

Hollywood Stars Open Good Health Campaign on Radio

North Carolina's No. 1 Star Kay Kyser Helps In State's No. 1 Need

The Good Health Association's educational publicity campaign will get its official kick-off next Saturday night, November 9, with a live talent broadcast direct from Hollywood, Good Health headquarters here announced today.

Billed as "The Big Broadcast of 1946," the star-studded show will be on the air from 7 till 7:30 o'clock and will be carried by every full-time radio station in the state. Stations which operate during the daytime only will make transcriptions for use Sunday, November 10.

Appearing on the show in addition to a host of Hollywood stars will be Governor Gregg Cherry and Dr. I. G. Greer, of Thomasville, President of the Association. The program will open in Hollywood, after which the local will be switched to Raleigh for brief remarks from Governor Cherry and Dr. Greer. Then back to Hollywood where ten top stars will entertain.

Heading the array of talent will be the entire complement of North Carolina stars in Hollywood, plus other non-tar Heel luminaries who have indicated interest in the Good Health program. The parade of North Carolinians will include such celebrities as Actor Randolph Scott, of Charlotte, Kathryn Grayson, singing sensation from Winston-Salem, and Anne Jeffreys, bright newcomer from Goldsboro. Also Ava Gardner, Wilson beauty and former wife of (1) Mickey Rooney and (2) Band leader Artie Shaw; Skinnay Ennis, Salisbury orchestra leader and singer; and John Scott Trotter, of Charlotte, director and composer featured on the Bing Crosby Hour.

Kay Kyser, the "Old Professor" of Musical Knowledge from Rocky Mount, will serve as master of ceremonies, and will be assisted by his band and Ish Kabibble, deadpan comic.

Joining the North Carolina stars to round out the program will be Red Skelton, radio's "mean widdle kid," and Dinah Shore, Dixie songbird from Nashville, Tenn. More than a million listeners are expected to tune in the show, which will be the first radio program ever to be brought to an all North Carolina hookup via direct leased wire from Hollywood.

All stars appearing on the broadcast have donated their services without cost to the Good Health Association, and radio stations have given the air time free of charge.

County Firemen Work For Timber Protection

A newcomer in town is the big T-9 caterpillar tractor with its plow hitched on behind, that is spending some time in this section of the Sandhills plowing out fire-lanes. In charge of Moore County fire warden, A. B. Eastwood, the plow which is state owned can be hired by private individuals at a cost of $4.00 a mile.

Eastwood has been plowing out a line along both edges of the old country, and moved on to Weymouth Estate Wednesday. The Boyds plan to enlarge the size and number of fire-lanes in an effort to give all the protection possible to their timber. The plow is in great demand and will probably go from the Weymouth woods to the Bion Butler place adjoining.

ARMISTICE DAY CLOSING

The Citizens Bank and Trust Company announce that they will be closed on Armistice Day, November 11th.

They Haven't Forgotten Their Home in Carolina

An all-star show to top all-star shows comes to North Carolina this Saturday night from 7 to 7:30 o'clock under the sponsorship of the Good Health Association. To be brought to the state over a direct leased wire from Hollywood, the broadcast will be carried by every North Carolina station on the air at that time. Featured will be the entire contingent of Tar Heel stars in California, plus a number of other headliners from out of the state. Stars who will be heard are shown in the above array. Top row, left to right: Anne Jeffreys, of Goldsboro; Ish Kabibble; Ave Gardner, of Wilson; Skinnay Ennis, of Salisbury; and Dinah Shore. Bottom, same order, Red Skelton; Randolph Scott, of Charlotte; Kathryn Grayson, of Winston-Salem; and Rocky Mount's Kay Kyser.

W. P. Saunders of Robbins Heads GoodHealthGroup

At the meeting of the Good Health Association, held at the Mid-Pines Club last week, W. P. Saunders of Robbins was appointed chairman for Moore County, with Mrs. James Boyd of Southern Pines as vice-chairman.

The meeting, attended by representatives from several counties, was addressed by the executive secretary of the association, Harry B. Caldwell. Telling his audience that the success of the campaign for better health in the state depended upon the education of the people to the need and the methods by which it might be met, he described the Good Health Association as one organization which did not involve getting members or raising funds. He said that three points would be stressed: the need for better health, as exemplified by statistics showing the lack of hospitals, nurses, doctors in the state; the plan for meeting that need, which involved building health centers, adding hospital beds, helping to train more nurses, doctors and technicians; and last, the job, itself for which the meeting was held: to form a local group in each community to promote the Good Health Plan by arousing public opinion to back health legislation soon to be under consideration. He said that the association had nothing to do with formulating the plan; that had been drawn up by the Broughton Commission and other groups of specialists in great detail and after long and careful study; the job of local committees would be purely that of arousing an informed public opinion.

Mrs. P. P. McCain, committee member for this section, introduced the guests and promised full support from her representatives.

