Civic Club Will Hold Open House

The board of directors of the Southern Pines club met Monday at their club house and decided to start activities for the winter today (Friday).

Beginning today the Civic Club room will be open each Friday afternoon at 2:30 for cards or other games and tea will be served at 4 o'clock. The board extends a cordial invitation to club members, also to visitors in Southern Pines or other interested friends, to come to the Civic Club building, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Ashe street, and enjoy the informal social time.

The Civic Club president, Mrs. E. W. Marble, who resides in Niagara during the winter, has been ill with pneumonia in Maine, but she expects to return to Niagara this week or next. After her arrival, the club's program for the winter will be planned and further announcements made.

Presbyterian Circles Set New High In Total Attendance For Month

When a final count of heads was made following the meetings of Circles 5 and 6 of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church, the total attendance for November in the six Circles was found to be 94, a record high.

Circle 6 met Thursday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Everett A. Horrell, with Mrs. Charles Wicker serving as co-hostess. Two new members, Mrs. Jackman and Mrs. Elwood Blake, brought the membership attendance to 12, and there were two visitors, Mrs. Walter Harper and Mrs. Don Jones, Sr. Mrs. C. K. Ligon conducted the Bible study, and Mrs. Joe Garzik gave the Survey article.

Circle 5, last of the six groups to meet, was entertained in the home of Mrs. Hal Adams Tuesday morning with 14 members present, two of whom, Mrs. George Leonard and Mrs. A. L. Burney, were new. Mrs. C. L. White led the Bible study, and Mrs. Jim Pleasants presented the Survey article.

Mary McMillan Has Birthday Party

Mary McMillan celebrated her fourth birthday Saturday at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. McMillan, Massachusetts Avenue extension, by entertaining several little friends at a party.

A play period was followed by the traditional birthday cake and ice cream, with favors for all of the children. Margot Campbell was present to assist Mary's mother with the party. Guests were Liz Vale, Stephanie Pollock, Norma and Betty Cordon, Nonie White, Katy Gilmore and Julia McMillan.

Guest Speaker At Guild Meeting

Miss Mary Parker, young church worker of St. Mary's Episcopal church, High Point, will be the speaker at the semi-monthly meeting of St. Anne's Guild of Emmanuel church Monday at 8 p. m., at the parish hall.

Miss Parker will speak on "Windham House and Church Vocations." She is a graduate of Windham House, a training school for women in church vocations, located in New York City.

News Notes From New England House

Miss Ida Merriam of Jeffreys, N. H., has returned to the New England House for her third winter season.

Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Bennett are at the New England House for a two weeks' stay. They are on their way to Florida from Brewster, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Horan of Milton, Mass., are spending a week at the New England House.

St. Mary's Guild Will Meet Monday

There will be a meeting of St. Mary's Guild, the afternoon group of the Woman's Auxiliary of Emmanuel Episcopal church, on Monday, November 19, at 3 p. m., in the parish house. Readings from Dawley's book, "Chapters in Church History," will be given and tea will be served. All women are invited.

Baptist Women Schedule Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will be held at 8 p. m. next Tuesday in the church parlor. It will be preceded by a meeting of the executive committee at 7:30.

MISS ANNE WOODWARD SEAWELL IS BRIDE OF COLIN WILLIAM MCKENZIE, Jr.

Miss Anne Woodward Seawell of Carthage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seawell, was married on Saturday, November 10, to Colin William McKenzie, Jr., of Pinehurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin William McKenzie. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Freed of Greensboro. The couple left immediately for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home at Pinehurst.

Mrs. McKenzie was educated at Bob Jones university and Peace college, where she was graduated with high honors as president of the Senior class. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Sr., and the late Judge Seawell of Carthage.

Mr. McKenzie was graduated from North Carolina State college and is soon to enter the United States Army as a commissioned officer.

MRS. WICKS SPEAKS ON CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM AT LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING

Mrs. Roger M. Wicks, who served as co-chairman of the recent Crusade for Freedom in Moore county with her husband, Brigadier General Wicks, spoke on the Crusade at Tuesday night's meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, which was held at the home of Mrs. Bertha Fields in Pinehurst.

Introduced by Mrs. Virgil Page Clark, Americanism chairman, who was in charge of the program, Mrs. Wicks held the rapt attention of the group as she explained much about the operation of the Crusade through radio broadcasts in Europe, with a station beamed at Asia as another objective of the drive. The speaker was with her husband during 22 of his 34 months' service in Korea, and she recounted many incidents, some tragic, other humorous, which took place while they were there.

Each one attending the meeting felt a deeper sense of appreciation of the great work that has been done in combatting communism, and a greater responsibility for helping continue this fight, as a result of Mrs. Wicks' explanation of the Crusade for Freedom.

Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, Unit president, presided over the short business session which preceded the program.

