Many Transfers Swell Lot And House Sales

This Is But Partial List Of Local Deals

Strikes and whatnot have brought about drastic slow-down of vital production throughout the United States, causing resultant slow-downs in many communities of many things, but real estate in Southern Pines is not one of those "many things".

Many and varied are the real estate transfers that have taken place in and around Southern Pines in recent months.

The most recent of these transfers are the following: F. W. Van Camp has sold to Roy R. Newton and wife a lot on Illinois Avenue near May Street. The Newtons now have a dwelling under way on this lot.

Near the Ball Park, Ed Starnes has sold to Roland W. Norton a house and lot on Bennett Street.

Resort Airlines In First Year Opens Three Offices; Flies Million Miles

In its first year Resort Airlines has flown over one million passenger miles; created the newest thing in the national tourist trade, its transcontinental "Sky Cruise"; established its own offices in New York City and Miami, as well as here and has set its own planes down in major airports in all parts of the United States.

Thus, the truth of an old adage "mighty oaks from tiny acorns grow" is being proved by Resort Airlines, Moore County's own airline.

Commencing operations just a year ago this month with nothing but an idea and a fund of initiative and imagination, Resort Airlines is the first venture of its kind in North Carolina to carry the name of the state and, in particular the fame of the resort area of Moore County, from coast to coast on services operated entirely under its own name.

Its planes have flown from New York's La Guardia Field to Florida, to the Adirondacks where it maintained a daily service last summer, and to the West Coast and the great National parks at Yellowstone, Yosemite and the Grand Canyon. . . all on the itinerary of the pioneer Sky Cruises. Resort has thus become a flying ambassador for the state and Moore County. Every passenger was made aware that Pinehurst-Southern Pines was the home of the line. Officers and pilots of the corporation are convinced that their operations have resulted in word-of-mouth advertising of great value to the state and to Moore County.

As it enters its second year the line is committed to specialization in the vacation and tourist field of air travel on both an extended national and an international scale. Spreading its wings over all parts of North and Central America, Resort is already on its way to becoming a national airline of importance and thereby a major asset to its home community and the state at large. In order to meet the requirements of its extended activities, it plans to invest a large sum of money in improvements and additions to Knollwood Field, according to Lewis C. Burwell, Jr., of Southern Pines, president of the corporation. Burwell explains, that his company's business makes it imperative that the field's facilities be increased and improved in order that Resort can properly provide for the housing and maintenance of its equipment, for its executive offices and in order to service the increase in air traffic from other sources, both commercial and private, which he believes will inevitably result from Resort's rapidly increasing operations. The company has a lease on the field, which is owned by Moore County, and the company's investment and continued use of the field, Burwell states, is entirely contingent upon the cooperation of the County Airport Commission, of which Gordon M. Cameron of Pinehurst is chairman.

THUMBS DOWN

A public hearing was held Wednesday night concerning the possible construction of an office-apartment building on the lot now owned by Dr. Milliken on the Town Park site. It was unanimously agreed by the citizens attending that the zoning laws along East Broad Street should not be extended.

In short, thumbs down on erecting the proposed office-apartment. The Zoning Board recommended to the Town Commissioners that the Zones remain as they now are and that the Town acquire, if possible, the lot from Dr. Milliken for an addition to the Town Park.

Louis Haynes Dies From Bulbar Polio

Word has been received of the death in San Francisco of Louis Haynes who graduated in '43 from the Southern Pines High School.

Young Haynes was aboard ship returning from Japan when he came down with bulbar polio.

"Louis couldn't be anything but fair" is the way he is described by many of his friends here in Southern Pines.

Following his years in Southern Pines High School, Louis Haynes went to St. Pauls at Concord, N. H. He received the high average of 89 per cent on all examinations entering St. Pauls from Southern Pines High. From St. Pauls Haynes entered Harvard, where he again distinguished himself as a brilliant scholar.

Entering the Navy in '44, Haynes took his "boot training" at Camp Blanding, Fla., and from there was sent to the University of Chicago to study Japanese. He was sent to Japan last March and was stationed at the Emperor's Palace in Tokyo. (Continued on Page 8)

GI Democrats Say Hubert McCaskill For YDC President

Non-GI Gets Backing Of Political Vets

GI Democrats Take First Political Step Here In Moore County

The GI Democrats of Moore County voted unanimously at their last Friday's meeting in the Carthage Courthouse to back J. Hubert McCaskill, non-GI of Pinehurst, as the next President of the Young Democrats Committee in the eight district.

This backing of a non-GI for a political office is the opening gun fired by these local GI Democrats. It is their first step into County affairs. It is also directly contrary to one of the main beliefs of those who dislike, and possible fear, the GI Democrats. That belief was that the GI Democrats would vote only for ex-GI's.

However, at the Carthage meeting it was brought out that one of the main purposes of the GI Democrats "is to pick the best man for any particular office and do all in our power to have him elected, whether or not he was in the Services".

This decision turns the local spotlight directly upon these ex-GI's who state one of their basic beliefs is the fact that "Ballots Not Bullets" is the best way to achieve better government in the County, the State, the Nation, and finally in the world.

