

Two Civil Suits Involve Former Elks Home Here

Two civil suits involving the handsome property of the Elks Lodge, the former Elks Home on South May street, were filed last week in Moore superior court.

In one, W. W. Sherman and wife Josephine seek foreclosure of the property, asking that the court order a commissioner's sale so that terms of a promissory note for $20,000 executed by the Elks Home of Southern Pines, Inc., to the Shermans may be met.

In the other suit, Wayne D. Boring and wife Lois of Westchester county, New York, are asking the return of $6,000 allegedly paid to the Elks Home of Southern Pines, Inc., as down payment on a $15,000 purchase price.

The Borings state that, since these payments were made last October, they have not received the town permit, also that they have failed in their efforts to secure the necessary funds for building.

They ask recovery and also an accounting before the court.

Saunders Elected To Presidency of Robbins Mills, Inc.

William P. Saunders of Southern Pines was elected president of Robbins Mills, Inc., moving up from the job of executive vice-president, at a meeting of the board of directors held in New York City this week.

The election followed the resignation of Edward A. Werner of New York, who served as president, treasurer and director during 1951-52. Mr. Werner will remain with the company in an advisory capacity.

Mr. Saunders, besides being executive vice-president of the parent organization, has also for some time been president of the subsidiary corporation Robbins Mills, N. C., Inc., which operates the four Robbins plants in North Carolina and one at Clarksville, Va. He will continue to hold this office, with headquarters at the Aberdeen plant.

His move to the headship of the main corporation does not mean he will have to move to New York, even though the last two presidents have lived there, Mr. Saunders said this week. "I'm a born Tar Heel, have been one all my life and expect to stay right here," he said in answer to The Pilot's query.

Karl Robbins, president before Mr. Werner, and during the past year chairman of the board, was moved over by the election to the office of treasurer.

Machine farming has boosted the output of food and fiber, but also the farmer's outlay of cash. Economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture point out that the value of tractors on farms at the beginning of this past year was almost nine times the value of work animals. The value of trucks was four times that of work stock.

NOTICE OF SALE OF TAXES

On Monday, June 2nd, 1952, at 10 o'clock a.m. at City Clerk's office in the Municipal Building, East Broad street, the following described property will be offered for sale for taxes due the Town of Southern Pines for 1951 taxes, together with penalties and cost of advertising.

MRS. J. H. TILGHMAN, City Tax Collector.
