

Society and Personals of the Sandhills

JACKIE WURZBACHER, EDITOR

PHONE 7271 OR 5262

Circle To Meet

The Business Woman's Circle of the First Baptist church will meet with Mrs. C. R. Mills in Pinedene next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Thistle Club

Nine tables were in play at the dessert bridge of the Thistle club held Wednesday afternoon at the Civic club. Mrs. H. L. Grover won the high score prize and Mrs. H. E. Thrower the second.

Auxiliary To Meet Tuesday Evening

The American Legion auxiliary will hold its regular meeting at the legion hut on Maine avenue next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Plans for the Americanism program will be announced and the date of the poppy sale will be fixed.

Holiday Visitors Feted With Dance

Miss Anne Buckley, of Bogota, N. J., and other holiday visitors in town were honor guests at an informal dance for the high school set at the Community Center last Tuesday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson.

Pine Cone Lodge

Holiday guests at Pine Cone Lodge included: Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bannerman, of Wilmington; Mr. Julian T. Trenholm and his sons, John and Winthrop, of New York City; Dr. William A. Yeager, of the University of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Yeager and their son Kenneth; Miss Bertha K. McCarthy, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Maybelle M. Holman, of Phoenixville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Newton D. Holbrook and their daughters, Clara, Julia and Natalie, of Alexandria, Va.

New Arrivals At The Pine Needles

Honeymooning at the Pine Needles are Mr. and Mrs. William Edward York, of Durham, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Daught-ridge of Charlotte. Other arrivals include: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hastings, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. DeBardelaben, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kelly, of Durham; Cdr. and Mrs. E. S. Tharpe, of Moultrie, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Hudson D. Dravo, of Kennett Square, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Pearce, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Jacob, of West Redding, Conn.; C. D. Garland, of Roanoke, Va.; J. J. McIntyre, of Hollins, Va.; Mrs. A. Duer Irving, of Greenville, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lawrence, of Montclair, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Haggerty, of Summit, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. LaFarge, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Chinlund, of New York City.

DAR Chapter Will Meet At Aberdeen

The Alfred Moore chapter, daughters of the American Revolution, will meet Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson at her home in Aberdeen. Col. Frank Thompson will speak on "Robert Burns." Visiting daughters are given a special invitation to attend, according to Mrs. P. P. McCain, secretary of the chapter. Anyone desiring transportation from Southern Pines can phone Mrs. McCain at 5034 or Mrs. John Cline at 81.

Rev. Mr. Humphries Is Guest Speaker

Rev. Tucker G. Humphries of the Church of Wide Fellowship was the third guest speaker of the winter program of St. Anne's Guild of Emmanuel Episcopal church, comprising the study of other denominations. After a short business session, Mr. Humphries was presented and explained practices and doctrines of the Congregational church, citing a few of his personal experiences. A discussion of questions and answers followed the talk.

Party For Recent Bride In Aberdeen

Honoring Mrs. Charles Scott Russell, of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, a recent bride, Mrs. S. E. Sloan and her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Smith, entertained informally last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Smith in Aberdeen. Guests were welcomed by the honoree, Mrs. Leonard Russell, Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Smith into the living room which was dressed for the holidays in evergreens and red candles.

Party For Recent Bride In Aberdeen

A color note of green and white was observed in the dining room. A lace cloth covered the table which was centered with a crystal bowl filled with white chrysanthemums and fern. Crystal candelabra holding white candles completed the arrangement. Russian tea, cake, nuts and mints were served to some 75 friends by Mrs. M. J. Muse, Mrs. John Solan, Mrs. Mack Wallace and Miss Jo Wallace. Mrs. J. A. Lawrence presided at the guest register.

New Year's Joyous For Lodge Guests

"A wonderful time was had by all," agreed the guests at Magnolia Lodge on the afternoon and evening of New Year's Day. At 5:30 in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Kernan, of Clinton, N. Y., entertained at a cocktail party in honor of Michael J. Kernan, Jr., a junior at Harvard who spent the holidays here with his parents. After a bounteous dinner, Mrs. Sallie Sharp Messick, director of the Sharp School of Speech and Drama, of Seaford, Del., presented a varied program of music, song, story and folklore which discovered a surprising amount of talent at the lodge.

