Places were marked for the guest of honor and Mr. and Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Sarah Stilwell of Savannah, sister of Mrs. Moss, Miss Edith Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. William Elsas of Atlanta and the host.

Mrs. Thomas Barron Bridge Hostess

Gay green and clover leaf on place cards and tallies decorated the tables when Mrs. Thomas Barron entertained at a luncheon for forty and a card party Thursday afternoon, March 6. The St. Patrick's party was given at the Civic Club building. Father R. C. Barrett and the Rev. and Mrs. F. Craighill Brown were honor guests at the luncheon. Spring flowers were used by the hostess, a gift from Mrs. E. B. Hamblett who with Mrs. Barrett Harriss assisted in receiving and entertaining guests.

Prizes of double decks of plastic playing cards were presented to the holders of high scores, A. L. Clark of Lakeview, Mrs. Elmer Davis, Mrs. Margaret Mills Cameron, Dr. J. J. Spring, Mrs. W. E. Cox, Mrs. Marshall Barney and Mrs. Verdine T. Wiley. The three holding low scores were not overlooked with Mrs. C. N. Page receiving a handkerchief, Miss Barbara Betterley, a pot-holder, and Mrs. P. T. Kelsey, a change purse.

Bridge Tea

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. J. Dennis Sitterson and Mrs. Willard F. Angen were hostesses to thirteen tables of bridge at the Civic Club. Following the game tea was served with Mrs. L. D. McDonald pouring. The tea table was attractively arranged with lace cloth and centerpiece of yellow Shasta daisies reflected in mirror base and flanked by green tapers in silver holders. Pastel shades of yellow and green, and white were carried out in the decoration of refreshments.

The same spring color motif prevailed in bridge tallies and prize wrappings. Top scores for the afternoon were held by Mrs. J. Watson Neal, Mrs. W. D. Howard, Miss Marguerite Wolf, Mrs. Frank Neely, Mrs. L. H. Cherry, Jr., Mrs. George Case, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. Glenn Gibson and Mrs. Howard Burns. Floating prizes were received by Mrs. Neely and Mrs. Burns, and consolation prize by Mrs. J. A. Phillips.

Bird Lovers Invited to Bird Club Meetings

Miss Louise Haynes, vice-president and secretary of the Southern Pines Bird Club entertained the members-present, last Friday, at her cottage across the lawn from the New England House. As it was not agreeable weather to be outdoors bird hunting, she played records of bird songs which were thoroughly enjoyed.

All interested in bird lore are cordially invited to attend these gatherings of the Bird Club each Friday at the New England House at ten in the morning.

Hosts at Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burns were hosts at a buffet supper and bridge Saturday evening in their home on Broad Street. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Steed, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Hamar of Pinehurst.

Eighth Birthday

Seventeen of John Chappell's friends were his guests Saturday evening when he celebrated his eighth birthday. The party was held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chappell, Ridge Street. The youngsters played games and were shown movie cartoons in color. The films were brought for the occasion by his god-parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Taylor of Winston-Salem. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy were served, and each received a favor of a box of crayons.

John's guests were Malcolm Kemp, Jr., Frank Tadlock, David Barney, Mac and Marilyn Mills, Peter McCall, Terry Farmer and Sheila Tarlton of Aberdeen, Virginia Woodell, Skipper Spence, Johnny Ormsby, Julian Pleasants, Mary Harpman, Ann McDonald, Jimmy Rabon, Jerry Healy, Jr., and Alexander Synowiez of Pinehurst.

After John's party, Mr. and Mrs. Chappell were hosts to a few of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. DuBose, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kivette and Mr. and Mrs. William Dale. Mr. Sprague entertained guests by showing his colored slides of scenes in Southern Pines and Connecticut. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess.

Club Hears Program, Lists Activities

A large attendance of members and guests were present at the Civic Club Monday afternoon to head the book review by Mrs. Struthers Burt and the pleasant singing of Mrs. Page Choate, well known soprano.

Mrs. Choate, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. D. McDonald, sang "Temple Bells" and "Til I Wake" by Amy Woodforde Finden, and "Spring's a Lovable Lady" by Keith Eliot.

Mrs. W. E. Cox introduced Mrs. Burt, guest speaker. Charming in black suit and smart hair-do, the author's softly modulated voice brought the warmth of her book "Close Pursuit" to her listeners. Bits of humor highlighted her talk about the gathering of material for her novel.

A social hour followed the program with Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins presiding at the tea table. Arrangements for tea were made by Mrs. J. T. Overton, Mrs. J. A. Phillips, Mrs. Louis Scheipers and Mrs. Hodgkins.

Mrs. McDonald, club president, presided at the business meeting at 3:00. Entertainment plans have been concluded for the night of the Duke Glee Club concert, Friday, March 21. Glee Club members will be guests of the Civic Club at a buffet supper at 5:00, and again at a dance after the recital, at the club building. They will be overnight guests of club members and friends.

The public may purchase buffet supper service at the club between the hours of 6:00 and 7:30 Friday night, March 21.

A gift of $25.00 has been made to the club for purchase of venetian blinds for the directors' room, and plans are in the offing for a small amount of redecoration. Total membership has now reached seventy-one.
