Promoted

News has been received here of the promotion of Capt. P. B. Irby, Jr., to the rank of major. He is with the 18th Infantry, 1st Division, American Occupation Forces in Germany. Major Irby, his wife, the former Marian Cameron of Vass, and their two children, Susan and P. B. III (Chip), have been in Germany a little more than a year.

Mission Study

"The Christian's Vocation" was the topic of a mission study held at the Vass Methodist church Sunday night by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, with Mrs. C. L. Tyson, superintendent of missionary education, in charge.

Reviewing chapters were Mrs. G. E. Griffin, Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. Tyson. Scripture readings were given by Mrs. T. F. Cameron, Mrs. Redga Thomas and Mrs. Jasper Blevins, and Mrs. W. H. Frye led in prayer.

Bazaar and Supper

The Vass Woman's club invites the public to attend its pre-Christmas bazaar and turkey dinner to be held Saturday, December 9, at the town hall. The bazaar will open at 2 p. m. and supper will be served from 5 to 8. Proceeds will swell the community house building fund.

Woman's Club

The Vass Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. B. Graham at 7:30 o'clock tonight (Friday), with Mrs. Graham, Mrs. W. A. Muse and Mrs. A. V. Aultrey as hostesses. The citizenship department will present a program with Mrs. S. R. Smith as leader. An exchange of Christmas gifts will be a feature of the meeting.

Future Homemakers Meet

"Triple C Week" (cleanliness, courtesy and cooperation) was the subject of a program presented by Joanne Chappell, Betty McIntosh and Carolyn Griffin at the November meeting of the Vass-Lakeview chapter of Future Homemakers of America, held in the home economics department.

The group wrote letters to a class in Italy which the Chapter has adopted, munching refreshments of peanuts as they wrote. Katrina McRae read minutes of the preceding meeting, and Rachel Frye, Peggy Willard and Kathryn Blevins were appointed to plan a program for the December meeting.

In closing, the girls repeated the creed and sang Christmas songs.

Celebrates Birthday

Miss Polly Gilmore celebrated her 17th birthday recently by entertaining several friends at her home. They played games and enjoyed refreshments of cookies, soft drinks and candy. Helping her celebrate were Lucille Lassiter, Edith Kimball, Joyce Scott, Marie Gilmore, Edgar Klingschmidt, George Blue, Jr., and Jimmy Gilmore.

Back At School

C. A. McLaughlin was able to resume his teaching at Vass-Lakeview high school on Thursday of last week after being out for several days because of illness.

Church Services

Next Sunday's schedule of services: Morning worship, Presbyterian church; evening services, Baptist and Methodist, 7:30 o'clock.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hill of Laurinburg have announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty Faye, to Joseph Lincoln Causey, son of Mrs. Martha Causey of Southern Pines and Aberdeen. Lincoln and his mother formerly lived in Vass.
