Burned-Out Family Now In New Home Postal Receipts Receive More Gifts Than Newlyweds'

Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Vann, who have been married 16 years, and their children Ann and Skipper set up housekeeping this week in their new home at 455 South Ashe street, with more gifts than most newlyweds.

Their homestead at Manly was burned early on Christmas Eve. They watched almost all their belongings go up in a big bonfire. Beginning that very day, the generosity of the community has sive 25 to 15 decision over gone out to them in every imags-Lakeview as the basketball inable way. Individuals, churches as of the two schools met in and organizations are all on the list of those who have given services and also almost every item they needed to start housekeeping from scratch.

"It has been overwhelming," said Mrs. Vann in one of the few moments she has had time to speak. What with moving, looking after the children and taking care of her job as bookkeeper at The nip and tuck pattern of the Pilot, she's been about the busiest as Southern Pines sparked lady in town. MAGIC SHOW

A program to interest and thrill both adults and children is promised by the Civic club in sponsoring the appearance here tonight (Friday) of Wallace the Magician. The show will be held at 8 o'clock at the school auditorium.

Wallace Lee, whose home is in Durham, is rated as one of the state's most accomplished entertainers. He is not only a magician but a ventriloquist, a lightningsketch artist and the author of a book, "Math Miracles." He is the proponent of "X-Jargon," a puzzle-patter version of English that strains the brain even as it provokes laughter.

Advance tickets may be secured from the Stevens Real Estate office and from Mrs. W. E. Cox (phone 8704).
