

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor TELEPHONE 6512

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Circle 1 met with Mrs. C. C. McLean at the home of Mrs. J. I. Neal with 14 members and four visitors present: Mrs. Neal, Mrs. Joe Thomas, Mrs. Agnes Canaday and Mrs. W. C. Bowen. The Bible study from John 17 was presented by Mrs. Haynes Britt and the Survey article "Our God Is Marching On" by Mrs. N. E. Gilliland.

No. 2 was entertained by Mrs. A. H. Grant with 11 members and three visitors present: Mrs. I. W. Travell, a Presbyterian from Ridgewood, N. J., Mrs. S. C. Beal and Miss Catherine Bugbee. Mrs. James Pleasants conducted the Bible Study and Mrs. J. C. Parks, the Survey. Mrs. Beal is Mrs. Parks' mother.

No. 3 met with Mrs. Johnnie Hall, with the co-chairman, Mrs. Wayland W. Blue, presiding in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Charles Meares. There were 13 members present, and six visitors: Mrs. Nettie Leinkram, Mrs. Earl Clark, Mrs. Monte Grimes, Mrs. Billy Blue, Jr., little Dianne Grimes and Bobbie Hall. The Bible study was presented by Mrs. R. P. Brown and the Survey by Miss Nancy Long.

No. 4's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Dan McNeill with 14 members and four visitors present: Mrs. Joe Thomas, Mrs. L. L. Woolley, Mrs. Walter Harper and Mrs. Arthur W. McNeill. The Bible study was conducted by Mrs. George Heinitsch. Co-hostess was Miss Lessie McNeill.

No. 5 was entertained by Mrs. Harold Collins with 10 members, including one new member: Mrs. W. H. Kirch and one visitor, Mrs. Joe Thomas, present. Mrs. Agnes Canaday presented the Bible study and Mrs. C. L. White, the Survey. This meeting was held Tuesday morning, Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Tuesday afternoon, and No. 4 on Monday night. Total attendance thus far for January stands at 80, with No. 6 to meet this week (Thursday night) with Mrs. Robert Thomas, as announced.

Mrs. House Reviews Book For Civic Club

The Southern Pines Civic club held a business meeting at 3 p. m. Monday, with Miss Charlotte Cunningham, first vice president, presiding. Reports were given by the secretary and treasurer and approved and after a few matters of business were attended to the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. R. L. House, was presented.

Mrs. House reviewed in a most interesting way the book "Kon-Tika" by Thor Heyerdahl, giving the background of the book and of the men who worked for and undertook the amazing scientific adventure recorded therein.

Tea was served after the review. On the table was a charming arrangement of straw flowers and greens arranged by Miss Helen Butler as a contribution from the Civic Gardening club. Mrs. R. L. House and Mrs. Sidney Evert presided at the tea table. Mrs. Neill McKeithan, hostess, gave lovely flowers for the president's table and these were later taken to Mrs. Hatfield.

Garden Club Has Interesting Program

The 15 Garden Club members who assembled at the home of Mrs. D. F. Kraft Tuesday afternoon for the regular monthly meeting enjoyed a program filled with helpful ideas that made them eager to get into gardening togs and begin putting them into practice.

Mrs. J. R. Marsh was in charge of the program, which consisted of a question and answer period, during which fine points of local gardening were discussed and experiences exchanged. Colored slides of flower arrangements done by club members last fall were shown, also pictures which had been sent to Mrs. F. B. Howland of gardens in England.

Proceeding the program there was a brief business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. William D. Campbell.

No Open House At Civic Club Today

The Civic Club will not have open house this afternoon (Friday) because of the program which it is sponsoring this evening: a performance in the High School auditorium by Wallace Baker the Magician.

DOES INSTALL OFFICERS IN COLORFUL CEREMONY AT COUNTRY CLUB TUESDAY

In a colorful public ceremony at the Southern Pines Country Club Tuesday evening, Southern Pines Drove No. 42, Benevolent Patriotic Order of Does, held its fourth annual installation of officers.

Decorations of native greenery and red gladioli were effectively used to form a setting for the ceremony, in which all officers to be installed wore white evening dresses and corsages of red roses.

Installing officers were Deputy Supreme President Mrs. Thelma Hoffman and Deputy Supreme Conductor Mrs. Elsie Thompson. Inducted were the following elective officers: Mrs. Kay Page, president; Mrs. Eleanor Poe, Mrs. Dorothy Pierce, Mrs. Pauline Ferguson, Mrs. Elsie Thompson, Mrs. Gay Thomas, Mrs. Gladys Doyle, Mrs. Helen Johnson, Mrs. Eileen Healy and Mrs. Vera Sitterson; and appointive officers Mrs. Helen Wallis, Mrs. Louise Johnson, Mrs. Wilma Whitehead, Mrs. Dorothy Patterson, Mrs. Edith Womble, Mrs. Oly King, Mrs. Louise Wiggs, Mrs. Mildred McDonald, Mrs. Hannah Coffin, Mrs. Virginia Ormsby and Mrs. Mabel McDonald.