During the same meeting where it was voted to back McCaskill for YDC President, a few plans were suggested to the Platform Committee. The "Chalfonte Resolutions", the platform (Continued on Page 5)

What The President Might Have Done Instead of What He Did

Sept. 20th, 1946. 6:15 P. M. The Radio: "President Truman has asked for Secretary Wallace's resignation."

"That is a tragic mistake on the President's part!" "You think it's a mistake? Why, what could he have done?" "He could have told the truth; he could have apologized; he could have written Wallace a letter, something like this: . . ."

AN IMAGINARY LETTER

Dear Mr. Secretary: Yes, I did read your speech on that afternoon when you gave it to me. When a member of my cabinet proposes to make a speech on foreign policy before the PAC, or any body of Americans, I should consider myself derelict in my duty if I did not read his speech, beforehand, with the utmost care.

Before I started to read, I thought for a long time. First of all, I wondered if it was a good

GI Bill Of Wrongs Aired By Dean Of St. Johns College

Thoughtless Vets Are Killing Golden Goose

The GI Bill of Rights has a lot of wrongs when it comes to the facts of the case, as far as higher education goes. That at least, is the opinion of some Rotarians after listening to Dean George Matheson of St. Johns College in Brooklyn.

Dean Matheson spoke to the Rotary Club at their regular luncheon meeting at Lakeview last Friday.

Dean Matheson was not a happy man about "Public Law 348", alias the GI Bill of Rights. It admittedly does a great deal of good, but it also does a good bit of bad.

Too many vets who had given up formal education long before the war are now back in the halls of learning, only they're not learning. They are taking courses in "liberal arts"—many are dropping out after a few weeks, due to their inability to do the work assigned in the liberal arts courses, many colleges have expanded their teaching staff to cover the tremendous influx of vets, and when these vets drop out the colleges find themselves over-expanded.

There is such terrific overcrowding that many colleges are finding their professors and instructors can no longer do justice to their lecture courses and classes.

One of the most serious drawbacks to the present set-up is that those young people now ready for college who could use the advanced education so many vets are wasting can not get in. Too many vets are "going along for the ride."

Second Team Starts, But First Team Takes Over, Goes To Town

Passes, Runs, Fumbles Cost Pittsboro Game

In a game that at times was spectacular and full of thrills for the 400 some odd spectators, with a large representation from Southern Pines, Southern Pines rolled over Pittsboro High at Pittsboro Wednesday afternoon 45 to 6, but the Pittsboro team had its moments, and fought courageously to the final whistle.

Coach Dawson started a mixed team of lettermen and reserves. Pittsboro received the opening kickoff, but lost the ball on downs as a fourth down forward pass was incomplete. On the Pittsboro 20 yard line, Grey ran for nineteen yards around left end, Fumbles stalled the Blue and White, and a fourth down pass was incomplete and Pittsboro took over on their 3. Maples recovered a fumble on the Pittsboro 5 yard marker. A forward lateral from McLeod to Maples to Scheipers carried to the two yard line, and from this point Grey raced around left end for Southern Pines' first touchdown. The conversion attempt failed. Score 6 to 0. Pittsboro taking the kick off, advanced the ball to their 39 yard marker. From here White, right end, on an end around raced to the Southern Pines 19 yard line. Haynes then dropped away back and heaved a long pass to White who was in the end zone, for a touch down. Score 6-6. Pittsboro failed to make the extra point. Coach Dawson sent in an entirely new team with Harrington and York ends; Arnette, center, and Straka, Smith, and Blue backs.

Pittsboro kicked off out of bounds and Southern Pines took over on their own 30 yard line. Blue picked up 13 yards, and repeated for 15 more at right end. Trying the middle he went through for another 15 yards. A backfield fumble was converted by Red Smith into a touchdown when he scooped up the ball and ran through the Pittsboro team for the second touchdown. The score was 12 to 6 as the try for extra points failed.

Pittsboro taking the next kick off couldn't go the distance for a first down and had to kick. Blue returned the kick to Southern Pines 19 yard stripe, and in two plays the Blue and White added the third score. Straka passed to Harrington who took the ball on the Pittsboro 30 and lateraled to Al Blue who carried to the Pittsboro two yard line before he was knocked out of bounds. As the second quarter began Blue took the ball over to make the score 18 to 6. Try for the point after touchdown was blocked.

Southern Pines scored their fourth touchdown as the result of a Pittsboro fumble which Harrington recovered on their 11 yard line. Mattocks in for Grey carried the ball over, Arnette placekicked the extra points making the score 26 to 6. A blocked kick with the entire Southern Pines line in on the play was recovered by the locals on the Pittsboro 2. Harrington took a pass from Straka for the fifth touchdown making the score 32 to 6 as again the conversion failed.

A fumble on the one yard line cost the Blue and White another touchdown just before the half. Play was slow and see-sawed in the scoreless third quarter. Page started the Blue and White to their sixth touchdown by intercepting a Pittsboro pass on his 30 yard line and returning to the 25. Grey threw a pass to Maples good for 24 yards, but two running plays lost seven yards. On fourth down, fading deeply, (Continued from Page 5)