Parties End Holiday Whirl

The Merry Christmas and Happy New Year season is over for another year. There were, however, many parties last week to wind up the gay holiday whirl. New Year's Eve saw celebrations everywhere with private parties and several dances. The dance held by the Wiley G. Colmer post, VFW, at the high school gymnasium in Carthage attracted many from here who were in the dancing mood, as did the gala New Year's Eve balls held at the Pinehurst Country club and the Officers' club at Fort Bragg. The Teen Age welcomed the New Year in with a dance at the Civic club. About 75 members enjoyed dancing and visiting at each other's homes during the course of the evening.

tained friends at a buffet supper and egg nog party at their home on East Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. John Howarth and Mrs. Roy Grinnell were hostesses at a cocktail party at the home of the Grinnells to 80 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hoskin were host and hostess to friends at a theater party and a buffet supper at their home following the show.

Also hosts at a theater party and supper were the Rev. and Mrs. Tucker G. Humphries.

The party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Atkinson, Jr. was in the form of a covered dinner, with every couple bringing something to contribute to the table. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cox, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Traylor, Mr. and Mrs. Al Chiswell and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henderson who came later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney N. Ever entertained at cocktails for a small group of friends New Year's Day.

Saturday afternoon friends enjoyed a delightful get-together at the home of Col. and Mrs. Severn Wallis who were hosts at a cocktail party.

IN BRIEF

Capt. and Mrs. Lyle W. Mulcher, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rice and daughter, Fay, of Contoocook, N. H., spent the holidays with their aunt and cousin Mrs. Alice Adams and Albert Adams, Jr., at Magnolia Lodge.

Mrs. Sallie Mesick, of Seaford, Del., has returned to her home after visiting at Magnolia Lodge for a week.

Miss Winifred Khuns, who has been a guest at Magnolia Lodge, has returned to her duties at Peace college in Raleigh.

Dr. Elinor Marks and Dr. Louisa Van Dyke, faculty members at Flora Macdonald college, are back at school after their visit at Magnolia Lodge.

M/Sgt. and Mrs. M. L. Shore, Jr., of Highland road, left Tuesday morning for a visit in Orlando, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue, Jr., spent Wednesday and Thursday in Greensboro.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil P. Clark at Wendover included Mr. and Mrs. Clement V. Wrenn, of Durham and Miss Nancy Wrenn, who is employed in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter and Miss Elizabeth St. Clair, of Jacksonville, Miss., visited Mrs. R. P. Brown during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Brown spent part of the holidays in Norfolk Va., visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brown, and saw for the first time their granddaughter, Robin Patricia.

Miss Madeline O'Connor, of Greensboro, spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Fitzgerald spent the holidays with Mr. Fitzgerald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fitzgerald in Altavista, Va.

L. E. Grover, who has been critically ill since the week before Christmas, is home from the Moore County hospital and is reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kennedy, of Harrisburg, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, of Portsmouth, Va., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Richardson and Miss Mary Richardson.

Also visiting the Johnsons here last week were Mrs. Raymond and her daughter Jean, of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McAllister spent New Year's Day in Charlotte.

Miss Agnes Anne Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Buckley, formerly of Southern Pines, returned Saturday to her home in Bogota, N. J., after a visit of eight days with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson on West Broad street.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy E. Walsh, of Providence, R. I., spent last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Birch.

Lt. and Mrs. R. N. Maybin and their son, Richard were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue. Lieutenant Maybin returned to Shaw Field, Sumter, S. C., where he is stationed, but Mrs. Maybin and Richard will remain for a longer visit.

Paul Finch has returned to the University of North Carolina after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Howlett.

MISS PERKINSON AND MR. PERHAM WED SATURDAY AT BENNETTS LE

MRS. BERTON PERHAM

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vaughn Perkinson, of East Pennsylvania avenue, this week announced their marriage of their daughter, Anne Reed, to Burton Quinby Perham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Perham, of Southern Pines and Portland, Me.

The ceremony took place Saturday afternoon at 3:30 in the First Baptist church of Bennettsville, S. C., with the pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnas, officiating. The church organist played "Ave Maria," "Because" and other traditional wedding music. Members of the immediate families were present.

The bride wore a grey suit with black accessories. She was attended by Mrs. Glynn Bohlander, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, and Glynn Bohlander was his brother-in-law's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Perham were members of the June, 1947, graduating class at the Southern Pines High school, to which the groom had returned for a period spent in the art service. Both were prominent in school activities.

The groom was active athletics and was a member of the 1947 varsity basketball baseball teams. Last summer was a player on the townseball team.

During the past semer Mrs. Perham was a freshman Agnes Scott college, Decatur, Ga., and Mr. Perham at the Unisity of North Carolina. He has returned to the univrsi where his bride expects to n him shortly.

Mrs. Perham, only ch of her parents, is a native of uthern Pines. The groom was in Woodstock, Me., and ed his parents here a year ago following his discharge from thservice. He entered the army airce in 1945, served in this cory and in the European theatof war, and received his disrge in January, 1947.