After the installation ceremony, Mrs. Hoffman introduced Mayor Chan N. Page and Col. Don Madigan, each of whom spoke briefly, Mr. Page as a representative of the town and Colonel Madigan as a representative of the Elks.

Shower Is Given For Miss Yow, Bride-Elect

Miss Sarah Yow of Carthage, whose wedding to Robert F. Cameron of Southern Pines takes place Sunday, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Phillips in Carthage. Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. W. A. Wilmer of Charlotte were joint hostesses.

Bingo and rummy were played, and after several progressions, the honoree was asked to sit on the divan with Mrs. Phillips. Shower gifts heaped in a decorated clothes basket were then brought in by Mrs. Wilmer and Beth Wilmer, with Mrs. Worth McLeod and Miss Judith Wainer following with the overflow. Miss Yow received many beautiful and useful gifts.

A memory book in which each guest wrote a wish for the bride was presented to Miss Yow in memory of her close girlhood friend, the late Eliza Green, daughter of Mrs. Phillips.

Refreshments of ice cream roll topped with whipped cream, bridal mints and coffee were served. There were 16 guests present.

Miss Eunice Hatfield Is Feted On Birthday

Mrs. W. S. Chatfield and Mrs. John Talbert gave a canasta party at the Hatfield home Monday evening honoring Miss Eunice Chatfield on her birthday. Miss Mary Alice Tate and Miss Blanche Sherman were prize winners.

Refreshments consisted of party sandwiches in card shapes, birthday cake and coffee. The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Guests, in addition to Miss Chatfield, were Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Blackwelder, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chatfield, Mrs. Roy Solomon, Miss Tate and Miss Sherman.

Guild Meeting And Communion Next Week

St. Mary's Guild of Emmanuel church will meet in the parish house on Monday, January 15, at 3 p. m. Topic: "The Bible."

On Wednesday, January 17, there will be a Corporate Communion for the women of the parish at 11 a. m., followed by an Epiphany luncheon in the parish house. Each person is asked to bring her own sandwiches. Coffee and cake will be provided. All women of the parish are invited.

Baptist Circles Schedule Meetings

The Circles of the First Baptist church have scheduled meetings, for next week, as follows:

Willing Workers, at 3 p. m. Tuesday with Mrs. T. T. Ward, Indiana avenue.

Dorothy Wonderley circle, at 3 p. m. Tuesday with Miss Mary Richardson on Bennett street.

Business Woman's circle, at 8 p. m. Tuesday with Mrs. W. L. Baker on Bennett street, with Mrs. W. E. Bushby as co-hostess.

HOLIDAY WEDDING AT EUREKA CHURCH UNITES MISS BLUE AND MR. McLEOD

After Christmas and New Year holidays that included a wedding and trip, the former Miss Buna Blue returned on Monday of this week to her position with the Moore County Welfare department in Carthage as Mrs. Hugh Martin McLeod. The bridegroom left Sunday for Norfolk, Va., where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

MRS. HUGH MARTIN McLEOD

Miss Blue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Benton Blue of Carthage Rt. 3, and Mr. McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin McLeod of the same community, were married Saturday afternoon, December 23, in the Eureka Presbyterian church with Col. Frank M. Thompson of Pinehurst performing the double ring ceremony.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. D. Matthews, sister of the bride, of near Vass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of pink sheer wool jersey. White silk braid and white and gold sequins trimmed the neckline. She wore a matching hat and white silk mitts and carried a bouquet of bride's roses centered with a purple-throated orchid.

Miss Martha Blue of High Point attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a dress of lime crepe with a winter white hat. Her flowers were pink and white roses tied with matching ribbon.

J. B. McLeod, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Calvin B. Blue, Jr., brother of the bride, and Hubert McLeod, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. McLeod is a graduate of Brevard college and the University of North Carolina. The bridegroom attended Presbyterian Junior college at Maxton and N. C. State college.

They will make their home in Carthage.

MRS. FRANK COSGROVE GIVES ANNUAL LUNCHEON AT MID PINES FOR GUILD

The naming of a nominating committee to report at the February meeting was practically all of the business transacted by St. Joseph's Guild Tuesday when it met at Mid Pines hotel, those in charge preferring to devote the time to the full enjoyment of the third annual luncheon generously given by Mrs. Frank Cosgrove as a compliment to the Guild members.

