SP Golf Club To Have Labor Day Tournament

Five teams and sixty or more players of the Sandhills Golf League are expected to take part in the Labor Day golf tournament to be played at the Southern Pines Country Club.

The teams that will take part are: Rockingham-Hamlet, Wadesboro, Laurenburg, Lumberton and Southern Pines. Southern Pines, to date, is leading the League — undefeated in six matches.

This Labor Day Tournament is the opening gun of a program to establish Southern Pines more firmly than ever as one of the leading golfing centers of the South. In recent years Pinehurst has stepped far ahead of Southern Pines as the mid-South center of important golfing tournaments. Southern Pines declares itself back in the race.

W. W. Sherman, new owner of the Southern Pines Country Club, is definitely interested in showing the best in the golfing world that Southern Pines can offer as much or more than any other golfing resort in the South.

ARTHUR PATE

1st Lt. Arthur Pate received his discharge at Fort Bragg and is now here on terminal leave. Lt. Pate was with the 9th Air Force, Troop Carrier Sqdn., and spent 18 months overseas serving in Germany and England. He flew an air route from Munich to Paris for army personnel and for a time flew Greeks, working in Germany, back to their native land. Arthur plans to visit in Arkansas during his leave time. His brother Lewis is stationed in California with the 3rd Air Force and the other member of the family, James, is a member of THE PILOT staff. James was S/Sgt. in the 5th Air Force, was in the army for four years, and spent 30 months in the Pacific.

The Carolinas

Filed in thrilling Technicolor beloved classic, "Smoky", comes and Anne Baxter, with Burl Ives, the famous western ballad singer, the screen version of Will James beloved classic, "Smoky", comes to the Pinehurst Theatre Sunday Night, July 7th, at 8:30 for its closing night until further notice.

The attraction at the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 7-8-9, at 8:15 p. m. (No Matinee) is the new romantic drama, "A Stolen Life," starring Bette Davis.

Merry Mayhem and riotous romance are the keynotes of the hilarious comedy-farce, "It Shouldn't Happen To A Dog," coming to the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Wednesday and Thursday, July 3-4, at 8:15 p. m. with a Thursday matinee, starring Carole Landis, Allyn Joslyn and an amazingly talented Doberman Pinscher who answers to "Rodney".

"Janie Gets Married," the sprightly successor to the original "Janie" who made her initial and refreshing screen appearance a couple of seasons back, comes to the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Friday and Saturday, July 5-6, at 8:15 p. m. with a Saturday matinee at 3:00, with a cast headed by Joan Leslie in the title role and Robert Hutton as her bewildered bridegroom.

NORRIS HODGKINS

Upon completion of the N. R. T. C. course at Duke University last week Norris Hodgkins received his commission as Ensign. All V-12's and N. R. T. C. students not desiring active duty have been discharged. Ensign Hodgkins, after attending Duke for 20 months, received his discharge at Camp Shelton, Va. Norris is going back to Duke in the fall to work for his AB in economics.

Sunrise

For the first time the little people who work in a big movie, the extras, the atmosphere crowd, the bit actors, are getting personal recognition in a picture.

Nearly a hundred of these players, most of whom have never had a screen credit all the time they have been in Hollywood, are being identified by name in producer Robert S. Golden's "Breakfast in Hollywood," starring Tom Breneman.

The film is now being shown