Among those attending the meeting from Moore County were: H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen, Dr. Willcox, health officer, from Carthage. Mrs. Worth McLeod, Mrs. Cole, Miss Swett, Orville Fulp of the Health and Welfare Departments, Miss Flora McDonald and Miss Harrell of the Home Demonstration Service, E. H. Garrison, head of the Agricultural Department, Mrs. James Boyd and Mrs. W. P. Saunders.

TWO CESSNAS FOR SKYLINE

Harold Bachman and Gordon Keith have gone to Wichita, Kansas to pick up two new Cessna planes. Mr. Bachman runs the Skyline Airport on Number One highway toward Lakeview. He has the agency for the Cessna planes and also instructs flying. His son, Bill Bachman, is associated with him now.

RED CROSS

Remember how we all worked for our servicemen during the war?

Remember how we all worked for the Red Cross?

Most of us have stopped working for our boys in uniform, but the Red Cross hasn't; it goes right on. It is still helping with soldier and sailor problems, with the wounded in the army and navy hospitals, with the boys who have moved on that last step into the veterans' hospitals.

The Red Cross is not letting them down or letting up on all the other fine work it tries to do. And we mustn't let it down.

Remember: the annual meeting is today, at the School, at 3 p. m.

First Gymkhana To Be Held Sunday

The first of the season's equestrian gymkhanas will be held at the horseshow grounds at the Southern Pines Country Club, Sunday afternoon, November 10th, at 2:30 P. M.

Louis Scheipers, chairman of the committee, has announced the following classes: first, the class for Children's Horsemanship, to be held in the inside ring; second class for Open Hunters, to be run over the outside course; third class for Open Jumpers; fourth, Knock Down and Out Class; fifth, Three-legged Race; sixth, Potato Race, to be held in the inside ring.

The Judge will be Nathan Ayers, of Greensboro. Ribbons will (Continued on Page 8)

Halloween Grand Fun Thanks To Rotarians

The annual Halloween party given by the Rotary Club was a huge success last Thursday night. Hundreds lined the streets to watch the parade of costumed youngsters as they pranced by. There were prizes for the most beautiful, the funniest, the most unusual, and the most horrible costumes. Little Carolyn Hart was the grand prize winner and she had little trouble in capturing the judges' eyes.

Gay booths were set up along the entire street and the busy Rotarians drew attention to their apple-ducking, bingo, free punch and doughnut stands, sack race, candle race, wheelbarrow race and a tug of war. Spectators as well as children all entered into the festive spirit and words of appreciation to the Rotary Club were heard from all sides.

Unfortunately in all of the excitement the master of ceremonies forgot to write down names of various prize winners.

Armistice Service And Harvest Ball Planned By Legion

Veterans and Public Are Urged To Attend Sunday Night Service

Sandhills Post American Legion, at its Tuesday night meeting in Southern Pines, under the leadership of Commander Virgil Clark, planned its principal Armistice Day observance to be held at the Church of Wide Fellowship Southern Pines on Sunday night, November 10th, inviting all veterans in Moore County to participate.

The Post voted to offer the use of its Club House on Maine avenue in Southern Pines to all veterans' organizations in the Community and advocated freer use of the club for social purposes by veterans, planning to complete the renovation of the hall, halted after Pearl Harbor. To provide for financing of this renovation a special committee composed of Jerry Healy and Nolly Jackson was appointed to cooperate with the veterans' organizations in the community in sponsoring a revival of the pre-war Harvest Ball to be held on Thanksgiving night at a hall to be selected by the committee.

Adjutant Diethofer announced notice had been received from the Veterans Administration that a trained official was available for this community for the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays in each month to assist veterans and relatives in any claims matters, to supplement work being done by the county. A trained Honor Guard for the Post was discussed and Commander Clark appointed Joe O'Callaghan as Drill Captain. Plans were made to secure rifles and equipment for a drill and rifle team. O'Callaghan asks that all who would like to join in this notify him at once so that drill dates can be set.

A committee, composed of L. V. O'Callaghan, H. J. Diethofer and Frank Reed, served refreshments to the Post after adjournment.

Workers At Shaw House Pitch In To Clean and Paint

Drivers passing to and from Aberdeen will be struck by the fine flurry of activity to be seen in and about the Shaw House at the southern end of town. Several cars are parked along the Morganton Road front entrance most every day, while the new white sign on Broad Street testifies that this project of the Moore County Historical Society is at last really getting under way.

Most active among the volunteer workers are Mrs. Katherine McColl, Mrs. David Sutherland and Mrs. Ernest Ives who, taking helpers with them, set to work to clean up the place. "As the town force, which was to clean the yard, was late in coming," said one of the ladies, "we decided not to wait but to do it ourselves." The long grass has been cut, some of the straggly bushes pruned and already the grounds begin to have a less jungly appearance. Inside the house, the change for the better is even more apparent. The Shaw Paint Co. sent a man over to steam off the wall paper from the old board walls, and Letcher Cameron is working in the main room, rubbing down (Continued on Page 8)

CLUB DANCE

There will be a semi-formal dinner dance this Saturday, November 9th, marking the official opening of the Southern Pines Country Club. Many of those who will be following the golf during the afternoon are expected to stay on for the dance.

