VOL. 28 NO. 23.

FOURTEEN PAGES

Southern Pines, N. C. Friday, May 2, 1947.

FOURTEEN PAGES

TEN CENTS

Highland Pines To Operate On Year-Round Basis

Brown Succeeds Garland Pierce In Management

Beginning May 1, the Highland Pines Inn, operated for the past few years strictly as a seasonal and resort hotel, entered on a new schedule of year-round operation under the management of W. L. Brown, a co-owner from Garland Pierce, manager for the past five years and before that connected for 15 years with the Belvedere hotel, is retiring from hotel business, and will devote himself to the Paul T. Barnum insurance agency here, of which he is president, and also to a real estate development he has now under way.

A native of Leominster, Mass. he has lived here 20 years.
Brown is a member of a firm owning several commercial hotels in the state, at Troy, Carthage, Monroe and Durham. The Highland Pines, recently purchas-ed, is the first of its type in the Largest hotel of this community, with features which have successfully appealed to resort visitors and conventions of all kinds, it is to be continued along the the year-round feature. In keeping with the progress of Southhe said, that business will justify operation during 12 months of She

The dining room, however; closed May 1 for the summer, but it is believed will open earlier in the fall than heretofore, with conventions also booked

During the summer extensive redecorating and refurnishing will take place, to maintain the restauration of the West Southern Pines school, will be in charge of Mid Pines course here today (Fritiful as well as largest hotels.

Insurance Men Meet At Carolina Hotel

Some 600 insurance men of the hotel in Pinehurst, Thursday evening for their four-day Golden Anniversary convention.

County Insurance Exchange, made opening session, immediately following the past presidents' dinner Thursda'v.

Numerous distinguished speakers included figures of national and statewide prominence in the insurance field. Saturday afterconvention will end Sunday.

Historical Group Holds Carthage Meet, Tours Sites Of County History Glee Club Wins

SPEAKER

DR. H. W. RONDTHALER

Plans Made For Youth Recreation Summer Program

Miss Aline Todd Will Be Girls' Director; Campaign To Be Held

Miss Aline Todd has consented to stay here this summer as disame general policies except for rector of girls' activities for the city summer recreation program, it was announced this week by ern Pines from a seasonal to a Director A. C. Dawson in revealyear-round town, it is believed, ing general plans for the pro-

She is the girls' athletic director of the Southern Pines High school.

A campaign for financing the program is being initiated by the Council of Social Agencies sponsoring organization, to be carried earlier to make a more extended forward under the aegis of the citizens' planning committee.

activities for the Southern Pines olina. The state, members of the North Carolina Association of Insurance rainy days, dancing (including Purvis Ferree, Winston-Salem quested by the Southern Pines A full sports program is being

John Ruggles, of Southern 2:30 to 5 p. m. daily for 10 weeks. university linksman, who will de- R. M. Burns, Seaboard Air Line Pines, president of the Moore They will be open to all boys and girls from eight years old the welcoming speech at the up, and will provide something

This is the second year the Council of Social Agencies has noon will be devoted to golf and and improvements are being fellowship, and the banquet will made this year, the greatest bebe held Saturday evening. The ing rated the addition of a director for the girls.

Sandhill Folk Turn Out to Glimpse Marshall, Home From Moscow Meet

The eyes of the world were on Chinese maid. the Sandhills last week as Secretary of State George C. Mar-and went, and the special plane wave and smile in response.

shall car drew up at the side of smart, in a navy sheer suit with the plane—to put on some lug- perky grey straw hat. gage. Doubt as to whether Mrs. Marshall was flying too was dis- ing man with a permanent smile, pelled as a hatbox flew open, appeared not to have a worry in board, as in previous national revealing veils and flowers which the world. He showed no signs of events. meant feminine spring hats.

Applause

The crowd burst into spontanshall, newly returned from the eous applause at sight of them. Moscow conference, enjoyed a A tray of pansies was presented brief interval of relaxation at his to Mrs. Marshall by members of Pinehurst home before flying to the Walter Hines Page Book club Washington to make his report to of Aberdeen, which was there in full force, along with citizens The grapevine was busy, and from practically every other town early Sunday afternoon the crowd in the county. The applause conbegan to grow at Resort airport, tinued as the Marshalls mounted pion. Richard D. Chapman of swelling to 1,000 as the scheduled the portable steps into the plane, time of departure, 2:40, came and they turned at the top, to with its U. S. army star and bar Mrs. Marshall, who has waited showed no signs of warming up. alone at home during the agoniz- Mid Pines, is posting upward of There was a false alarm soon ing conference months, looked after 3 o'clock when the Mar-radiantly happy and also very excellent condition for the tour-

> Her husband, a big good-lookthe weariness that might be ex

Speech By Rondthaler Prizes Awarded In Student Competition

For the first time since its founding a year ago, the Moore County Historical association held its monthly meeting in the courthouse at Carthage, thus establishing a precedent for the second of the tablishing a precedent for this anniversary meeting which, it

A gathering of well over a hundred included many students of the various schools of the county come to witness the prizegiving in the association's contest for historical articles and to hear Salem College.