Mrs. Clark Elected Area Vice President Of Legion Auxiliary

Coming as an honor to the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary was the election on Thursday of last week of one of its members, Mrs. Virgil Page Clark, to the office of vice president of the Third Area, which comprises about one-fourth of the state of North Carolina. She will succeed Mrs. Paul Noell of Durham whose term in the area's top office will expire next June. The election took place at the annual Area convention, held at Fuquay Springs. At present Mrs. Clark holds the office of Twelfth District committeewoman.

Attending the convention with Mrs. Clark was Mrs. Holt McNeill of Carthage, Area Rehabilitation chairman.

Bible Study Taught By Mrs. Heinitch Proves Interesting

A large group of members of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church heard an unusually interesting presentation of the book of James entitled "Applied Christianity" by Dr. Samuel McPheeters Glasgow, given by Mrs. George Heinitch Monday night.

Points stressed were faith, works, control, humility and patience, each being brought to every-day, practical, applied Christianity, and pointed up as virtues which can and should be practiced by all who call themselves "Christians."

This program was the coverage of the Intensive Bible Study as planned by the Board of Women's Work of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.

Here For Funeral of William Hackney, Jr.

Among the relatives who came to attend the funeral of William D. Hackney, Jr., held Monday at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church, were Mrs. Oscar Wilder, Norfolk, Va., Miss Emma Louise Hackney, Greensboro, Charles Hackney of Austin, Texas, who remained with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hackney, until Thursday; Mrs. Charlie Bunn, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Margaret Bialock and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hackney, Greensboro; Mrs. Oscar Moody, Curtis and Don Moody, Bear Creek; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Patterson, Miss Joyce Patterson, Mrs. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Rozelle Patterson, Miss Mildred Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Stevenson and daughter, Mamers; and Mr. and Mrs. Eastman, Red Springs.

Mrs. Henry L. Graves Entertains For Guests

Honoring her aunts, Miss Hattie E. Rusk of Long Island, N. Y., and Mrs. C. D. Webster of Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. Henry Graves entertained at a dinner party at her home on Hill road recently. Other guests were her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davenport, of Boston, Mass., who were spending two weeks at Pinehurst on their way to Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Graves of Southern Pines.

Mrs. Graves was hostess at a bridge-luncheon at Pine Needles club Friday, in honor of Mrs. Davenport.

The Prims Unite In Entertaining

The Prim family—Daddy James, Mother Madeline, Jimmy, David and Carole Ann—were at home to several friends at a delightfully informal party at their home Monday.

The evening began with a wieners roast, and after supper Danny Kalais entertained the guests around a campfire by singing several cowboy songs. Later the various age-groups played games—canasta in the living room, monopoly in the dining room, and ping-pong in the basement.

Present for this "family night" party were Penny and Ginger Rawlins, Billy and Palmer Sugg, George Reams, Philip Guin, Shirley Twing, Danny Kalais, Miss Flora McIntyre, Miss Geneva Applewhite, Miss Maydelle Kennedy and J. B. York.

Thistle Club Church Women Meet

The Thistle bridge club met Wednesday afternoon at the Southern Pines Country club, with six tables at play. High score winners were Mrs. C. L. Worsham, Mrs. Charles Gray, Mrs. Neita Blake, Mrs. Nellie Neal, Mrs. Laura Baker and Mrs. Helen Buchholz.

There will be no meeting Thanksgiving week, but the club will meet as usual on November 28.

St. Joseph's Guild Meeting

Around 45 enthusiastic members of St. Joseph's Guild met Tuesday afternoon at the Pine Needles club house, with the president, Mrs. Audrey Kennedy, presiding. The treasurer reported a balance of $2,788.64.

A discussion of future benefit events and the active participation of all members in these, as they strive to reach their goal of "$50,000 by February 1953" was held.

The December meeting will be a social event, to which each member is privileged to invite a guest.

Teen-Age Club Enjoys Hayride, Wiener Roast

Around 25 members of the Teen-Age club enjoyed a hayride Saturday night to Pinebluff lake, where they roasted wieners for an appetizing outdoor supper and had fun playing games. They made the trip in two trucks with Harold McAllister and James Prim at the wheels. Other adults in the party were Miss Merva Benjamin, leader of the group, Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Prim.

New Church Circle Installs Officers

The monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Women of the Church will be held at the church Monday night at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Joe C. Thomas, Assembly's Special Causes chairman, will have charge of the program, with Mrs. Hubert Cameron, Mrs. C. K. Ligon and Mrs. Bill Blue taking part.

Learn-More Bible Class

The Learn-More Bible class will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bridgeman, Ridge street, for a study of Genesis 46-50.