Local Voters Follow County Lead As All Candidates Are Returned

G.O.P.

What will this republican landslide mean for the country?

It will depend which wing of the party is dominant. If it is the Taft-Dewey-Bricker wing, we are in for trouble. We shall have taxes cut in the higher brackets; we shall have more strikes; we shall have internationalism as opposed to internationalism, with protective tariffs and cartels threatening the world economy. We shall have the reactionaries in Big Business in the saddle, running the country as they please.

We had all that under Harding and it was not good. If the Republicans have the sense to recall that lesson, they may turn to Stassen and the liberal wing of the party. That must be our hope.

Wallace Threat Fades As Blue Wins Easily, Dean Tops Opponent

The Sandhills went to the polls on Tuesday and recorded entire satisfaction with the conduct of affairs hereabouts by voting back into office all those who had served the county in an official capacity during the past term.

Most popular candidate, according to the voters of Southern Pines, was J. Vance Rowe, who polled the highest number of votes recorded in the local election, 283, to win the right to preside again over Moore County's Recorder's Court, to listen to the tales of crime and woe and grim humor that echo through the Carthage Courthouse, and to hand down his wise decisions.

Close to Judge Rowe in number of local votes, (281) was W. A. Leland McKeithen, once again chosen Prosecuting Attorney for the county.

Southern Pines voting ran as follows, to return to their accustomed folds: M. G. Boyette, solicitor, (279); Clerk of the Court John Willcox, (279), Sheriff Charles J. McDonald (279); Register of Deeds Bessie McCaskill (279); Coroner Hugh P. Kelly; (276), Gordon Cameron, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, won the highest number of votes for commissioner in Southern Pines, polling 280, with John M. Currie, 276, W. H. Jackson, Jr. (273), L. R. Reynolds, (274), T. L. Blue, (275).

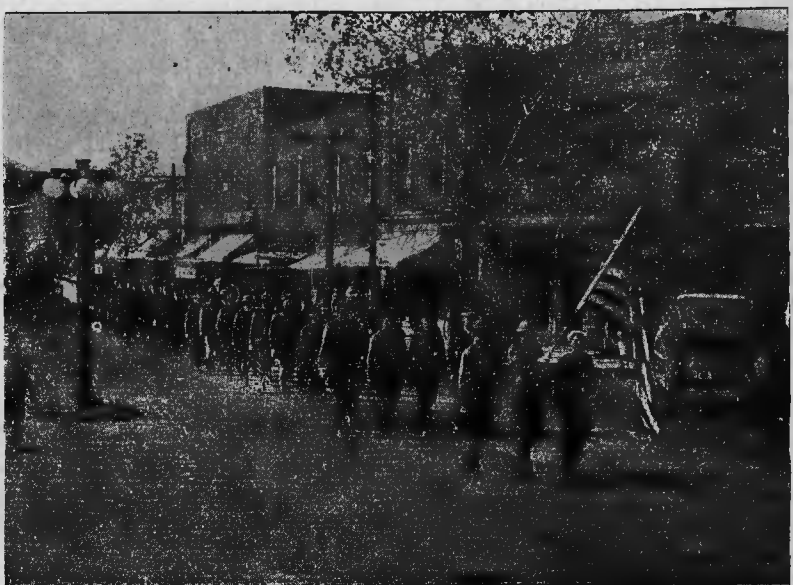

Southern Pines cast 278 votes for Aberdeen's popular publisher, H. Clifton Blue, and 276 votes for W. H. Currie for State Senator and 265 for his running mate, L. M. Chaffin.

Republican votes in Southern Pines went as follows: For State Senators, J. Leonard Koonce, 79, J. O. West, 78; For the House, R. G. Wallace 81; Clerk of the Court, K. Weldon H. Hennings, 78; Sheriff, Roy Garner, 77; one County Commissioner, Herman C. Garner, 83.

The same general pattern was followed in the voting for state officers and congressman, with most of the votes running between 254 to 258 for C. B. Deane on the democratic state. The republicans polled, in Southern Pines voting: Seawell, 112; Turner, 100; Whicker, 104.

County returns, still incomplete, tally as follows: Solicitor, Boyette, 2664; unopposed, Currie, 2625, Chaffin, 2458; (Republican Koonce, 1244, West, 1241); Representative, Blue, 2560; (Republican Wallace, 1355); Clerk of (Continued on Page 8)

Armistice Day In Southern Pines

This picture was taken in 1922, four years after the real Armistice Day. The uniforms are different now . . . and cars are different, (see the old model T, off in the background? And don't you wish you had one!) Those buildings have been changed, too, and there is no funny light near the station. But these men are the fathers of the boys who fought in this war. They march as their sons did, and the Flag they carry is the Stars and Stripes.

When the two minutes of silence comes next Monday, on Armistice Day, we will think of them and of their brothers in foreign soil, and of our boys of this World War 11, who lie beside them. In loving memory and deepest gratitude, we pay tribute to their sacrifice.
