Baptist Circles Plan Activities

Baptist Church Circles held their monthly meetings Tuesday night, with interesting programs and good attendance.

The Willing Workers had 18 members, one new member, Bertha Harmon, and a visitor, Mrs. Lillian Huntley, present. Mrs. Thomasson led the program, and Mrs. Swindell conducted the devotions. The group planned activities for December. They will visit the Convalescent home this Sunday as their community mission project.

The Dorothy Wonderley circle had 13 members present and two visitors, Miss Edyth Bartlett and Mrs. Woods. Mrs. C. R. Mills led the devotions and Mrs. Fred Woodruff was program leader. This group will visit the Prison Camp Sunday as their community mission project.

Twelve members and three visitors, Mrs. L. T. Hall, Mrs. Henry Turner and Mrs. Inez Davenport, were present at the Harriet Witte Circle meeting. As a community mission project this Circle plans to prepare Bible verses to be put on trays at the hospital Sunday morning.

Attending the Helen Fowler Circle meeting were 13 persons, one visitor, Mrs. Chandler of Aberdeen, being there. Mrs. Gale led the program and Mrs. R. Chandler had the devotions. Visiting the State Sanatorium was the community mission project planned by this Circle.

DAR Meeting

The Alfred Moore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet with Mrs. Talbot Johnson at her home in Aberdeen at 2 p.m., Saturday, November 10. All visiting Daughters are invited to attend.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Rummage Sale

Members of the Moore County Hospital auxiliary met Tuesday, and heard Mrs. R. M. McMillan's plans for their annual Rummage Sale which is to be held Friday and Saturday, December 7 and 8, in the basement of the McMillan building on Broad street.

Delicious cakes and cookies, all home made, will be one of the main attractions. On her committee Mrs. McMillan has chosen Mrs. Gus Burney, Mrs. H. W. Doub, Mrs. A. P. Thompson, Mrs. Chan Page, Mrs. Harry Norris, Mrs. Leroy Harrington and Mrs. Rebecca Seymour.

Mr. Howarton, the new hospital administrator, was guest of honor of the Auxiliary and gave a short talk on the role of a hospital auxiliary and its service to the hospital and the community.

Miss Laura Kelsey, chairman, announced that a fund had been started in memory of Mrs. J. B. Edwards and that anybody who cared to contribute to it should make their donation to the Hospital.

Legion Auxiliary's Call For Gifts Meets Generous Response

Mrs. L. L. Woolley, rehabilitation chairman of the local unit of the American Legion auxiliary, wishes to thank all local merchants, friends and members of the unit for the generous response to the call for gifts for the Gift Shops at Veterans hospitals at Fayetteville and Swannanoa (Oteen division).

One hundred and ninety-nine gifts valued at $276.98 were received for this worthy cause.

"These articles will bring peace of mind at Christmas-time to many veterans who would not otherwise be able to send any presents home," says Mrs. Woolley. As the gifts are selected, volunteer workers wrap and mail them as directed by the servicemen to members of their immediate families.

Mrs. Kennedy To Conduct Sunday School of the Air

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy of Carthage, teacher of the Learn-More Bible class in Southern Pines, will conduct the Sunday School of the Air over Radio Station WEEB from 7:30 to 8 o'clock this Sunday morning, upon invitation of Dr. W. C. Holland, pastor of the First Baptist church here.

Mrs. Kennedy conducted the lesson last Sunday at the request of Dr. Robert L. House, president of the Moore County Ministers association, which sponsors the program, with the various members assuming responsibility in turn.

Teacher Training Institute Planned

A Teacher Training institute for Sunday School workers will be held Thursday and Friday nights, November 15 and 16, at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church parish hall, starting at 7:45 o'clock. All Sunday School workers are invited.

The audio-visual course of the International Council of Religious Education will be used. The Episcopal, Baptist, Congregational and Presbyterian churches are co-operating in the institute, with the four pastors in charge.

Episcopalians To Hold Family Night Program

Episcopalians are expected to gather in full force for a Family Night program, which is being prepared for Tuesday night, November 13, at the Emmanuel Episcopal parish house.

The meeting will begin with a dinner at 7 p. m., served by women of the Church of Wide Fellowship. The speaker will be Armistead Maupin of Raleigh, a layman who has taken a training course in the program of the church's missions. A movie on the University of the South at Seewanee, Tenn., will also be shown. A special program of slides will entertain the children.

Union Thanksgiving Service Scheduled

This year's Union Thanksgiving service will be held at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church at 8 p. m., Wednesday, November 21, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Cheves K. Ligon, assisted by Dr. William C. Holland of the Baptist church and the Rev. Charles V. Covell of the Episcopal church. The Rev. Robert L. House, D. D., pastor of the Church of Wide Fellowship, will bring the message.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD JOHN BENDER

MISS MARY ALICE TATE IS BRIDE OF MR. BENDER IN CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY

In a candlelight ceremony at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 4, at St. Anthony's Catholic church, Miss Mary Alice Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Tate of Southern Pines, became the bride of Edward John Bender, son of Mrs. Mary K. Bender of Montague, Mass. The Rev. Peter M. Denges, pastor of the church, officiated.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. L. D. McDonald, organist, Miss Merva Benjamin of Southern Pines and Wesley Stoltz of Sanford presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Benjamin sang "Ave Maria" by Schubert, and Mr. Stoltz sang "O Lord Most Holy" by Franck.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of satin and lace, designed with a nylon yoke and lace-trimmed bodice, long sleeves with calla points, and a bouffant skirt of satin with panels of Chantilly lace extending into a semi-train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion embroidered with seed pearls fell from a tiara, also trimmed with seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses and tuberoses centered with a white orchid and tied with white satin and white tulle.