The prizes were given by Mrs. Ernest Ives, secretary of the asgratulated the winners on the excellence of their writing as well as the amount of research which grade, Southern Pines; second, $7.50, "Union Church," by Viola

Fore, 10th grade, Cameron.
Elementary school division—
first prize, $7.50, "History of Pinehurst," by Ann Davis, eighth grade, Pinehurst; second, (Continued on Page 5)

Carolinas Open Draws Golf Stars To Local Course

By Howard F. Burns

standards of Highland Pines Inn Negro youth activities, with day), Saturday and Sunday is ex-Dawson in general supervision.

Under Dawson and Miss Todd,

Discontinuous Piece and Discontinuous Piece and Discontinuous Piece and Discontinuous Piece and Piece and

The change in dates was m summer, with the last weekend from Sunday, Mon-huilding as headquar-Men's Club building as headquar- day, Tuesday previously announced.

fend his crown.

Point; Marshall Crichton, Dur-Edwards, Winston-Salem.

touring the southern circuit, has want. accepted President Corcoran's special invitation to attend.

Good Amateurs Two top ranking amateurs are expected to give the pros a battle ing lack of equipment. for the crown. They are: Felice Torza, Connecticut open champion and medalist in the North and South and George T. Dunlap, former National Amateur chamyear, will not enter the tournaexcellent condition for the tournament.

II, will be in charge of the score be invited.

Southern Pines Picquet Cup

Three High School Groups Compete In Kiwanis Program

The Southern Pines High school's mixed chorus of 45 young voices sang themselves into winning the Picquet cup for the secwas generally expressed, might well be followed in the future. wide glee club contest held Wednesday under auspices of the Sandhills Kiwanis club.

They had stiff competition from two glee clubs of proven worth, the Aberdeen chorus,, which won a 2 rating in the speaker of the afternoon, Dr. its class in the state music con-Howard Rondthaler, president of test at Greensboro last week, after passing the district contest with flying colors and a rating of 1; and the Pinehurst High school sociation, in the absence of Glee club, which also scored well Saunders and the commissioners, tions, of wanting to keep the been run, no crusades have de-Struthers Burt, one of the judges, who was unable because of ill-ness to be present. Mrs. Ives configurations that the district contest and whose soloist, Frances Campbell, was a high ranking state contest entry. high ranking state contest entry.

The contest was held at Highland Pines Inn following the Ki-wanis club's luncheon meeting mayor. R. F. Stewart, mayor for realize that good government be-O'Callaghan and Commissioner each had made. Winners were:
High school division—first prize, $10, "History of Moore County," by Lewis W. Pate, 12th County, "But the past 10 years, has withdrawn from the race for any office.

The past 10 years, has withdrawn gins at home; that our town is from the race for any office.

Three commissioners will be it and that whether we vote for have been doing a lot of thinking and talking and t

Professor Rheuter, director of music at Flora McDonald college, Smith, Lamont Brown, Douglas are important and it is everyone's acted as judge, and the cup was David and Craig Pickler. presented by Mr. Picquet. A third successive victory will en-

The singing of all the groups was adjudged excellent, and much praise was given the three directors, Miss Hope Bailey, for Southern Pines; Mrs. D. O. Wooten, Aberdeen, and Paul V Peck, Pinehurst

Each group sang three songs

Southern Pines- "As Torrents Summer," from the cantata (Continued on Page 5)

For Signals But

dancing classes) and arts and secretary, expect the strongest town board, though work may be tion headquarters, the Carolina crafts, with Glen Rounds instruc-field ever to battle for the title, delayed on account of shortages Activities will be scheduled Lexington, 1941 National Ama- mation received this week by now held by Skip Alexander of of material, according to inforfrom 10 a. m. to noon, and from teur medalist and former Duke Howard Burns. town clerk, from superintendent at Raleigh.

