Sunday School Pinnic

The Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a delightful outing at Aberdeen lake Wednesday afternoon of last week. Many of the children had a good time at the nearby playground and older boys and girls swam or waded in the lake. One little fellow sat down in a mud hole and got up with pants that were white in front and black in the back, but he was soon more comfortably fixed in a pair of bathing trunks that were o. k., even if they did belong to a much larger person. The supper, served picnic style, was something to talk about for weeks to come: real homemade cakes, country ham, fried chicken, yummy yum!

Early Bird

Bill Hall, a farmer who lives up the Union Road way, is in line for catching "the worm" or some other choice morsel. On Monday of this week, before most other farmers had started "priming" tobacco, he was putting in his second barn, the first having been barned last week. By the latter part of this week curing will be getting into swing throughout this section. Both tobacco and corn are looking fine, although some damage was done by wind and hail Monday afternoon.