Miss Merva Benjamin, maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a frost green gown with an off-the-shoulder fitted bodice, net yoke, and full gathered skirt. Her picture hat was of net, trimmed with ivy. She carried a bouquet of beige and talisman roses and ivy.

Charles R. Council of Raleigh attended the groom as best man. Ushers were William Harris of Sanford, Harry Lee Brown, Jr., of Southern Pines, Robert Bender of Annapolis, Md., brother of the groom, and Thomas Shockley of Southern Pines, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a slate-colored street-length dress with orchid accessories. The groom's mother wore taupe with black accessories. Both had orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the Civic Club. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used as decorations. The bride's table was covered with a hand-made cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by candelabra holding white candles.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. L. D. McDonald, Mrs. Lillian Miles Raymond and Mrs. Dwight Hoskins. Mrs. Wesley Stoltz presided at the bride's book.

Later the couple left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a gray suit with navy accessories and the white orchid lifted from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Pines High school. For the past few years she has been manager of Tate's Beauty shop here.

The bridegroom attended Columbia university and was graduated from Princeton. He received his Master's degree in sociology at the University of North Carolina, and at present is recreation director in Sanford.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Miss Eva Bender of Montague, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lewis, Bethel; Mrs. J. F. Parker, Hyattsville, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wade and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Blackwelder, Laurinburg; Mr. and Mrs. Knox Matthews and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tate, Aberdeen.

FIRST OF SERIES OF UNION MEETINGS OF CHURCH YOUTH IS DECIDED SUCCESS

The first of a series of union meetings of youth organizations of the Baptist, Congregational, Episcopal and Presbyterian churches was held Sunday evening, and the event was considered a decided success.

From 6 to 6:15 the group held a songfest in the Episcopal parish hall, with Mr. Snyder as accompanist. The next 30 minutes were devoted to disposing of a quantity of tempting sandwiches, brought by the young people, and dessert and drinks provided by the church.

Lieut. Col. Dean E. Hess then made a 30-minute talk, telling of his experiences in helping Korean orphans. He pointed out the fact that Koreans were far less impressed with the American weapons than with American mercy and charity. He stressed the great need for further help of all kinds, including clothing, and emphasized the value of prayer, both for those in the fighting forces and for peace. He asked that the young people pray for peace, as they entered the church for the final part of the program. Colonel Hess was introduced by Sandy Harris, president of the Young People's Service League.

The meeting closed with impressive devotions in the sanctuary, and a short musical program by Mrs. Arthur Eakins. Captain Boardman, an Episcopal chaplain in the Air Force, gave the invocation.

The next union meeting will be at the Church of Wide Fellowship on Sunday, December 2.

Mrs. Heinitch To Conduct Bible Study

At the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock Monday night, November 12, Mrs. George Heinitch will present an intensive Bible study on the book of James entitled "Applied Christianity," by Dr. Samuel McPheeters Glasgow. All members of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church are urged by the leaders to be present, and any others who are interested are invited to attend this meeting. Mrs. Heinitch suggests that those planning to attend read the epistle of James in its entirety before the meeting, also that they carry Bibles to the study, for reference during the presentation.

Attend Game

Attending the Carolina-Tennessee game at Chapel Hill Saturday were Misses Janet Hamel, Sieger Herr, Phyllis Faircloth, Peaches Cameron and Joanne Harris, accompanied by Dr. G. G. Herr. The party had dinner at the Carolina Inn and greatly enjoyed the game despite the unhappy score of 27 to 0 for Tennessee. They came away convinced that Carolina has a great team which will come into its own in future games, also that Bill Baker, of Southern Pines, in his first year on the Tar Heel team, is one of the best beginning players a team could have.

This And That

Ladies of Emmanuel Episcopal church will hold a "This and That" sale next Friday and Saturday, November 16 and 17, at the Straka building on East E street.

Household furnishings, ornaments, antiques and personal accessories of all sorts contributed by the members and their friends will be placed on sale.

Mrs. Austin's Father Passes In Maine

Edmund Barter of Booth Harbor, Maine, father of Minnie Austin of Southern Pines, passed away on November 1. Funeral services were held 3rd. Mrs. Austin has been in Maine for several months because of his illness.

Miss French Honors House Guests At Dinner Party Monday

Honoring her house guests, Etta Craig Dick of Charlotte, Miss Helen Stanley of Staunton, Va., Miss Mary Jane F. was hostess at a dinner party at her home on Hill road Monday evening. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor of Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kinney, Harold Ward, Ed Manley and Hermann Grove.
