Alfred Moore Chapter, DAR, Meets In Carthage

The Alfred Moore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the Carthage hotel Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. J. L. McGraw, Mrs. M. J. McPhail and Miss Ruth Tyson as hostesses.

The regent, Mrs. R. P. Rosser, presided.

Newly elected officers are: regent, Mrs. W. G. Brown, Carthage; vice regent, Mrs. R. P. Rosser, Sanford; recording secretary, Mrs. R. B. Jordan, Gulf; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. T. Grier, Carthage; treasurer, Miss Florence Campbell, Southern Pines; chaplain, Mrs. H. F. Seawell, Sr., Carthage; librarian, Mrs. J. T. Johnson, Aberdeen; and historian, Mrs. T. B. Melvin, Sanford.

A playlet directed by Mrs. J. L. McGraw was given by ten members in costume representing women who have made United States history. Background music was played on the piano by Mrs. M. J. McPhail, who selected favorite tunes of the day of each character.

The dining room was decorated with arrangements of flowers in patriotic colors. Party sandwiches, block cake, salted nuts, mints, tea and coffee were served by the hostesses.

Music Club Elects New Officers

Miss Ruth Tyson was hostess to the Carthage Music club Friday evening at her home on Pinehurst drive.

Officers elected by the members for the new club year were: president, Mrs. L. R. Sugg; vice president, Mrs. J. K. Roberts; secretary, Mrs. W. G. Brown; treasurer, Mrs. Colin G. Spencer.

Mrs. F. H. Underwood gave the study for the evening which was the completion of the book on American folk music.

The biography of Johann Sebastian Bach was given by Mrs. George W. Blount. Miss Tyson played recordings of Bach's compositions, "Cantata No. 131," by the Robert Shaw Chorale, and "Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C Major" played on the organ by E. Power Biggs.

During the social hour, open-faced sandwiches, French pastries and coffee were served.

H. L. Miller Elected President Presbyterian Men

Harvey Lee Miller was elected president of the Presbyterian Men of the Fayetteville Presbytery at the annual meeting held at Flora Macdonald college in February.

Another Carthage man, Lee McDonald, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Presbyterian organization.
