

ary Agnes Wall, Teen-Age Champ, Grows Up To Win On Florida Circuit

Michigan State Title Winner On Mid Pines Staff

The latest addition to the Mid Pines Club stable of feminine runners ran herself out of competition when she took up the game. Mary Agnes Wall, a trim and active young lady from Menominee, Mich., won her first tournament at the age of 14. That was the Menominee Country Club, which she won for three consecutive years, thus retiring trophy.

"That ended the tournament," remarked Mary Agnes, chuckling at the memory. "Well, it was again later when my father put up another cup. Actually, the rest in women's golf sort of red out there about that."

Miss Wall recalled that her first championship was a rather modest triumph. There were only eight competitors, five of whom had been distinguishing between a curling iron and a curling iron. When her club triumph, she went on into wider golfing circles. In 1940 she started playing winter circuit in Florida and became a familiar figure on the Florida Belt. However, it wasn't until last winter that the Menominee girl broke through to pick her first Florida champion—the South Atlantic at Orlando Beach. She will defend next year.

At Mary Agnes was a regular threat on the Florida circuit. She was twice runner-up at Orlando and twice runner-up at St. Augustine. She also was runner-up twice in the Western Amateur, an event that ranks in importance second only to the USGA Amateur. She lost in the finals to Lucille Robinson Mann in 1941, and to Dot Germaine Porter in the 1942 final.

Miss Wall was twice winner of the Michigan State championship, in 1949 and 1948. She didn't defend her title last year.

Mary Agnes this year joined the clerical staff at Mid Pines which includes little Mae Murray, runner-up in both the Western and USGA events last summer, and Pat O'Sullivan, holder of the North and South women's championship. At that popular golf resort, the Michigan girl finds ample time to tune up her game for her next Florida invasion.

She will be joined at Mid Pines this weekend by her golfing sidekick, Carol Diring of Tiffin, O. After a few days practice together, the pair will head for Hollywood, Fla., to team up in the Hollywood Fourball tournament. Incidentally, Miss Murray and Miss O'Sullivan will form another team in this event, as well as in the Doherty tournament at Miami the week before.

With pro Jules Boros on the PGA winter tour and the three girls shooting for more trophies in Florida, Mid Pines will have entries running on all the major tracks this month.

"Skipper" Shearon Will Open Cleaning Business In New Building On W. Penn.

Work started this week on a business building for Southern Pines, a Williamsburg-type structure on East Pennsylvania Avenue which will house a cleaning and pressing concern.

The owner and manager will be Elmer "Skipper" Shearon. He said the week that modern equipment for the business, including vacuum (noiseless) pressing equipment of the latest type, is on order and that all should be ready to go into operation by the end of February or early in March.

Mr. Shearon resigned as of January 1 from the Stevens Realty Insurance company, with which he had been connected since January, 1949, in order to care for the big step of going into business for himself in Southern Pines.

terior facing of old brick, with large windows made up of small panes in the Williamsburg style.

Mr. Shearon came here following his graduation from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, in December 1948. He was married in June 1948 to Miss Elizabeth Padgett, who was at that time librarian at the Southern Pines school, and is now a member of the elementary school faculty.

His family formerly lived near Wake Forest, though now residing at Fuquay Springs, and he is a graduate of the Wake Forest High school. During World War 2 he served for three years as a radio-operator gunner on a B-17, flying missions out of England where he was attached to the Eighth Air Force.