Mrs. Thomas Barron of Southern Pines was named chairman of the committee, to prepare a slate of officers to be voted on at the next meeting. Others on the committee are Mrs. A. C. Aborn of Pinehurst, Mrs. Charles L. Grier of Carthage, Mrs. Neill McKeithan of Aberdeen and Mrs. C. L. Warner of Pinebluff.

It was reported that an ice machine for the hospital had been ordered at a cost of $695; the treasurer reported a balance of $3133.47 and announcement was made of a square dance and box supper to be held at the Southern Pines Country club on Wednesday, February 14, at 8:15 p.m. Those attending will carry the box lunches and coffee will be provided free. Mrs. Bernice Harrington and Mrs. J. C. Goodwin, Jr., are co-chairmen of the party.

The 75 Guild members who attended gave a rising vote of appreciation to Mrs. Cosgrove for the beautiful luncheon, which she was unable to attend because of a cold.

:: In and Out of Town ::

Mrs. James Prim, David and Carole Anne Prim of Brevard spent several days last week visiting Mrs. Prim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Chatfield. Mr. Prim and son James came Friday, and the family returned to Brevard Sunday. Mr. Chatfield accompanied his daughter home for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Lewis, Jr., returned Friday from a 10-day trip on which they visited friends in New York City, New Rochelle, N. Y., and Packanack Lake, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Lewis and son James of Lebanon, N. H., were recent guests of Mrs. Lewis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lewis.

E. V. Walker of South Bennett street is recovering from an illness at Moore County hospital and expects to come home soon.

Mrs. W. M. McLeod of Norman is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Fowler, at their home on New Jersey avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Small spent the holidays in Chicago.

Mrs. Foster Leads Helpful Discussion At Mothers Club

Fine attendance and a splendid program marked Wednesday night's meeting of the Mothers club, held at the home of Mrs. Will Wiggs. Mrs. Constance Foster of Pinebluff was guest leader of a discussion of teen-ager-parent problems which proved most interesting to the mothers. Mrs. Foster, a contributor to Parents' Magazine, Senior Prom and American Girl, based her remarks on two articles soon to appear which have as their theme "Be Kind to Teen-Agers" and "Be Kind to Dumb Parents."

Mrs. A. C. Dawson, president, conducted a brief business session. The Club presented Mrs. Dawson a beautiful baby blanket. Several guests were welcomed.

Thistle Club

High score winners at Wednesday's meeting of the Thistle club, held at Tarheelia with a 1:00 o'clock luncheon, were Mrs. Thomas Barron, Mrs. J. C. Grier, Jr., Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Wilma Whitehead, Mrs. Jellison, Miss Marguerite Wolf, Mrs. Lucy T. Walters, and Mrs. John Buchholz.

Next Wednesday the Club will hold a dessert-bridge at 1:30.

Mrs. John V. Clarke of North May Street Returned From a Trip to Myrtle Beach

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Clarke of North May street have returned from a trip to Myrtle Beach. Col. and Mrs. C. Wingate Reed of Asheville were guests of Mrs. Arthur W. Atherton at Braeburn Hall Wednesday night. Colonel Reed has just been recalled to active duty with the Ordnance department and was on his way to Washington to report. After a brief stay in Washington, Colonel Reed will assume the duties of Chief of the Birmingham Ordnance Procurement district. This is the army agency for procurement of all ammunition, armament, motor vehicles and other items of ordnance procured throughout the southeastern states. Mrs. Reed will visit her family in Washington, N. C., until she joins Colonel Reed in Birmingham.

Mrs. Lewis Spillman and children returned to Chapel Hill last week after a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mills.

(Held over from last week.) Major and Mrs. Joseph H. Patterson and baby Elaine and Capt. and Mrs. R. E. Fishburn and daughter Mary, of Fort Bragg, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. R. E. Patterson, mother of Major Patterson and Mrs. Fishburn.

Major and Mrs. Robert M. Webb and children, residents of Southern Pines for the past year, have gone to Fort Hood, Texas, to which place Major Hood has been transferred. Mrs. U. G. Bower left Sunday morning for Washington, D. C., to stay with her daughter, Miss Barbara Bower, until spring. Mrs. Ivey Norton of Maine is here for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Epps of Louisburg spent Monday night and Tuesday with his mother, Mrs. H. L. Epps. Mrs. Ethel Haight of Washington, D. C., spent the Christmas holidays with her sister, Mrs. S. B. Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collins attended a New Year's dance at Pinecrest Country club, Lumber-ton.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collins were his sisters, Misses Miriam and Dorothy Collins, of Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Graves were guests at a one o'clock dinner in the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Grier in Carthage, and at an evening dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Page, Jr., in Aberdeen.

