

DRUGS APPROVED

The Veterans Administration has approved for use in its hospitals three drugs recently released for general medical use. They are Folic Acid, newly discovered member of vitamin B complex group; Tridione, effective in treating certain forms of epilepsy, and Thiouracil, used in treating a type of goiter condition.

THE FLAT TOP of "Fighting Lady" is a safer place today for the wandering sailor than it was a year ago. On the flight decks of many of the carriers that brought America's naval air might to the very soil of Japan itself, the visitor, like the Navyman (below), can walk without fear of thundering propellers or the spotting of squadrons ready to roar out over the sea to drop lethal loads on enemy targets. This V-J Day finds thousands of "the birds with folded wings" voiceless and at rest and their mother hens secured snugly to their piers, but ready for almost instant action should the unwanted time for their services come again.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED MOORE COUNTY VETERANS

(Continued from Page 1) veterans will mass on Ashe Street facing on Massachusetts Avenue. They will march as a group, irrespective of their organization membership, but the flags of each American Legion and Veteran War Group will be in the parade with its proper Guard of Honor. The Big Show of the parade, however, will be the thousand or more Moore County veterans of World War II, for whom the celebration is being given. Major John D. Lang, of Carthage has been selected as chief marshal for this parade, and marshals to assist him have been selected from every section of the country and are shown in another article. Chief Marshal Lang urges every Moore County veteran to be in position at the World War II assembly point on Ashe Street, on east side of the Park by 10:30, and that they be dressed in summer uniform of their service branch with full insignia and authorized decorations, so that their part of the parade will be ready to move out promptly at 11:00 a. m. World War II veterans will march in their service branch in the usual order of Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Corps and Women's Auxiliary Corps. AIR COVERER THROUGHOUT THE PARADE WILL BE FURNISHED BY THIRD AIR CORPS COMMAND OF POPE FIELD.

After the parade a barbecue luncheon will be served to all veterans, their guests, and Ft. Bragg troops at the Park. The Gold Star Mothers will be served luncheon in the Civic Club Building adjoining the Park. The Negro veterans and Gold Star Mothers will be served at West Southern Pines High School.

A baseball game between Southern Pines and Star teams will furnish entertainment at 2:30 p. m. for those interested in baseball.

At 3:00 p. m. the Third Air Corps Command of Pope Field, assisted by visiting Civil Air Patrol fliers, will put on an air show at Knollwood Field and over Southern Pines, that will simulate an invasion attack similar to those that Moore County veterans actually fought under from North Africa to Anzio, Normandy Beach to Bastogne, and Guadalcanal to Okinawa. Many veterans will not deign to even look at these, but will be seen lolling on the grass in Memorial Park and swapping experiences with some buddy that he has not seen since V-J Day or before.

All will gather at the City Hall at 5:00 p. m. to hear speeches and greetings from the Mayor, the State Commanders of VFW's, the American Legion, the American Veterans Committee and their lady cohorts of the Auxiliaries.

The colorful ceremonial decorating of the Gold Star Mothers will be done at this time by the District Congresswoman, Miss Jane Pratt, who is herself a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. Her talk will be responded to by Mrs. Paul P. McCain, the Gold Star Mother of the year for North Carolina.

One of the principal addresses will be made by Mrs. O. S. Slaunwhite, department president of the American Legion Auxiliary. Congressman Nominat C. B. Deane will deliver a tribute to the veterans of all wars.

Major General James M. Gavin, Commander of the 82nd Airborne, hero of the Battle of Bastogne, will speak to the veterans on "The Need for a Strong Peace-Time Army."

The colorful Retreat Ceremony or Evening Parade will close the afternoon affair. Lt. Col. Julian A. Cook and the 82nd Airborne Guard of Honor, assisted by the World War I and II veterans and organizations, will carry out this ceremony, which is one of the most beautiful exhibitions of the armed services.

The street dance at 8:30 on West Broad Street, followed by the Victory Ball at the Carthage Gymnasium at 10:30, will close the day.

Capt. J. R. McInnis Wins Commendation

Captain John R. McInnis of West End, N. C., today wears the Army's commendation ribbon presented to him recently by Brigadier General Neal H. McKay, commander of the San Francisco Port of Embarkation.

The ribbon was in recognition of the outstanding work done by Captain McInnis since he reported for duty at the San Francisco Port.

The citation, which was read by Colonel Roland Shugg, chief of staff, at a formal ceremony, is as follows:

"Captain John R. McInnis. As officer in charge, authorization and control branch and other important assignments within the branch from February 1944 until June 1946, he significantly contributed to the effective functioning of this vital activity. His achievements reflect a thorough knowledge of Port requirements and unusual ability to obtain results."
