Herrmann Grover May Be Chamber's Next Secretary

Position To Be Held Temporarily By Ball, Experienced Auditor

Williard J. Ball has been chosen by the Chamber of Commerce, it is announced, to fill temporarily the position vacated by the re cent resignation of Colonel Donald Madigan.

The new temporary secretary will take up immediately the business of carrying out and closing the fund drive accounts, for which work he is especially wellqualified. A graduate of Harvard, 13, and a practicing architect for many years, Ball spent some time during the war doing auditing and accounting at Camp Lejeune. Since then he spent 15 months with the British Ministry of War Transport in New York, prior to coming to Southern Pines. Mrs. Ball is a secretary at the Red Cross office.

The Chamber announces, further, that arrangements are being made to fill permanently the position of executive secretary with a local young man, Herrmann Grover. A leader in the splendid work with the Teen-Age group

Vass-Lakeview Tilt Is First On Ambitious Local Schedule

Opening their official season against Vass-Lakeview High School here Tuesday Night, the boys' and girls' basketball teams of Southern Pines High embark on what is perhaps the most ambitious schedule in the school's history. Tuesday night's twin bill is the first of an eleven game nome card booked for the season, featuring three teams that were top flight contenders in last year's Eastern Championship Title race. Pittsboro High, the first of these eams, comes here January 24th, followed by Morehead City on Friday and Saturday nights, January 31st, and February 1st. Morehead will also bring their iunior varsity club which will olay preliminary games Friday nd Saturday nights with the locál junior varsity team. Pittsboro, last year's Eastern unner up, was eleminated by Jonesboro High, semi-finalist, vho were in turn beaten by Souern Pines. The local team then vent on to defeat Morehead at Chapel Hill on the UNC court for the Eastern Championship in warm weather and varied prottraction of the coming game is that Gary Mattocks, formerly a guard on the Jonesboro team, will again play, but this time he