Cameron-Yow Wedding To Take Place Sunday In Carthage Church

The wedding of Miss Sarah H. Yow of Carthage and Robert F. Cameron of Southern Pines will be solemnized Sunday afternoon, January 14, at 5:00 o'clock in the Carthage Presbyterian church, with the bride's pastor, the Rev. George Blount, officiating, assisted by Dr. John Cline of Carthage.

No formal invitations are being issued, but friends of both families are cordially invited to be present.

Missionary Will Be Bible Class Speaker

The Learn-More Bible class will meet at 8 o'clock Monday night at the home of Mrs. Wesley Stoltz on Page street. Miss Irene Hungerpillar of Costa Rica, a missionary to Latin America, will be guest speaker, and the class invites any who are interested to attend the meeting.

At last Monday's meeting, T. M. Fry of Carthage, a recent graduate of the Moody Bible institute, spoke to the group before the regular Bible study.

Mrs. McLaughlin Is Hostess To Auxiliary

Mrs. John S. McLaughlin, president of the American Legion auxiliary, was hostess to the members at her home on Tuesday night of this week for the January meeting of the organization. After the business session, Mrs. David McCallum and Mrs. McLaughlin presented a program on "National Defense and Legislation."

New Heir-rivals

CAROL ANN HOLMES Mr. and Mrs. Archie Holmes of Pleasanton, Kansas, are the parents of a baby girl, born December 21 at the Fort Scott hospital, Fort Scott, Kan., weighing six pounds, 11 ounces. The name chosen for their first child is Carol Ann. Mrs. Holmes is the former Miss Mabel Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Norton of South Bennett street, Southern Pines.

BARRY SCOTT JAGER

Capt. and Mrs. Roland V. Jager of San Francisco have a new son, Barry Scott, born December 24 in San Francisco, Cal. The baby weighed eight pounds, nine ounces. The Jagers have two other sons, Roland, Jr., 6, and Richard, 3. Mrs. Jager, the former Lucille Newton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Newton of Southern Pines and her baby arrived only one day ahead of his grandmother's birthday anniversary.

Father Herbert A. Harkins of St. Anthony's Catholic church left Thursday for New York City, where he will officiate at a nuptial mass uniting Miss Mary Taggart and Francis Duffy of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dey of Newburgh, N. Y., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Smith. Mrs. W. H. Kirch of Minneapolis, Minn., is registered at Magnolia Lodge for several weeks, also Mrs. Edna S. Shannon of Pineville, W. Va. Spending the winter at Thwingee are Mrs. James Keeley and Mrs. I. W. Travell, both of Ridgewood, N. J., and Miss Elizabeth Raymond of Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Darden and daughters, Patricia and Linda, spent Christmas with Mr. Darden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Darden, in Greenville. Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Bryant and son, Paul, Jr., of Clinton visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vann and family Sunday. Mrs. John Beasley had as her guests Tuesday night her sister, Mrs. P. Y. Adams, and Mrs. Vallette Harris, both of High Point. Miss Iris Harris returned Friday from New York, where she spent the holidays visiting her sister, Mrs. Odell. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Currie and son, Edwin, Jr., of San Antonio, Tex., Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Mayb and son, Richard, of Toluca, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue, Jr., Raleigh have returned to the home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue. Mrs. C. E. Fry had as week-end guests her brothers, Addis Greene of New Kensington, Pa. and Norman Greene of Indian Pa. Dr. Howard Powell, pastor Edenton Street Methodist church in Raleigh, and Mrs. Powell spent last week at Braeburn Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Allan D. Fisher Toronto, Canada, arrived Wednesday for an indefinite stay at Braeburn Hall. Mrs. D. E. Bailey returned last Friday from Moore County hospital, where she had been patient since Christmas afternoon. She is recovering nicely from operation. Miss Margaret Bailey returned early last week from a holiday visit to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Joseph, in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mattheu and children of Wilmington were guests of Mrs. W. D. Mattheu from Monday until Thursday this week.

January SPECIALS

New Spring SPORT SHIRTS
Long sleeves, bright plaids of Dan River fabrics
$3.88 each

MEN'S FELT HATS
Spring colors and shapes all fur felt
$4.85

CLOSE-OUTS
ODD LOTS — BROKEN SIZES
AT RIDICULOUSLY LOW PRICES
SWEATERS — SHOES — JACKETS

The Tog Shop

CHAS. S. PATCH Prop. SOUTHERN PINES

SCIENCE FIGHTS COLDS WITH

Let us help you battle your cold with one of the new drugs developed by science.

Depend on us to bring you their miracles when you need them

We will be open
Sunday, January 14
9 a.m. till 7 p.m.

Sandhill Drug Company

PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS
Telephone 6663 Southern Pines, N. C.