

Stock Riding Shirt, New Arrow Item, Has World Premiere In Local Shop

"The Song of the Shirt" in Southern Pines this week is one of special interest for the horse-riding gentry—also for anyone interested in seeing big business meet a special need, and an exclusive honor come to this resort town.

The tangible evidence is the selection of handsome riding shirts in the Tog Shop window—stock shirts in beautiful Tattersall checks, the kind of thing which could formerly be obtained only on custom order except at some big city shops, at a very special price.

The maker's name on the shirts is the well-known Arrow, and the price tag is about that of any good dress shirt.

No, this isn't an ad—it's a story. The shirts were designed by W. D. Moss of Southern Pines and the first ones made arrived here this week, exclusive at the Tog Shop—and that means exclusive. It's the only place, anywhere in the world, they have been placed on sale.

It all began a year ago when Barry Liethead, president of the Cluett, Peabody company, makers of Arrow shirts, came to Southern Pines with several members of his board for some hunting with the Moore County Hounds.

At Mile-Away Farm MFH Ozelle Moss broached a subject very much on his mind—why couldn't some good shirt-maker, say Cluett, Peabody, make up the traditional riding shirt to wear with a stock, for sale at a reasonable price? Members of the field set store by correct hunting clothes, and riding and hunting calls for many shirts. There were also many young people coming along in the hunt—promising youngsters, but for whom custom wardrobes could not be afforded. They should be able to go to a store and buy a shirt!

Mr. Liethead had Mr. Moss sketch him off his idea of a shirt, which he did, showing him the rounded collar-band, and gathered sleeves. A few weeks later, along came some sample riding shirts made by Arrow, their first for both Mr. and Mrs. Moss. They were exactly right, and so Mr. Moss informed his shirtmaker friend.

And Tuesday of this week, five dozen arrived at the Tog Shop, in all sizes, from 13 and a half collar size for the young folks, to 17 for the husky men.

If the stock shirts meet with success in Southern Pines they may become a regular Arrow item, to be placed on sale in other resorts where riding and hunting prevail, according to information received by C. S. Patch, Jr., Tog Shop proprietor.

Proudly adding the shirts to his now-complete stock of riding accessories, Mr. Patch described them for your reporter as "Tattersall checks in various colors on cotton twill fabric"—a sturdy, traditional garment, no longer just for custom trade.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Mavin and son, Richard, of Lawndale spent last weekend with Mrs. Maybin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue.

Morehead Teams Make Clean Sweep of Series

Returning the January visit here of the Morehead City basketball teams, Southern Pines Jayvee and varsity squads went to Morehead last Friday for games Friday and Saturday night.

While the Blue and White teams put up terrific battles Saturday night after dropping both games Friday, the resort city's teams copped the 1952 series.

The Jayvees went down 45-49 and 36-38, with the senior Blue and White team going down 59-75 and a hard fought neck-and-neck 66-72.

Miss Allie McIntosh went to Charlotte Tuesday to attend the Antique Show sponsored by the Charlotte Woman's club. She plans to return today (Friday).

Mrs. Catherine Shaw and Mrs. H. M. Patterson visited Mrs. J. U. Thrower and daughters, Misses Helen and Edith Meachum, in Robbins Sunday afternoon.

High Scorers

High scorers at Wednesday's meeting of the Thistle club were Mrs. J. G. de Berry, Mrs. A. Montesanti, Sr., Mrs. W. L. Baker, Mrs. J. D. Stinson and Mrs. Thomas Barron.

STOREY TROPHY

This is the second year the W. M. Storey Memorial trophy has been awarded. Last year's winner was Troop 206, Pinebluff.

Point System Defined

Leading up to the announcement, Dr. John C. Grier, Jr., of Pinehurst, district commissioner, gave the basis for computing the winner by a point system covering all phases of troop activity during the entire calendar year. The system is one by which the efforts of each individual scout count toward the award, as well as those of the troop as a whole.

servation that those who signed it have been given to understand that there are other routes available, to complete the link with Fort Bragg, which could be constructed with probably less expense and, while serving equally well the Southern Pines - Fort Bragg traffic, would not be injurious to the hunting and would not have the unfortunate effect of routing directly into town a large volume of through traffic.

The petition carries the names of many well known in the community, of property owners along the proposed route as well as those in business, located in town. The hunt is represented by both masters, the owners of all the large hunt and show stables in the surrounding area, as well as some who send horses here for the hunting season.

Last week's petition is the second to be dispatched to commissioner Coble and is in opposition to another, sent last fall, which urged construction of this route.

With the army road paved to within a few miles of this end of the reservation, the remaining unpaved route, of less than two miles in Moore County, remains to be decided on. As the time for traversing the present unpaved route is less than five minutes, according to reliable clocking, the trip to Fort Bragg has already been substantially reduced in time.

With the case for the resort and the hunt now clearly stated in this second petition, signed by many whose interest in this section has been evident in many ways for many years, it is felt that the full picture of local opinion regarding this question has been clearly drawn for the benefit of those who must make the final decision.