MISS PAGE, MR. PETERSEN ARE WED AT PAGE MEMORIAL CHURCH, ABEDEEN

MR. AND MRS. PETERSEN

Miss Mary Allison Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Page, and James Harry Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Petersen of Great Neck, N. Y., were married at 8:30 Monday evening, December 29, in a ceremony performed in Page Memorial Methodist church by Rev. T. J. Whitehead, pastor of the bride.

Mrs. John M. Storey, organist, presented a program of nuptial music including Schubert's "Serenade," "Ave Maria," Bach-Gounod, and "Romance" by Rubinstein. Mrs. Ralph Reed of Winston-Salem sang "I Love Thee," "O Perfect Love" was played as the vows were spoken and sung by Mrs. Reed at the close of the ceremony as the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used. The candles were lit by Russell Batchelor, and Thomas Gardner, of Chattanooga, Tenn. Woodwardis fern treessouthern smilax and palm ferns rmed the altar background, in front of which were placed staling baskets of white gladiol graced with plumosa fern. Sevi-branched candelabra holding all white candles stood around the altar. The altar rail was bankd in plumosa fern.

The bride entered te church with her father and us met at the altar by the groom who was attended by John Saunders of Great Neck, N. Y., as best man. The bride's wedding awn was white duchess satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice. The full skirt ended in a long train and her veil of illusion fell the length of the train from a tiara of pearl orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of sweet-heart roses made into a cascade effect, backed with miniature English ivy and centered with a white orchid.

Miss Jeanne Batchelor, maid-of-honor, and Miss Marian Doub and Miss Lucile Hilliard, bridesmaids, wore identical off-shoulder dresses of American Beauty taffet, with matching elbow-length mitts. They carried cascade bouquets of white gladioli florettes and English ivy, tied with showers of white satin ribbon. They wore white gladioli florettes in their hair.

Little Miss Helen Prince of Laurinburg, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a long dress of white imported organdy made with a tiny off-shoulder ruffle. She carried a cascade of Better Times roses fashioned after the bride's bouquet, with matching rosebuds in her hair.

The ushers were Robert Petersen, brother of the groom, Russell Batchelor and Forrest Lockey of Aberdeen, Thomas Gardner of Chattanooga, Tenn., Calvert Melton of Swarthmore, Pa., and Christian Cramer of Great Neck, N. Y.

The bride's mother wore a black and shell-pink crepe bolero evening suit with a corsage of green orchids. The groom's mother was attired in an evening gown of green crepe with a green orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was given by Mrs. Henry A. Page, Jr., at her home for the wedding party and members of the family. Lovely arrangements of orchids and white carnations were placed in the hall and dining room. Misses Page and Pat Blackmore of Aberdeen and Miss Leslie Prince of Laurinburg assisted in serving wedding cake, nuts, cookies and sandwiches.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Petersen left for a northern wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Petersen wore a suit of natural color with matching coat and hat trimmed in beaver, and alligator accessories.

Mrs. Petersen is the granddaughter of Mrs. Henry A. Page, Sr., and the late Mr. Page, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. D. M. Prince and the late Dr. Prince of Laurinburg. She attended Salem college in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Petersen is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Petersen of New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Horan of Sheepshead Bay, N. Y. He is now a student in the department of hotel administration at Cornell university and is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Petersen will be at home in Ithaca, N. Y.

Sunday evening following the rehearsal, the parents of the bride entertained the wedding party at a buffet supper. The bride has been the recipient of many parties, having been entertained by Mrs. C. W. Hogan, Miss Lucile Hilliard and Mrs. W. A. Benson, Miss Jeanne Batchelor and Mr. Russell Batchelor, Mrs. D. M. Prince, Miss Page Shamburger, Mrs. H. W. Doub and Miss Marian Doub.

Miss Arnette Avery has returned to Charlotte after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Avery. Miss Avery is a student at Queens college and makes her home with her aunt, Mrs. Charles W. Tillett and Mr. Tillett, of Charlotte.

Loafers The Most Popular Casual Shoe for Men Several Styles Including Hand Sewn $8.50 to $10.00 TOG SHOP W. Broad St. Southern Pines

1904 1948 January DRUGAIDS To Protect Your Health Cold Remedies Antiseptics Laxatives Heating Pads Vitamins Surgical Supplies Hygienic Preparations Prescriptions Filled by Experienced Registered Pharmacist We Are Open All Day SUNDAY, JANUARY 11th Broad Street Pharmacy