Pros Strong However, Stone wrote, he Dugan Aycock, of Lexington, "very much doubts" that the citfor every youngster to do to fill chairman of the P. G. A. tourna- izens will like the plan as agreed ment committee, has announced on last month, since it provides the field of contenders this year for signals at four successive will include Clayton Haefner of Broad Street crossings (Vermont, thern Pines Country Club course, sponsored such a program. Last year's was considered highly sucyear's was considered highly sucBadin, and Orville White of Winand Pennsylvania). He advocates ston-Salem, all former title hold- instead that every other crossing ers; Al Smith Winston-Salem; be closed and said that he would Charles Farlow, Greensboro; come to Southern Pines within a Point; Marshall Crichton, Dur-ham; Dave Tinsley and James Maine and New York avenue in-son in Raleigh, Boyden in Salis-Orr, Charlotte; and Thurman tersections, at either end of the bury and Central in Charlotte. business district, are the only Bobby Locke, the South Afri- ones which are to be closed. This their coaches, who will meet for can champion, who has been plan, he says, is all right with the pairings at 11 a. m. Thurstended to Bobby Locke, the South the railroad if the board will as- day at the school, and play will African champion, who has been sure him it is still the one they take place Thursday and Friday

In any event, however, nothing can be done for several months, medal play. There will also be probably toward the end of the year, on account of the continu-

County YDC Rally To Be Held May 23

The Moore County Young Democrats are getting together Greenwich, Conn., runner-up last again-not for any purpose, in this off-political year, except felment this spring, going to Eng-land on the Walker Cup team. The occasion will be a

The occasion will be a banquet and rally, to be held at the Club Chalfonte in Pinehurst Friday, May 23. Capacity of the dining room is limiting to 125 the number which can be accommodated. Howard Dupont, of Pinehurst, Representatives from other counwho served in World Wars I and ties of the Eighth district are to host.

Plans were formed at an ex-The car went away, to return pected after the ordeal of Mosart 3:30 with the Secretary of State, Mrs. Marshall and their (Continued on Page 5)

Preceding the event was a promotion of the entrants, amateur match held Thursday, Hugh McCaskill of Pinehurst, Sale of tickets at $2.50 each is and McCaskill, Leland McKeithin charge of T. Clyde Auman of the Open were on hand. Preceding the event was a pro- Monday night, led by President other details.

VOTE IN SIX TOWNS TUESDAY Vass, Pinebluff, Aberdeen, Carthage, Robbins Will Elect

Five towns in the county besides Southern Pines are going through election throes, with things in general very calm as May 6 approaches.

Vass caucus was scheduled for Monday night, but only three panes with other places, but for people showed up besides a few a town at boasts a citizenry as town officials. They just deci-educated as ours, and as generded to skip it and it looks as ally interested in local affairs, though Mayor H. A. Borst and it seems a pretty poor showing. Commissioners S. R. Smith, A. M. Cameron and H. C. Callahan was still going on. People's minds will go right back into office were elsewhere and the affairs whether they want to or not.

There are no new nominees at Robbins, either, making reelection a sure thing for Mayor W. P. E. M. Ritter, E. F. Laudermilk, F. H. Upchurch, T. R. Monroe and Dr. W. N. McDuffy.

At Pinebluff, David Packard elected from the following: Lu- the same crowd or try to put in and talking about getting new ther Tyner, George Moger, James some others, the town elections men on the board.

are reported "getting warm" as caucus Friday night, and the elecelection day nears, and a stiff contest is predicted between E. J. Burns, incumbent, and W. D. Sabiston for mayor. Five commissioners will be chosen from among the following: W. M. (Bill) Carter, H. F. Seawell, Jr., Tony Gilchrist, D. A. McDonald, L. A. (Lune) Lawhorn. D. Carl Fry.

is centering on the race for com- fellow take the responsibility of my one term on the board. missioner. Five are to be named. action. It is a confession of weak-Running are J. B. Edwards, E. ness in our people, but it is a form of community service, to re-fact that many actually prefer turn in some measure what he Pleasants, W. H. McNeill, Jr., J. not to vote in a local election so receives from a town, and if this L. Blount, A. J. Smith, Dr. E. that they won't feel uncomfor- is what the people want me to M. Medlin, Ralph Leach, Jr.

Entries From 14 NC High Schools In Tourney Here

Fourteen schools are entering teams of four in the North Carolina High School Golf tournament, which fill take place next Thursday and Friday on the Sou-

Teams have been entered from the Greensboro, Durham, Sanford, High Point, Badin, Clarence Owen, Martinsville, Va.: few days to discuss the matter Mount Airy, Goldsboro, Reids-Al Gering and Boyd Jaeger, High with the board.

They will be accompanied by afternoons. Eighteen holes will be played each day, for 36-hole individual play for the state championship. Tommy Grey, Eugene Maples,

Robert McLeod and either Bert Perham or Robert McClellan will compose the Southern Pines team, of which A. C. Dawson is coach. Some fine play is anticipated from the youngsters, who may notice. A few girls may be included in the teams. The tournament, held annually

lina High School Athletic assoc-ed to a program committee to seecutive committee meeting held cure a speaker and attend to

Your Ballot Is Important!

