raleigh, came down to see him Saturday. Max Alexander, a local boy who is attending school at Oak Ridge, spent the weekend with Max.

Mr. and Mrs. George Abernathy and family of Chapel Hill visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Abernathy Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. H. Keith returned Sunday from a 10-day visit with her young granddaughters at Wallace. She stayed with the little girls, Merle and Patsy, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mallard, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Vick Keith of Sanford went to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds and family and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Campbell and family attended a revival service at Robbins Sunday night.

T-Sgt. Julian Smith arrived at Fort Bragg from Germany last week and is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, on Route 2. There to see him Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Johnson and little Annette Johnson, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Blue and son, Billy, of Southern Pines, and numerous relatives from the community. Julian looks fine. His brother, Lt. John Alex Smith, is still in Germany and a homecoming is not in sight for him.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Long and daughter, Jeannette, of Aberdeen were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robah H. Fields.

Mrs. L. L. McLean of Fayetteville spent from Tuesday to Thursday of last week with Mrs. N. N. McLean.

W. P. Parker went to Laurinburg the first of the week to work for John F. McNair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Arnette of Greensboro spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cameron. They plan to move to the Eureka community this week.