MRS. FREDERICK HENRY WEAVER

MISS ANGAS AND MR. WEAVER WED AT PRINCETON; TO LIVE AT CHAPEL HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Henry Weaver, whose marriage took place Saturday at noon in the Princeton University Chapel at Princeton, N. J., will make their home in Chapel Hill, where the bridegroom is dean of students at the University of North Carolina.

The bride is the former Miss Frances Louise Angas, daughter of Vice Admiral William Mack Angas and Mrs. Angas of Princeton. Given in marriage by her father, she wore a candlelight satin gown and a Dutch cap which held a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of Eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

The bride's sisters, Lt. Mary Angas, USN, stationed at Charleston, S. C., and Miss Roberta Angas of Princeton, were maid of honor and bridesmaid.

The bridegroom, the son of Mrs. Frederick H. Weaver of Southern Pines, and the late Mr. Weaver, was attended by his brother, Harold Weaver, as best man. Ushers were Alexander Heard and George Esser, of Chapel Hill.

After the ceremony, which was conducted by the Rev. Robert Nelson of Chatham, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home. Mrs. Weaver is a graduate of Packer Collegiate Institute in Brooklyn, N. Y., and the University of North Carolina, where she was a member of Phi Beta Pi sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Aberdeen High school and an alumnus of the University of North Carolina. He received his Master of Arts degree at Harvard university. He was vice-consul at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, before serving four years as an officer in the Air Transport Service of the United States Navy.

Among relatives and friends of the bridegroom who attended the wedding were his mother, Mrs. Ada Weaver, of Southern Pines; James Boyd, Jr., of Southern Pines; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weaver, Alexander Heard and George Esser, all of Chapel Hill; and Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Cameron and daughter, Mollie, of Chapel Hill, who are living temporarily in Princeton while Dr. Cameron, who was awarded a fellowship, is doing special study at Princeton university. Mr. Weaver's sister Mrs. Helen Frink, of Columbia, S. C., was there, also.

VFW AUXILIARY TREATS POST MEMBERS TO DINNER, CELEBRATES 3rd BIRTHDAY

On Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Post home, members of the VFW Ladies' Auxiliary were hostesses to John Boyd Post 7318 at a delicious home-cooked dinner. The menu was that of a real Thanksgiving dinner: the turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, peas, cranberries, and gravy, all prepared by the Auxiliary members.

The table was set in banquet style, with Commander John Buchholz, Past Commander Don Jones and Auxiliary President Mrs. Louis Garty at the head. On a side table was a huge birthday cake decorated in pink and green with three gold candles. Gold chrysanthemums, blue and yellow candles were used on tables and mantel, emphasizing the Auxiliary colors.

Following the dinner President Garty asked for a brief meeting while the Post members were still seated around the table. At this time she presented the Post a new General Electric roaster for use at the Post home as a gift from the Auxiliary. Another lovely gift for the Post home was a 48-cup electric coffeemaker. Commander Buchholz expressed thanks on behalf of the Post members for these lovely and useful gifts and for the dinner which they all seemed to enjoy greatly.

At 9 o'clock a short prayer for the children of the VFW National Home at Eaton Rapids was said, as this is the hour of the children's prayer service, too. Then the group sang "Happy Birthday" and Auxiliary President Garty cut the first slice of cake and presented it to Commander Buchholz, while Harry Chatfield made flash pictures.

As the guests proceeded by the table to be served, Mrs. Ralph Mills, an Auxiliary member dressed as a Gypsy fortune teller, went from one to another of the Post members telling their fortunes, thereby creating many laughs.

A special guest at the dinner was Mrs. Jones, mother of Past Commander Don Jones, who is spending some time with him.

Emmaday Collins Has Birthday Surprise

Emmaday Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collins of Youngs road, was given a surprise fried chicken birthday dinner—a somewhat impromptu affair—Saturday evening, November 3, by her mother.

A beautifully decorated pink and white birthday cake with nine candles centered the table, and there were favors of miniature baskets filled with candy for each little guest. Emmaday received a number of attractive gifts.

Helping celebrate the occasion were Connie Pierce, Diana Pearson, Patty Gordon-Mann, Frances Harper, Alice and Pat Farrior, and Becky Traylor, all of Southern Pines, Mary Ann Wright of Pinehurst, and Susan Goode and Lee Sheppard of Lumberton.

Does To Nominate Officers Tuesday

Southern Pines Drove 42, BPO Does, will meet in regular session Tuesday evening at the Southern Pines Country club. Officers for the year will be nominated at this meeting, and the election will be held December 4.

Mrs. Lillian Miles Raymond spent last week in New York City buying spring merchandise for Patch's. This week she will attend a showing of shoes at a convention in Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Younts and children, Sandra and Mitt, moved this week from 425 Orchard road to the Francis L. Robinson home on Old Bethesda road. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Page Clark spent the Armistice weekend visiting relatives in Bedford, Va., and Asheville.