TOWN CAUCUS HERE TONIGHT,

Last election only 80 people voted in Southern Pines; 80 out of a possible 480.

a town at boasts a citizenry as

Last time, of course, the war rise to sunset Tuesday. were elsewhere and the affairs ers are to be elected for a twoeven of their home town seemed year terms relatively unimportant. same good team in there playing veloped, and no reformers have till things were more certain. That feeling is gone now and many are wondering if something peared who is even willing to tably responsible when things do, I'll do the best I can." are not satisfactory. "At least," Veteran board members they congratulate themselves, Stevens and Patch, and newer "We had nothing to do with electing that prize bungler," and they useful because he's a civil en-heart's content.

enough to try some counter take on. No, thanks!" measure. In the end it is just easier to stay home and let things take their course. All cit- around 15 years and O'Callaghan izens suffering from such civic is leaving town government after danger. That is nonsense, but it stop voting in town elections. The ity. abdication by the citizen of his civic responsibilities is the greatest danger there is to democracy.

Prospects For Municipal Leaders Stir Discussion

A good turnout of citizens is expected at the town caucus at 8 tonight (Friday), for nominations for mayor and town commissioners preliminary to the Tuesday election. The caucus will be held at the schoolbuilding, led by Mayor O'Callaghan until a chairman can be elected. Voting will be held at the city office from sun-

A mayor and five commission-was perhaps also the feeling, and general satisfaction express-With no hot issues in the wind, evidenced in the national elec- ed with the way the town has appeared. In fact, almost no one has ap-

For mayor, it is generally con-Carthage and Aberdeen held believe this feeling is general and ceded that experience on the caucus some weeks ago, produc- there is no doubt of the increase board is a desirable prerequisite. title the winner to retain it as ing a good many nominees, in interest in the election this With at least two of the present permanent possession; otherwise, though some have since within the present though some have since within the permanent possession; otherwise, though some have since within the permanent possession; otherwise, though some have since within the present though some have since within the present commissioners, Gene Stevens and ever: will the people really followers. At Carthage, things political low through and come to the that they won't have the job, talk election day nears, and a stiff tion that follows next Tuesday? around to Chan Page, and at pres-

(June) Lawhorn, D. Carl Fry, attend a town caucus? It isn't alwilton H. Brown and H. J. Hall. together because the movies are to fill Mayor Cal's shoes. If he W th just one nominee, Mayor more fun; part of it, we submit, is a sort of shyness about messing the next he's already held for two learned a let the post he's already held for two in things. It is so much pleasant-terms, the contest at Aberdeen er to sit back and let the other just from working with him in the state of the state o

"Everyone should give some can sit back and criticize to their gineer ,and the board almost has to have one-have said that if like to take sides against a they're elected to the board Other potential voters don't again they will serve. But friend, and, in a small town like Stevens, explaining his refusal ours, we are all friends. Others even to entertain the idea of befeel, and with a good deal of ing mayor, said, "The job has neason, that the meetings are run changed a lot in the past few by a few people who generally years as the town has grown. It's have their slate pretty well de- a full-time job now. Few people cided and are inclined to take appreciate how much time it charge and steam-roller it takes just to look after the housethrough. They don't like these keeping details, not to mention tactics, yet few are rugged all the extra chores a mayor must

Young Men Wanted He and Patch have each served aenemia had better think twice. 20 years as commissioner and We hear a lot about communism mayor. All the members are proand democracy these days. A lot moting the idea of new young of people are acting pretty scared blood on the board-veterans or as if democracy was really in other young men with fresh ideas, who represent the coming won't be nonsense if Americans business element of the commun-Of non-board members, John Ruggles and Sam B. Richardson,

(Continued on Page 5)

Citizens Ponder Postmaster Problem As Precinctmen Meet and Adjourn

There are hats in the ring for Indicating a strong desire to the Southern Pines postmaster-know who's wanted locally, he's Whether the owners them in, or their friends did for under auspices of the North Caro- them, is immaterial. An appointment is to be made, the precinct in Rockingham last week, asked iation, has been at High Point committee must make a recom- for, and got, an interview with for the past few years. This is mendation to the county Demo- John Ruggles, precinct commit-Southern Pines' first time to play cratic committee, the county com- tiee chairman, to ask for action mittee must recommend to Con- and to pass on a few facts. gressman C. B. Deane—and Deane will do as he pleases.

And these, it seems, are tending to crystallize the committee's is a favorite topic for talk up and ommending an acting postmaster down Broad street.

As for Deane, he's evidently ganization. willing to let bygones be bygones.

ship-including an overseas cap let it be known that will be his make their elders sit up and take and perhaps even a woman's bon- guide-which throws the ball right back to the precinct com-Chat With Deane

It is learned that Deane, home

ing to crystallize the committee's And what any of them will do growing sentiment toward recfrom within the post office or-

(Continued on Page 8)