Ten 4-H Members Planting 22,000 Trees In Vacation

Nine more County 4-H boys and one 4-H girl are using their Christmas vacations to plant a total of 22,000 pine seedlings on their home farms.
 W. G. Caldwell, assistant county farm agent in charge of boys' 4-H work, said the trees are being provided free of charge by a pulpwood company. The young people are doing the tree-planting job themselves.
 The one young lady on the project is Marian Parsons, of Jackson Springs, who is planting 1,000 trees. The boys, and the number of their trees, are: Watts Auman, West End, 5,000; Billy Jackson, West End, 1,000; Harold Lee Grison, Carthage, Rt. 3, 3,000; Marshall F. Ragsdale, Carthage, Rt. 3, 1,000; Robert Lee Holder, Carthage, 5,000; Paul Golden Priest, Carthage, 2,000; Bill Upchurch, Highfalls, 1,000; Clinton Comer, Steeds, 2,000; Daniel Britt, Star, Rt. 1, 1,000.

Teams Meet Sunday In Sandpiper Finals

The team of W. L. Batchelor and Howard F. Burns will meet that of Barrett Harris and Joe Montesanti, Jr., on the Pine Needles golf course Sunday, in the finals of the Sandpiper best-of-pair tournament which has been under way for several weeks.

 Sixteen teams started and 14 have been gradually eliminated. Several matches have had to be played over on account of ties, and one or two have also run very long, maintaining the suspense. Good weather has prevailed during most of the tournament.
