Army Recruiting
For 6th Division
Serving In Korea

Jutting southward from Manchuria for almost 600 miles is the mountainous peninsular of Korea. Through the center extends a lofty range, falling in the east to the steep and rock-bound coast, and descending in the west to a series of low and shelving mud banks. Heavily timbered lands in the north give way to southern hills covered with scrub oak and chestnut, and coarse, sour-grass. Shallow, rocky rivers with limited navigable possibilities corrugate the seashore.

This is the rugged country now occupied by the Sixth Infantry Division (readily recognized by the six-pointed, red star shoulder patch).

In Korea, the soldiers of the Red Star division again have the opportunity to broaden their education through travel in a far-eastern land as well as the opportunity to enjoy a vigorous outdoor life. Hunting and fishing highlight the varied activities of the sportsman soldier during his off-duty hours.

Korea, a country with 3,000 years of history behind it, provides for sightseers ancient architectural structures — palaces and cities guarded by great walls, pagodas and parks, and temples of characteristic Korean workmanship—and peculiar and interesting customs, and dress surviving the modifying powers of centuries.

The ancient and venerable land of Korea beckons with mysterious nod to the adventurous young man of the West who is willing to meet the challenge of rugged service in a rugged country. Enlistments are now being accepted for direct assignment to the 6th Infantry division in Korea. Qualified young men will find the opportunity for travel, education and service worthy of serious consideration.

Crowds Gathered For Holiday At Carthage

members mopped the deck and tossed out copies of The Pilot (latest issue) as the lookout cried greetings from his crow's-nest to the crowds.

The vessel was manned by Lewis Pate, Nathan Adams, Dickie Ray, Johnny Ray, Kenneth Eppes, Jean Adams, Nancy Boyd, Jim Boyd, Dan and Rhoda Boyd, Valerie Nicholson, Daniela Frassinetti, Dale Cowgill and The Pilot.

Legion Float

Directly behind came another Southern Pines float, the inviting offering of the Sandhills post, American Legion, in which beautiful bathing girls made a picture of relaxation about a beach table, sipping soft drinks in the shade of long leaf pines. The youthful belles were Janet Menzel, Louise Milliken, Rebecca McCue, Peggy Phillips, Amelia Willcox, Elaine Johnson, Mary Johns Cameron, Carol Sue Humphrey and Dolores Merrill.

Beauty Queen Sylvia Cromer, with her silver crown, and contest runners-up rode in royal state on a glittering rose- and gold float provided by the Carthage Jaycees. Among other floats were those of the City of Sanford, Robbins Cloth Mill, Carthage chapter of the American Legion auxiliary, Smothers Brothers, Littleton and Carter Brothers, and the Carthage Fire department, on which more beauties were displayed.

Wins Dodge Car

Wilbur McLeod, Carthage electrician, was the envied winner of the new Dodge car, in the drawing of tickets held late in the afternoon.

Sandwich-and-soft drink stands around the courthouse did a land office business during the lunch hour. One sponsored by the WMS of the Carthage Baptist church was later reported to have cleared more than $300, and the Carthage Junior Woman's club around $175.

It was estimated that more than 3,000 were present for the celebration, for which summer provided one of her choicest sunlit days.

The Jaycees, sponsors of the annual event, held a celebration of their own that evening, with a banquet at the Carthage hotel at which their wives and others were guests. Speakers were Ed Ellis of Charlotte, state Junior Chamber of Commerce president, and O. D. Walker, vice president.

Letter of Thanks

And The Pilot this week is the proud recipient of a letter from Dan Roberts, corresponding secretary of the Jaycee organization and also chairman of floats for the July 4 event:
The Pilot
Southern Pines, N. C.

Dear Editor:
On behalf of the Carthage Jaycees I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the splendid cooperation we received from you in our recent celebration. Your most original float has caused no end of praise and favorable comment and was a tremendous addition to our parade.

Hoping for long and continuous cooperation between you and ourselves, I remain
Daniel M. Roberts,
Corresponding Secretary.

county roads were recommended.

Petitions Presented
Two of these were made on petition of residents served by these roads. These were the road from the Seaboard Air Line railway at Pinebluff, near the old Pinebluff station, to a point on Highway 15 near the Caldwell peach orchard, between Aberdeen and Laurinburg; and the Carthage-Pinehurst road from Highway 15 at Brenner's residence, going into Sunset Drive, one and one-tenth miles toward West End from Carthage.

The third section recommended for state maintenance was the road from Dover church on the old Pee Dee road to Highway 705 near Jordan's Service station, going thence about three miles toward Steeds.

A special meeting will be held by the board next Monday for the drawing of jurors' names for superior court.

Airport Problems

Chairman Cameron and Commissioner Thad Blue also met as a special committee Tuesday afternoon, to confer with Joe Norwood, of Wilmington, state CAA administrator, over CAA rules and regulations in connection with the operation of the county airport.

EARLIER CLOSING

The Tog Shop, Patch's Department store and the Midland Dress shop will begin this week closing at 7 p. m. Saturdays instead of 7 p. m., according to announcement from these business firms.

NEW BUSINESSES

Here is a welcome to several new businesses opening in the community—sure signs of growth and of faith in the future of the town.

We salute this week the Village Grill, George Buttry's new restaurant; the Moore Supply company, selling coal feeds and feeds, which will have its formal opening Saturday morning; the Jewel Box, milk and ice cream bar, opening next week; and Garvin's Grocery store in our neighbor town of Manly.

This is a summertime crop, proving again that Southern Pines is a year-round community. We wish them all, and others to come, long life and prosperity.

POLIO

Diagnosis of infantile paralysis was made Wednesday night in the case of Patricia Dupas, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dupree of North Ashe street.

The little girl was taken at once to Duke hospital from Moore County hospital, where she had been taken when she became ill.

This is the second case of infantile paralysis in Moore county for the year, according to Dr. J. A. Willcox, county health officer, and represents normal incidence of the disease without cause for epidemic alarm. The first case, that of Herbert McLaughlin, Negro child of Eastwood was reported in April. Herbert is now a patient at the Orthopedic hospital at Gastonia.

Fewer cases have developed this year than were actually expected, said Dr. Willcox, emphasizing, however, the need for care on the part of all parents, who should familiarize themselves with the early symptoms and call a physician at once for diagnosis if polio is suspected.

Carthage post; and Adjutant C. S. Patch, Jr., who introduced Mayor C. N. Page.

Speaking briefly in praise of the team and the Junior Legion project, Mayor Page presented sterling silver baseballs to the players in behalf of the Sandhills post.

Those receiving baseballs were Jim McCall, Richard Newton, Gary Mattocks, Jimmy Dickerson and Gene Poe, scorekeeper, all of Southern Pines; Dallas Gibson, Gerald Cheek, Richard Cheek and Junior Hinson, West End; Chuck Alexander, Tommy Stewart, Blue McDonald, Carthage; Jackson Smith, Francis Pleasants, Aberdeen; Bobby Culler, Manly.

Baseballs will be sent to Billy Baker and Bill Blue, who were unable to be present.

The banquet climaxed a season which was concluded with two games during the past week, one here with Troy July 4, in which the Moore County team was defeated 10-4, and a makeup game Saturday with Asheboro, reported to be a good game well played, with final score 7-5 in favor of Asheboro.
