Summer Meetings Approved

At the regular meeting of the Vass Woman's Club, held Friday night at the home of Mrs. N. N. McLean, the members voted twelve to five to continue the meetings during the summer months instead of vacationing for three months, as most clubs do.

The American Home Department was in charge of the program, and Mrs. A. V. Autrey, chairman, presented Miss Flora McDonald of Carthage, who delighted the group with a lecture on "Color in the Home," which made them want to get busy with feed bags, dye and stencils to duplicate some of the lovely household "linens" which she displayed.

Mrs. H. A. Borst, president, announced that the cancer control drive had been completed, with $153.53 being raised on a quota of $100.

Mrs. R. H. Fields was elected as the additional delegate to serve with the president in representing the club at the State Federation meeting in Greensboro the last of this month.

During the social hour Mrs. W. J. Cameron was winner in a contest. Delicious refreshments were served. The hostess group was composed of Mrs. McLean, Mrs. P. A. Wilson, Mrs. C. P. McMillan, Mrs. R. H. Fields and Mrs. D. C. McGill.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. C. Leslie on June 14 at 8:00 p. m.

Church News

The Rev. C. M. Voyles, who has served the Vass Presbyterian Church as stated supply for several years, and the Cameron and Union churches as pastor for a longer period, is giving up this field effective the third Sunday in June to take over work near Gastonia. Mr. Voyles has rendered splendid service here and has many friends among all denominations who regret to see him leave, but extend best wishes for his success in his new work.

Communion service will be held at the Vass Methodist Church at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning.

A lovely arrangement of white gladioli was placed in the Methodist Church on Mother's Day as a memorial to the late Mrs. E. B. Thompson. The flowers were sent by two of her daughters, Mrs. Roland Brown and Miss Mary Thompson.

Quadruple Celebration

In celebration of the birthdays of her husband, mother, brother-in-law and nephew, all of which occur within a week, Mrs. Delmas Kimball entertained at a family dinner at her home Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor of Appalachicola, Fla., Mrs. J. H. Baldwin and son, Jerry, and Mr. and Mrs. Kimball.

Missionary Society

Mrs. W. C. Leslie was hostess to the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service Wednesday night. Mrs. W. A. Muse led the worship service, Mrs. R. H. Fields presented a program on "Women Crusaders," and Mrs. W. H. Keith conducted the Bible study on "The Divine Fatherhood."

A flower contest, won by Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., featured the social hour. Miss Louise Leslie assisted her mother in serving delicious refreshments.

Local Men Enter Business

Albert Graham and Clyde P. McMillan have leased Keith's filling station, garage and diner, recently operated by R. H. Fields, and are now operating under the firm name, "Bert and Mac's Place." Bert is well qualified for the garage work, having served in a maintenance of a PX during much of the war period.

Birthday Party

A surprise birthday party was given on Thursday, May 2, at his home, in honor of Albert Crissman. Arrangements for the party were made by Albert's mother and by Mrs. Lee Culler, his sister. Outdoor games were played, and string music, greatly enjoyed was furnished by Preston Stancil and his son, Jack, and Bill Benson of Sputhern Pines. In the dining room delicious chicken salad sandwiches, lemonade and cake were served as refreshments. There were twenty-five guests present.

Personals

James Ray McLean, seaman 1c, arrived last week for a 15-day stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

A. R. Laubscher, Jr., son of the Vass police chief and Mrs. Laubscher, received his discharge at Fort Bragg Saturday and is now at home. He left Germany on April 26.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Keith and family spent Sunday in Greensboro with Mr. and Mrs. John Clark. Mrs. Rosser Cameron accompanied them to Asheboro, then went with relatives to Greensboro to see her sister, who is ill in Wesley Long Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fields and family spent Mother's Day with relatives at Greensboro.

Miss Glennie Keith of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Keith of Sanford visited Mrs. W. H. Keith during the weekend. The four called on Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Griffin at Lakeview Saturday night.
