

Teacher Pay Issue

(Continued from Page 1) pay, bringing the monthly salary to $118.00, for nine months of the year. The 40 percent median increase would give such a teacher a salary of $1560.00 a year; at the end of 14 years, the teacher would be receiving $3000.00.

A unanimous vote was taken at Saturday's meeting to support the resolution under discussion, and three members were chosen from each district to serve on the state steering committee, which now represents all six school districts.

A. C. Dawson described the meeting as being enthusiastic and in complete agreement, but said that some teachers had hesitated to express themselves openly, fearing criticism from their home boards. He led a discussion of this point and made the suggestion, received with approval, that a poll be taken, if necessary by personal letter to each teacher in the state, asking for a confidential expression of opinion "Not only are some teachers suffering from a certain amount of cohesion," Dawson said, "but the facts are being kept from the public. Politicians are constantly stressing the fact that the state 'hasn't the money' to institute a general increase in teacher pay.

What they should do is let the people know the facts, of the poor condition of our educational institutions, due, more than anything else, to low teacher pay. Then the people of North Carolina, who are keenly interested in education and in providing the best for their children, would turn to and demand that the money be raised, even if it meant sacrifice in other lines." Principal Dawson said that the next meeting of the state steering committee would be held in Raleigh on January 4th, before the meeting of the legislature.

other works, all based upon texts dealing with love, philosophy and nature and ranging in spirit from lightness and gaiety to stately dignity. The program will commence at 8:30 p. m. and will be preceded, as usual, by the Club's buffet supper, which will be served from 7:00 p. m.

TB Seal Sale

The town of Southern Pines has had no new cases of tuberculosis during the past year.

An added service which the Tuberculosis Association renders is the providing of Christmas gifts for patients at Sanatorium, adding to the spirit of contentment which is so helpful in their recovery.

DIRECTOR HILDERMAN

Of interest to Sandhills folks is the news that Southern Pines' Katherine Hilderman is to direct the play, "Quality Street," by James Barrie, which is being given by the Meredith College Little Theatre group on Friday and Saturday of this week at the college auditorium. Miss Hilderman was recently appointed to the drama department at Meredith.
